subject to correction.

The President then declared the Convention ready for business.

Motions were duly made and carried that telegrams be sent as follows:

Greetings to the Confederate Veterans assembled in Convention at Chattanooga.

Telegrams of sympathy to Mrs. Ida Wilkins of Weldon. Honorary Vice-President; Mrs. R. E. Little of Wadesboro, Ex-State President, who were ill and unable to attend; also to General John Van B. Metts. Raleigh, on the death of his father. General James I. Metts.

The Secretary then read the rules and regulations. (See in back of book.)

Mrs. T. G. Hyman, First Vice-President, was called to the chair, and presided while the President read her report.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Daughters of the North Carolina Division:

A year ago you conferred upon me your highest office and when I responded to your call I knew that with the honor went many duties and a very grave responsibility. The responsibility has been ever present with me, but I do assure you that a labor of love has its joys, and joy born of service in a cause so worthy is compensation. To serve, to guard the interests of and to promote the work in a constructive way has been my desire and effort. I have found the most loval co-operation in my Executive Board, whose one thought has been for service.

As we assemble for our twenty-fifth Convention our hearts are grieved because of the death of our beloved General James I. Metts, which occurred in Wilminton the eighteenth of this month. His place in our hearts and in our Conventions can never be filled. A beautiful laurel wreath and messages of sympathy were sent from the Division.

During the year we have been bereft of on of our honorary presidents, Mrs. J. Bryan Grimes, whose last summons came to her in Raleigh. A floral tribute was sent from the Division.

A floral tribute was also sent to Mrs. R. P. Holt, our Third

Vice-President General, as an expression of sympathy in the death of her mother, Mrs. Whitehead, which occurred at the home of Mrs. Holt, Rocky Mount.

Sympathy has also been expressed to Miss Mary Mabry of Albemarle, our Third Vice-President, who is bereaved of her father, Colonel Mabry.

According to a ruling of the last Convention the Second and Third Vice-Presidents have had specific duties; the Second serving as Chairman of Education and the Third as Publicity Chairman. The latter has been very successful in securing the co-operation of the press in keeping before the public U. D. C. activities and interests. She has also endeavored to increase the number who read the Confederate Veteran, and to that end has offered a prize for the largest number of new subscriptions. The Veteran is the property of the Confederate Organizations and deserves a place in every Southern home.

Aulander Chapter, Aulander, and Cary Chapter, Cary, organized last year, have this year been chartered. Ahoskie Chapter, Ahoskie; Col. G. F. Whitfield Chapter, LaGrange; Rebecca Winborne Chapter, Farmville; and Lee County Chapter, Sanford, have been organized and chartered, thus making six new chapters to welcome into the Division. Three chapters have been reinstated—Scotland, Pamlico and Gatesville. With nine chapters added to our working forces, we may expect even greater things and in a measure, compensation for those reported dead.

The membership drive has been continued with the result that 864 certificates have been signed. Besides this, has been the registration of old members. This task seemed overwhelming but when once taken up the mountain of difficulty gradually disappeared and the result is most gratifying as your hard-worked Registrar will tell you. You may be pleased to know that your Director of Children's Work has been judged by the Third Vice-President General the most efficient of all her Directors. Registration has been a part of this work as her report will show. Eight new chapters have been organized and it has pleased me to sign ——— Children of the Confederacy certificates. It was my pleasure to be present when the Frank Bennet Chapter Children of the Confederacy so beautifully entertained the Seventh District Meeting. What splendid training and encouragement for these children who are to be the Daughters of tomorrow!

More and more the District work is a necessary part of our Organization. To the Directors credit is due for a great part of the work accomplished. To them I have turned when I wished to know the pulse of the activities of the Division.

Because of the many calls for work that have crowded the year this has been a throbbing pulse and the Director who receives for her District the Lane Banner, will know that the honor was not easily won. Of the fifteen District Meetings held this year it has been my pleasure to be present at ten. From the coast to far into the mountains I have mingled with the Daughters, and as your President, have been the recipient of most generous hospitality and many courtesies. I have been glad to find and to encourage interests within the Districts. The special cares taken over by some of them and the prizes offered within are not only inspirational to but constructive in the life of the District.

Your Recorder of Crosses reports one hundred and ten Crosses of Honor bestowed.

Only one Chapter Year-Book has come to me and this was a splendid one from Bethel Heroes Chapter, Rocky Mount. The convenience and helpfulness of these year-books deserve the consideration of every chapter.

In the early part of the year it was my pleasure to visit our two Confederate Homes. At that time the Soldiers' Home was in dire need of repair but as a Division we have cause to rejoice over the increase in the state appropriations for the maintenance of the two Homes and also for an improvement fund for the Soldiers' Home. We must ever hold in grateful remembrance the Veterans and Legislators who joined the Daughters in the effort to secure these appropriations and to increase the Pension Bill to one million dollars. A full report of this work will be given by the Chairman of this committee, who, with her co-workers, gave so unsparingly of time and work in this behalf. That our men and women of the sixties, whose lives have in this way been touched are more comfortable and happy because of the success of all these efforts is not to be questioned. And the Daughters are happier because "happiness is a perfume you can not pour on others without getting a few drops yourself." With this thought in mind we remember the various gifts which go into these two homes from the Chapters of the State, reports of which you will hear through the interested Chairman of the Homes. Both the U. D. C. and C. of C. Chapters of Raleigh and Fayetteville are very attentive to the members of these homes, finding great pleasure in contributing in various ways to their comfort and pleasure. For your consideration is the great need of a better system of water works for the Woman's Home. Also the Home is filled with members and there are many on the waiting list. The feebleness of these dear old women requires conveniences and more downstairs room. Can any appeal be more worthy? In ministering unto these we honor ourselves.

The most gratifying reports come from our work at the Montrose Sanatorium and it has been a pleasure to approve the statements, which amount to forty-eight or fifty dollars each month.

This year very attractive lists of prizes, including historical, membership, all-round chapter work and C. of C. prizes, have confronted you whenever you have opened your Division Minutes at pages 101 and 102. Some of these are offered this year for the first time and I trust they have been a new incentive to work throughout the state. Besides these some of the prizes offered by the General organization have been competed for.

The effort to eliminate Muzzy's History from our schools and to prevent the entrance of other objectionable histories has awakened widespread interest and we have the active co-operation of the Veterans and Sons of Veterans. Daughters, I commend this to you as one of the most important phases of our work. Our children should no longer be the victims of such gross misrepresentations as are found in Muzzy's and other school histories. We ask only for truthful and impartial history. The South neither wants nor needs any unmerited glory.

You will remember that Gettysburg was to be our chief effort in Division work this year, and in this behalf you have had the most earnest appeals from your Director. It was also decided that an effort be made to finish the Stars and Bars Memorial this year. You will be glad to know that at the Thirteenth District Meeting, held in Wilson, the marker erected to the memory of Mrs. Rebecca M. Winborne, maker of the first Confederate Flag, was unveiled with the most beautiful and impressive ceremonies. It was my privilege to receive it for the Division and to turn it over to the loving care of the John W. Dunham Chapter.

At the General Convention in Asheville, the Divisions were urged to complete this year the Hero Fund and the fund for the Jefferson Davis Monument. Notwithstanding the general financial depression, these calls were placed before you in confidence that you would make every effort to measure up to the required standard. The results are at least worth every effort put forth. The $1,962.19 for the Hero Fund assures our Division of another scholarship. Your Chairman of Education has an interesting report to make on this and the state work.

Five hundred and fifty-four dollars have been collected for the Jefferson Davis Monument. You are familiar with the plan to finish this monument. When completed it will be the second highest monument in the world. The Veterans are looking to the Daughters to complete this work and we have covenanted with them and must not fail them. Our State Chairman for this monument is also the General Chairman and you will hear from her.

Much interest was manifested in the Cunningham Memorial, the Maury Memorial and the Jefferson Davis Highway, and Directors for these causes have been and will be heard from.

The collection of the records of our soldiers who served in the world war is the perpetuation of Confederate History. In order to keep this interest stimulated, your Director has again offered a prize to the chapter sending in the largest number of records.

Our Book, "Women of the South in War Times," and the Publicity fund for that book have a very creditable showing in our Division. An effort has been made to place a copy of this book in every College of our state, and I trust that this will be accomplished.

A resolution was passed at the General Convention that "the local chapters of the U. D. C. endeavor to have sung in churches throughout the South on the Sunday before the third of June, the birthday of President Jefferson Davis, the hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," and on the Sunday before the nineteenth of January, the birthday of General Robert E. Lee. the hymn, "Jesus Lover of My Soul." This request was made of every chapter. Also as this Division celebrates Lee-Jackson on January nineteenth, I requested that on the Sunday preceding this date, a favorite hymn of Stonewall Jackson be added. requests were observed in many churches of the state.

You will remember that the Bodleian Library work proved so successful that the President General recommended the extension of this work to other foreign countries, and we now have appeals before us for the American Library of Paris. A suggestion came to me that our Division might do something for this Library in Paris as a memorial to Kiffin Rockwell. After consulting with the Executive Board, it was decided that a Tar Heel Library and a State Flag would make a suitable memorial. This will be presented to you in due form.

My work during this year has been interspersed with many pleasures that have come to me as your President. I am indebted to the two Asheville chapters for courtesies shown me during the General Convention, and to the Hostess Chapters of the District Meetings which it has been my pleasure to attend. I have been an honor guest at beautiful receptions given by the chapters at Gastonia, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Kings Mountain, ·Concord and Albemarle. Among my first official duties was the very pleasant one of representing you at the D. A. R. Convention which met in Tarboro last November. On May the tenth, that beautiful day which is the keepsake of the Daughters of the Confederacy, I was pleased to be the guest of the William Dorsey Pender Chapter of Tarboro and to make the memorial address. On the afternoon of the same day I attended the funeral of a valued charter member of the Chapter when the Veterans attended a body as honorary pall-bearers. While at I was a member of a house party composed of General Officers and ex-Presidents, given by Mrs. Jacksie D. Thrash at her home. Cromwell Hall. On the eleventh we were the guests of the Division Historian at a luncheon given at her home, Hilma. In the afternoon of the same day we were the honorees at a reception given by Mrs. Thrash, who numbered among her guests, Veterans in the revered grey uniform and Daughters from the chapters of the District. On the following day we were guests of the Bethel Heroes Chapter, Rocky Mount, at the home of our beloved Honorary President, Mrs. M. O. Winstead.

It was not possible to attend the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Wrightsville Beach and the honor of representing you at this Convention was delegated to the First Vice-President, Mrs. Thomas Hyman. I shall always regret that I was unable to attend the Reunion of the Confederate Veterans at Durham, but you were represented by your Recording Secretary, Mrs. John H. Anderson. It was also with genuine regret that I declined the invitation to be present at the unveiling of the Confederate Monument at Yanceyville on September tenth. Other invitations have come to me which I could not accept—some of them because of conflicting dates.

Outside of the regular work of the year many appeals have come to me—one of the first, and one that greatly interested me, was from the President of the Southern Club, Indianapolis, Ind., stating that there is in that city a monument erected to the memory of the Confederate Soldiers who died at Camp Morton; that this monument is a handsome one, but because it stands in a most undesirable location this small Club has undertaken to move it to one of the most beautiful parks of the city. This will cost about two thousand dollars and the Club is asking the U. D. C. to assist them by contributing to the fund on a basis of a dollar and a half for every soldier buried there from the contributing state. North Carolina has thirty-six and I have the list of names which were copied from the monument. Recently this effort has been investigated and recommended to the Daughters by our President General. After consulting the Executive Board, I placed this in the hands of a Daughter, with the request that, if possible, this fifty-four dollars be collected from interested individuals and chapters.

During the year it came to my notice that the annual expense of keeping in repair the grounds around the North Carolina Monument at Appomattox had fallen to General Metts. I consulted him and he said that this expense would mean a little more than ten or twelve dollars per year. He had paid the amount for this year, but would like very much to turn this work over to the Daughters of the Confederacy. Today this comes to us as a last request from one whose memory will ever abide with us as a loving benediction.

I do not ask that you take action on suggestions that have come to you in this report, as resolutions for endorsement will be presented to you in due form. But Daughters, I do ask you to remember that we have a great work before us. We are no mere dreamers, but members of a great organization, whose builders have "dipped into the future far as human eve could see" and with hope and confidence are working together for the highest good of our country—we would have all the world know of and share in the glories and the beauties of the history of our Southland. May we remember that as the love of Christ constraineth us in our Christian lives so his love kindles within us that love of home, love of country which thrills and awakens in us a desire to pledge ourselves anew to the tasks that are ours. Then let us faint not nor grow weary in our well-doing but rather let us take to our hearts a lesson from the ways of the Tapestry Weavers.

"Above their heads their pattern hangs, They study it with care. And while their fingers deftly work Their eyes are fastened there."

So let us ever keep before us the bright star of our endeavor and then when our weaving is finished and the web is loosed and turned, may our children and our children's children read and know that we, too, have looked above for our pattern, and, looking above no weaver need have fear.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. THOMAS W. WILSON, President N. C. Division U. D. C.

On motion of Mrs. J. M. Gudger, this splendid report was accepted by rising vote of thanks, and appreciation was given by Mrs. H. A. London and Mrs. Marshall Williams of the President's report and splendid work for the Division.

The Recording Secretary read her report.

REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The first work of my second term of office as your Recording Secretary was securing bids from three printers for the Minutes of this Division. After consulting with our President, the contract was awarded to the Queen City Printing Company, of Charlotte, who gave the best prices and furnished most satisfactory and prompt work. Copies were mailed to all whom our Constitution states shall have them, with a few extra ones to Hall of History, Confederate Museum, State University, etc. Owing to the increased amount of work reported last year the Minutes were fuller than usual, hence the expense of printing greater.

A typewritten list of Chapter Officers of the Division was sent to the Secretary General for the General Minutes.

The full set of Minutes of this Division was sent me by Mrs. Marshall Williams, and will be passed on to the incoming Recording Secretary, as recommended by me at the last Convention.

Six new chapters have been chartered and eight Children's Chapters registered. I have signed and placed the Seal of the Division on a large number of Children's Certificates.

In August, at the request of our President, who was too ill to attend, I extended Greetings for the Division to the United Confederate Veterans at their Reunion in Durham. This was a great privilege and as representative of the Division, I received many courtesies from the Veterans and from the Julian S. Carr Chapter, whose guest I was. I had the pleasure of reading to the Veterans a poem, written by our poet-laureate, Mrs. Thomas M. Brockman of Gastonia, and dedicated to this North Carolina Reunion.

In September I sent out Convention Calls. Credential and Report Blanks, also a card to each chapter saying that I had mailed these. I have written a number of letters and cards (too many to count exactly) and have always tried to be prompt. The office of Recording Secretary of the Division is very strenuous but to the best of my ability I have discharged these duties. This Organization is very dear to me and as I surrender this office, I wish to thank our President for her constant sympathy and co-operation and my fellow-workers for their interest and unfailing courtesy. I shall ever cherish the ties of friendship among the Daughters of the North Carolina Division. Respectfully submitted, (Mrs. John H.) LUCY LONDON ANDERSON, Recording Secretary N. C. Dvision U. D. C.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that this report be accepted and gave an appreciation of the work of the Recording Secretary.

There was a rising vote of thanks to the Secretary.

Mrs. F. M. Williams asked that the Corresponding Secretary send note to Mrs. M. O. Winsted and Mrs. John Thorpe, our Honorary Vice-Presidents, and Mrs. E. E. Moffitt of Richmond, Honorary President.

Mrs. Williams also suggested that steps be taken to reduce the amount of printing in the minutes, and offered the following motion:

"Moved: To allow the President and Recording Secretary to cull from the Minutes any matters not pertaining to business."

Much discussion followed. The motion being seconded was put to a rising vote, which resulted as follows: In favor of motion, 67; against, 36; motion declared by the Chair to be carried.

The Corresponding Secretary read telegrams of greeting from the following: Mrs. L. F. Long, State Treasurer, Newton: Mrs. C. F. Harvey, Kinston; Mrs. Charles Z. Candler, Sylva.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. D. M Jones of Gastonia, was read and on motion, duly accepted.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

In coming to you with a report I wish first to express my great pleasure and sincere appreciation of the privilege of hav-. ing some small part in a work so noble and grand as that of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and to thank you for your prompt and hearty response at all times. Since October, 1920, I have written six hundred and thirty-four (634) letters; one hundred and eighty-seven (187) post-cards, and one (1) telegram.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. D. M. JONES,

Corresponding Secretary N. C. Division U. D. C.

In the absence of the Treasurer, the totals of the Treasurer's report were read by the Recording Secretary.

It was moved by Mrs. J. H. Anderson that the Treasurer's report be accepted and that a telegram be sent to Mrs. L. F. Long, expressing regret at her enforced absence and appreciation of her splendid report. Carried.

Mrs. D. G. Bell, Registrar, read the following report:

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

Madame President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Since last October in New Bern when you conferred upon me the honor of serving you as your Registrar I have looked forward to this time when I should bring back to you an account of the year's work, and have lived in the hope that when I came before you I might greet you with the identical words with which Mrs. Fisher greeted you on last Convention day, "No Registrar ever came to Convention happier than I." Those words have been ringing in my ears these three hundred and sixty-five days. Often have I become discouraged and felt that this year's report was going to be found lacking when weighed in the balance, but Madame President and Daughters I, too, can exclaim with your Registrar of last year, "No Registrar ever came to Convention happier than I," because not only have all new registrations been exceeded but three thousand seven hundred and forty-seven old members of the Division have been re-registered, something of itself alone, to bring pride to every U. D. C. Nine hundred fortynine registries have been recorded, which is one hundred twentytwo more than last year. Of these 950, 817 were new application. added to the Division by members six were by demit from other States, three by re-instatement. Thirty-three were old members of Chapters supposed to be on State roll but never registered, while forty-six registries were transfers of members from one Chapter to another. Twenty-one certificates have been secured for members never having received one. Six new Chapters have been organized during the year. Aulander Chapter, Aulander, reported last year but not registered, thereby not becoming a Chapter of the Division until this year; Cary Chapter, Cary: Ahoskie Chapter, Ahoskie; Rebeccah Winborne, Farmville; Lee County, Sanford, and Col. G. F. D. Whitfield. LaGrange. These six new Chapters bring to the Division one hundred thirty-eight members. Application blanks sent out this year have been seventeen thousand nine hundred and sixty, with orders for fully one thousand more but the supply just now is exhausted. The triple application blanks for old members that have passed through your Registrar's hands and have been signed by her have been three thousand seven hundred and forty-seven. I am indeed glad to report so many Chapters having responded to the call of our President in this matter and believe before another Convention that every active Chapter in the Division will be registered. The prize offered this year for the greatest increase in membership goes to the Abel A. Shuford Chapter, Hickory, that Chapter having gained fifty-one members; while the percentage prize is claimed by the Fort Macon Chapter, Beaufort, having made the greatest percentage of increase.

Below is a statement of the membership of Chapters showing a total of six thousand one hundred eighty-six members.

MRS. D. G. BELL, Registrar.

On motion of Mrs. H. A. London, the above report was accepted, and a rising vote of thanks tendered Mrs. Bell for her fine work. Mrs. London also commended the work of Mrs. F. M. Williams, Registrar General.

Mrs. F. M. Williams spoke of her work as Registrar General, and stated that she would now redeem her promise made in New Bern last year, to give a prize to the Chapter Registrar sending in the first fully registered applications from her Chapter. This was presented to Mrs. Emma Wallace of New Bern, who sent in these papers two weeks after the offer was made. Mrs. Wallace not being present, Mrs. Hyman was asked to take it to her. Mrs. Williams presented to Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Wallace of Morehead City, who had been her "right hand" in this work, copies of the Historical Addresses of Miss Mildred Rutherford, a former Historian General.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Wallace received and acknowledged these with thanks.

Mrs. R. H. Latham, of the Local Chapter, on behalf of the "Morning Journal" presented to each of the delegates a copy of Wednesday's issue of that newspaper, a souvenir copy of the "Sentinel" having been sent to each delegate, previous to her arrival.

The Second Vice-President, Mrs. Peter Gorrell, by virtue of her office. Chairman of Educational Committee, read her report.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE

Madam President and Fellow Members of the Confederacy:

It is with pleasure the Educational Committee brings you the report for the past year.

It has been the burning desire of the Committee to put the Educational Work on a business basis, with application blanks printed for this purpose, to be used for applications for scholarships, also printed lists of State Scholarships and Printed lists of State Prizes, so that when information is desired by any Chapter we will have it on file for you.

When the present Committee came into office we lost much time seeking knowledge concerning our work, as no reports or literature of any kind were handed over to us. We had to educate ourselves first, and in return we trust the fruit of our labor will bear results in the coming year and the work for the Educational Committee will be a labor of love and ease instead of a labor of love with the burden of a multiplicity of letters.

We appeal to every District Leader and every Chapter President to stand by your North Carolina Division and answer at once every appeal which comes to you in an educational way. We have lost several Scholarships by leaving them vacant, but we are glad to report the renewal of the Trinity College Scholarship, also the Flora McDonald. All scholarships are filled for the following year.

The Hero Fund of $50.000.00 with North Carolina's part $1.15 per capita, we have laid especial stress on. We would draw attention to the fact that the interest was to be used only for two or three years as a gift fund for soldiers, and then to revert to the original purpose as a loan fund for girls and boys of Confederate lineage and that in addition to its use to further educate, it is a memorial to our soldiers of the World War.

This is an urgent call and we have placed the call to you through letters to every Chapter President and again through your District Leaders and again I appeal to you in person with all the fervor of my heart and soul to go home and demand your Chapter to meet her quota. North Carolina, we feel, must pay her part as she has always done before. We have paid $3,624.53 to date. Remainder to be paid $975.47. We have in use one of the Hero Scholarships now. Charles L. Nichols of Brevard is using it toward obtaining a law course at the University of North Carolina. He saw service as second lieutenant with the Infantry Replacement and Training Troops at Camp Grant and later as Transport Personnel Adjutant from Hoboken.

Six Division Scholarships are held at the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro, viz:

Again appealing to every Chapter President, every District Leader, yea every Daughter to aid the Educational Committee in forwarding the wonderful work of Education in our grand Old North State and thanking each and every Daughter for their hearty support and co-operation the past year, we beg to remain always faithful to the charge entrusted to us.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. PETER A. GORRELL, Chairman, MRS. O. MAX GARDNER, MRS. THOMAS W. WILSON.

This fine report was accepted with thanks.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved: That the $620.00 now in the hands of the Division Treasurer, left over from the General Convention Entertainment Fund, be turned over to the Hero Fund." After discussion the motion was carried.

Mrs. Gorrell stated that she had assumed the obligation of the amount remaining due on this pledge, but she hoped that the Chapters that have not paid their proportional part will do so. The President stated she would go to St. Louis with an added thrill of pleasure now that the "Hero Fund" had been raised.

The report of the Third Vice-President, and Publicity Chairman, Miss Mary Mabry, was read.

REPORT OF THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT

Madam President and Members of Convention:

My duties as Third Vice-President have been few. However,

I have tried to interest those with whom I have come in contact by discussing the wonderful work of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and have found so many people entirely ignorant of what the organization is doing.

As Chairman of Publicity I have not accomplished as much as I would have liked. According to instructions I endeavored to establish bi-monthly the U. D. C. Column, by sending typewritten articles to the three leading State papers, the Raleigh News and Observer, the Charlotte Observer and the Greensboro News, but in this I was unsuccessful in getting them published regularly. I trust that my efforts have not been in vain, but the impress of my work will be seen and felt later. To those who assisted me in the work by sending the activities of their Chapters, reports of District Meetings and other information I wish to express my thanks and appreciation and assure them that every item was incorporated in my articles.

I would like to recommend that each Chapter elect or appoint a Publicity Chairman, her duty being to send the important movements of her Chapter to the State Chairman in order that she might get the inforation first hand and avoid repetition.

I have sent five typewritten articles to "The Veteran," and wrote thirty-two letters to the District Directors urging them to push the subscriptions in their District to "The Veteran," also offered a prize of $5.00 in gold to the District that made the greatest gain in new subscribers during the year ending October 20, 1921.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY E. MABRY,

Third Vice-President.

This was accepted with appreciation.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved to name three scholarships, respectively, "Ella Broadnax, Orren Randolph Smith, and H. L. Riggins." It being seconded was accepted.

The report of the Recorder of Crosses, Mrs. S. M. Harrell, in her absence, was read by the Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF RECORDER OF CROSSES

Madam President and Daughters of the United Confederacy:

As your Recorder of Crosses I beg to give the following report: There has been a slight increase this year over last year in the number of Crosses given, the total being one hundred and ten, 42

Asheville 104 bestowing twenty of these. This Chapter led in this line last year.

I have taken real pride and joy in giving the Division my best service, answering all calls immediately. The memory of the two years I have been in office will be an abiding pleasure to me, and the support of all of the Daughters has made my work delightful.

Respectfully submitted,
(Mrs. S. N.) ISABEL FAIRLEY HARRELL,
Recorder of Crosses, N. C. Division, U. D. C.

Moved and carried that this be accepted.

The report of the Executive Committee was read by the Recording Secretary, and on motion, the recommendations were voted on ad seriatim.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Board with Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson presiding, on Tuesday afternoon, after a beautiful luncheon given by Mesdames H. L. Riggins and Peter A. Gorrell. The following recommendations were presented and adopted by the Executive Committee:

1. That the Division take over the care of the grounds around the North Carolina Monument at Appomattox, which heretofore the late General J. I. Metts has personally cared for.

- 2. Recommended: That the Children's Chapters take as their special work connecting the water for the Confederate Women's Home at Fayetteville.
- 3. Recommended: That the Chapters complete the required amount, $54.00, required for removing the Confederate Monument at Indianapolis to a more suitable location.
 - 4. Recommended: That all chapters use the loose leaf binders.
- 5. Recommended: That two demits be required, inasmuch as the files have been adopted and demits as well as papers should be filed.
- 6. Recommended: That the educational work be placed on a business basis, the plan to be left in the hands of the Educational Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucy London Anderson,
Recording Secretary.

In regard to the fifth recommendation in the report of the Executive Committee, it was amended to read "three" demits instead of "two."

The fourth article, in regard to loose leaf binders, was only a suggestion, and did not require a vote.

All other recommendations were duly adopted.

It was moved that the reading of the Constitution be taken up Thursday morning, immediately after the reading of the Minutes, and be continued until finished, with the exception of the Memorial hour and election of officers. Carried.

The meeting adjourned for luncheon at the Zinzendorf Hotel, given by the Civitan Club, 1 P. M.

FIRST DAY-AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was called to order by the President at 2:30 P. M.

The Historian, Mrs. J. L. Bridgers, read the following

STATE HISTORIAN'S REPORT

Another year of our work has gone down into history, and while we have not accomplished all of our desired ends, the general condition of the historical department is good. Quite a number of Chapters have responded nobly, especially the newer Chapters, and it is most satisfactory to observe the earnest interest manifested throughout the Division. We have had six contests for the handsome prizes offered by devoted daughters, and the response to these has been most gratifying. The papers all show earnest research and interest. There have been quite a number entered for each contest.

Early in January copies of State and General Prizes were sent to each Chapter President and Historian, also copies of regulations governing the prize on "Peace." We have submitted to the Historian General seven essays contesting for General Division Prizes, and one for the "Peace" prize.

Our most extensive work has been our effort to eliminate Muzzy's History from our schools, and our thanks are due our Text Book Committee for the progress made on this line. Numbers of Chapters have written me on this matter, one said "as long as we have our present Superintendent Muzzy's will not be taught in our school."

As your State Historian, I do heartily and earnestly recommend that this Convention authorize and direct our Corresponding Secretary to mail to each Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Civitan Club, the Grand Lodge of Masons, the State Councilor of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the State Chairman of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and such other orders and societies in the State of North Carolina as may be deemed expedient, a copy of our report and resolution condemning the use of Muzzy's History in the public schools of our State, and urgently asking their co-operation both by appropriate resolutions and such other action as they may see fit to take, toward the elimination of this unfair and unjust history from the list of text books which the present State Board of Education has directed to be used in all public schools of the State, and thereby allowing to future generations the opportunity to learn only the true history of the State of North Carolina.

In response to a request from our President General that the North Carolina Division contribute the "Library of Southern Literature" to the American Library in Paris, we are proud to report that through the efforts of Mrs. Charles Lee Smith these books have been procured. It is also suggested that North Carolina do something for this library as memorial to Kiffin Rockwell, our own aviator, who was one of the first to give his life for the cause, and a "Tar Heel Library" and one of the State Flags could be placed there and constitute this memorial, and from time to time North Carolina books could be added. I had hoped to have a list of North Carolina authors and their publishers to submit to the Chapters but so far have not been able to secure this. Each chapter could take this up as a line of work for the next year; I have already a number of books given me by individuals, which could be a nucleus for this "Tar Heel Library."

This was accepted with thanks.

Mrs. Strayhorn, Director of Children's Chapters, read her report as follows:

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S WORK

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

For the second time it is my pleasure and privilege to bring you love and greetings from the Children of the Confederacy, and to tell you something of the work accomplished by them.

We bring you the names of eight new Chapters: The Charles F. Fisher Chapter, Salisbury; the Frances Hancock Chapter, Morehead City; the Eva Campbell Davis Chapter, Weldon; the Jacob A. Long Chapter, Graham; the Belle Wilfong Chapter, Newton; the Joseph Kinsey Chapter, LaGrange; the Anne Carter Lee Chapter, Beaufort, and the Col. S. B. Taylor Chapter, Jacksonville. This brings the number of registered Chapters to 42, and I regret to tell you there are still 19 unregistered. Appeal after appeal has been made, but they will not respond. We have registered 1,026 members this year, making our total membership 1,652; more than double what it was last year. Thirty-five (35) State, and 998 General Certificates have been issued; 76 Historical Papers collected, and $3,002.00 given to the various causes.

That the interest of the children in Historical work is being awakened, is shown in the fact that a number of splendid papers have been sent in on each of the five subjects for which prizes were offered. The donors of the prizes should feel that they have accomplished much, and we hope their offer will be continued, for surely it is of greatest importance that we teach our boys and girls the traditions, the history and ideals of the Old South.

I have striven hard to make this year a year worth while to the organization, and in closing wish to thank the Leaders, my co-workers, for the loyal support they have given me, for without their help I could have done nothing. All along the line the work has taken on new life. Excellent reports have been sent in, children are enthusiastic, Leaders, and even some of the Mother Presidents, have caught the vision of what the C. of C. means to the mother Organization, and we long to see the time when there will be a C. of C. Chapter in every town in North Carolina. Everywhere the cry is for Leaders; plenty of good material, but no one to do the work. I beg of you, Daughters of the Confederacy, rally to the children's cause.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. G. STRAYHORN, Director of Children's Work.

Moved and carried that this be accepted by a rising vote.

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE SOLDIERS' HOME COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is with great pride and satisfaction that I come before you this year to report twelve months of strenuous and unfailingly successful work and to make my acknowledgement through you to the people of this State for their appreciative loyalty to high courage, patriotism and genuine love of liberty of their forefathers. From none have we asked in vain-from man, woman and child we have received the most cordial and appreciative co-operation and interest—and to the press, especially to the women who are doing newspaper work, we owe an immense debt of gratitude. Through their interest and ability and the splendid publicity they have given our work, we have been able to bring to all the people throughout the State a knowledge of the true condition and needs of the Soldiers' Home. If the Home seemed for a time to have drifted into the back waters of popular interest, it was simply because the people for years had had no means of becoming intelligently informed as to its needs and the machinery by which they might be supplied. Just before Christmas last year, Miss Nell Battle Lewis made with me a visit to the Home on a bleak and desolate, rainy day. Her story in the News and Observer, which we sent out to every Chapter in the State, brought in the very generous response that made a most happy Christmas possible. The General Assembly for 1921 met with its Legislators pretty well informed through their women folks as to the needs of the Home, as set forth in her article. No longer were they a matter of doubt or question; in black and white they had been put down for every man to vertify. With the opening of the General Assembly, began the campaign for the long sought and much needed repairs at the Home. Year after year these needs have grown greater and year after year had the hope of obtaining all that we felt so urgent grown less. In January the State Department of Community Service made a picture of the presentation by Manly's Battery of the Crosses of Honor to the Veterans of the Home on General Lee's birthday, and Miss Susan Idenm, of the Raleigh Times, wrote for her paper an account of the making of the film, heading her story with an appeal to the General Assembly to send at once to the Home a quantity of huge umbrellas, if it were too poor to furnish it with a new roof. Convinced with the importance of immediate relief, the Assembly appointed a joint committee of five gentlemen to inspect the Home: Mr. Gallert, Mr. Matthews, of Mecklenburg. Mr. Cowles, and Mr. Connor, Chairman. Earlier in the session we appeared before a Committee on Appropriation composed of members of both Houses, with Mr. Everett, of Rockingham, Chairman, and obtained through their interest an appropriation of $30,000.00 for remodeling and repairs; the Joint Committee sent to inspect the Home approved this appropriation and raised it to $35,000.00, but $30,000.00 is the amount finally obtained. General Carr, who had appeared with Col. Armistead Jones and myself before the Joint Committee on Appropriations, and worked untiringly throughout the session in its behalf, later appointed from his Board of Directors, a Building Committee, to see that this money was wisely spent. This committee, composed of Mr. W. J. Andrews, Mr. Baxter Durham, and myself, co-operating with Mr. H. A. Underwood, of the State Joint Building Committee, spent the money appropriated in the following way:

Carpenter work$	8,500.00
Roofing and sheet metal work	5,116.00
Heating plant	7,600.00
Painting all buildings, exterior and interior	4,470.00
Plumbing	798.00
Ranges
Flooring, Hospital Building	1,734.00

Approximate total expenditures to date____$28,885.00 Note that the item of screens has been omitted. In the total cost the item of screens for all buildings is included.

To the wives of the members of the Appropriation Committee we owe great gratitude for their efforts on behalf of the appropriation and the great interest they showed in the Home during their stay in Raleigh. Through their interest, several additional rooms in the Cottages were adopted, and renewed interest aroused in various Chapters in the rooms that bore their names. these rooms, awaiting now only their complete repair, for their new furniture. For, as Mrs. T. W. Bost, of the Greensboro News. has recently told you in her article, at the Soldiers' Home "floors have been laid in the Building, the walls are in the process of being repainted, the buildings have all had new roofs put on them, new bath rooms, lavatories and showers have been added, the large central heating plant, with a circulating system of hot water all over the buildings, is being improved in various ways, a beautiful gas range has been installed in the kitchen and a huge coffee percolator makes possible the old soldiers to have their coffee three times a day, if they so desire. The long tables in the dining room have been cut in short lengths, five barrels of new china have been purchased, large skylights have been opened up, brightening the hitherto poorly lighted dining hall and kitchen and bringing added ventilation to the Hospital."

As soon as the army of carpenters and plumbers have moved out, the old rooms in the dormitory and the new ones in the Cottages will be ready for the furnishings promised them by the various Chapters.

Duties have so grown with the days and activities have so overlapped each other in our work, that it is with difficulty that we bring within the length of your interest any but the most meagre account of any one line of activity.

An increase of $15,000.00 for support and maintenance of the Home, bringing it up to $60,000.00 annually, $30,000.00 for repairs and changes, and $1,000,000.00 annually for pensions, is a record of achievement to bring pride to any State Division, and a record not to be written without the most unflagging and courageous work. Work for the increased appropriation for maintenance and repairs began early in the session, and had every indication of meeting with a successful termination, but the fight for an increase of $350,000,00 in pensions began early in the session and swung through five weeks of ceaseless fighting, day and night, sometimes in the face of apparently inevitable defeat. Day by day from all over the State letters poured in from Confederate soldiers who had lived through the fire of battle, to battle again for a State in the bitter days of Reconstruction and who now urged that in the days of her prosperity she should not forget her less fortunate comrade in his want; and, day by day, under the indomnitable leadership of Mrs. Henry A. London, Chairman of the Legislative Committee, the fight for the increase of pensions looked defeat in the face, and gathering up its forces, began to fight again, arriving in the end, through the loyalty of its friends, the untiring devotion of Mr. Gallert, and the brilliant parliamentary tactics of Mr. Walter Murphy, its leader in the last fight in the House, to the triumphant attainment of One Million Dollars annually to be spent in pensions—still a most inadequate interest on a great debt of honor.

Following close on the pension victory, inquiries as to the amount of pensions paid veterans of each class began to come in. Many men who were at the Home felt that with the increase of pensions, they would be able to return to their homes and spend their last days with families, and were anxious to obtain information as to the red tape necessary to make the change. with the news that the Home was being made more comfortable and better able to care for the ailing and the sick, many who had felt that they were a care and drain on their families, began to make application for admittance to the Hospital. Through our hands has passed twenty applications for admittance to the Home, six of these from the friends of men who, knowing that they were sick and feeble, desired their admittance directly to the Hospital. We have now in the Hospital three most excellent nurses and have made during the last six months a most satisfactory record, in spite of the fact that owing to the inconvenience of repairs, many of the older and more feeble men were sent to the Hospital, we had during two months in the summer no deaths at all, and forty men in the wards. In the month just past, we have had no deaths with 36 men living in the Hospital of the average age of 78.

All summer we have met and co-operated with the Building Committee in its work of reconstruction, a big job which has demanded the fullest attention. Throughout the year, we have had the fullest and most inspiring co-operation from Mrs. Henry M. London, of the Soldiers' Home Purchasing Committee, in purchasing and placing furnishings for the rooms adopted by the different Chapters. In this line of work, we have met with great encouragement. The following Chapters have sent splendid donations, all furnishing their rooms with chairs, quilts, rugs, blankets, and sending a liberal supply of linen and other comforts as desired: Guilford County, A. M. Scales Chapter; J. J. Davis Chapter, the J. E. B. Stuart, Gastonia; Perquimans, Scotland Neck, two packages of linen; Bells' Battery, Cleveland Guards, two packages linen; Fannie Patton, three packages of linen; the General George B. Anderson Chapter, furnishing chairs for the Orange County Memorial Room, for the general benefit of all the soldiers, Caswell County. The High Point, Chalmers Glenn, and Mrs. W. A. Everett, and Gastonia, all adopting memorial rooms. The following Chapters replied to our hurried and urgent Christmas appeal with gifts of cake and fruit and money: Frank Byrd, Caswell County, Albemarle, J. J. Davis, Jacksonville, Spring Hope, A. M. Scales, John W. Durham, Southern Stars, Asheville, Thomas Ruffin, Gastonia, Emiline Piggott, Roanoke Minutemen, Junius Daniels, Bell's Battery, Dodson-Ramseur, Julian S. Carr, J. E. B. Stuart, Perquimans, Trenton. Faison-Hicks, Graham County, Fort Macon, Nash Chapter, Merry Hill, box of canned food; A. M. Scales, sweets; Asheville, barrel of apples; Burgaw Children's Chapter, Frank M. Parker, Ransome-Sherrill, Robert F. Hoke (April), cake; Confederate Grays, canned goods; Red Springs, cakes; Zeb Vance Boy Chapter of Gastonia, cigars and tobacco, and socks and tobacco later; Zeb Vance Chapter of Lenoir, fruit; Fort Macon, blanket.

In the Children's Chapter, the Zeb Vance Boys Chapter of Gastonia, the Eva Davis of Weldon, and Manly's Battery of Raleigh, have helped liberally and shown much interest in the work, while the R. F. Hoke Chapter of Salisbury has set a record of care for the eight men in the Salisbury Cottage that every Chapter in the State might do well to emulate.

We spent at Christmas season, $97.00 for Christmas cheer, in fruit, candy, graphophone records, chairs, and rugs. Later, spent $12.50 for Hospital expenses for a veteran and $10.00 in the service of a blind veteran. Later in the year, co-operating with Mrs. London, $31.00 for a screen door, and the 785 newspapers that we sent out in our publicity work, and $81.00 worth of chairs for the porches and yards. For the Hospital we have bought $25.00 worth of fruit and ice cream at various times. With the Spring came Memorial Day, and we co-operated then with Mrs. London in the decoration of automobiles and flags for the graves, $10.00. Later, at the Durham Convention, we again co-operated in the decoration of machines. More recently we have asked of Mrs. London's fund, $65.00 towards the fare of the eighteen veterans who attended the Reunion from the Home. To further this work, we wrote the U. D. C. Chapters and County Commissioners of each county with a veteran at the home, who wished to go, and met with most encouraging response, sending the astounding number of eighteen (18). Up to twelve o'clock Saturday before the reunion special left Raleigh, applications for tickets and identification blanks were coming in, and thanks to the generosity of the following Chapters, no one was disappointed. The balance of the $228.00 in tickets. berths, and lunch money expenses being borne by the Graham, Chicora, Brierfield, Kings Mountain, Manly's Battery, Johnston Pettigrew, Dodson Ramseur and Robert H. Rickes Chapters, and also by various personal contributions which were sent in to meet this need at the last moment.

The success which attended this last undertaking, while it unexpectedly usurped much of the time we had intended to devote to the account of this year's work, has, with the many personal donations contributed, given us much encouragement, as it records the estimation in which the people of North Carolina hold the work we are endeavoring to carry on and it rounds out a year of unprecedented success with a most happy note, emphasizing the widening interest and renewing assurance of the eternal life of the essential cause for which our fathers fought.

REPORT OF CONFEDERATE WOMEN'S HOME

Madam President and Daughters:

It is with great pleasure that I bring you my annual report for you have wrought well, and at all times have been thoughtful and considerate of the needs of those less fortunate, and this year is no exception.

Eager to be of service, a number of chapters have adopted a lady in the Home as their special charge, write to her, send little remembrances and take a personal interest in her. That means much to those deprived of loved ones.

Our family continues to grow very feeble, and requires more attention. At present we have many helpless ones, and two have recently passed away: Mrs. Hebner of Kings Mountain, and Mrs. Vick of Edgecombe County. We have a colored nurse employed regularly and her services are invaluable. Miss Williams, Assistant Superintendent, has to give her time also to the care of the feeble and sick.

We have in the home at present thirty, and more applications on file for admittance than we have had in the history of the Home. We are greatly in need of a downstairs annex, both on account of those that are too feeble to go upstairs, and for the convenience of the sick. We are to have one of the porches adjoining the infirmary enclosed as an emergency relief until we can get the State to add an annex. And let me ask the Daughters to see those who will represent your county in the next General Assembly and urge them to vote for an appropriation to add a much needed annex to the Confederate Women's Home.

As you are aware, this home is not only for the present, but is to be perpetuated for the homeless U. D. C.

We are deeply grateful to the Chapters for the elegant and generous boxes that have been received during the year. These boxes are invaluable.

The checks that are sent at Christmas from the Capters to add to the joy of the season, if they are not needed at just that time, I keep them, and all during the year extra treats are given the ladies in name of the donor.

I would suggest a subscription to some of the monthly magazines as a Christmas gift from a number of the Chapters.

The President of the J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, Fayetteville, appoints monthly a visiting committee from the Chapter to carry cheer to the ladies of the Home, which have proven a great pleasure to the shut-in. They have a program and serve refreshments.

Am delighted to report that arrangements have been made for the city water to be extended to the Home, giving an additional water supply.

I wish to thank our President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, for her visit to the Home, her interest and co-operation.

And Mrs. Fisher for her efforts to enthuse the Chapters to render greater service. I have answered letters innumerable from the simplest to those of an attorney.

Thanking the Chapters and individuals in behalf of the ladies at the Home. As your Chairman I wish to thank you again for your loyal co-operation and support.

MRS. HUNTER G. SMITH,

Chairman Purchasing Committee and Advisory Board Confederate Women's Home.

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN CONFEDERATE WOMEN'S HOME COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters:

It is my pleasure to present an account of my stewardship as Chairman of the Committee for the Confederate Women's Home.

There are now twenty-six inmates in the Home, many of whom are very feeble. Two are patients in the infirmary, one of these having been in the infirmary since last March, and the other, since the first of August, and both being helpless.

The water system is the greatest problem at the Home. The building contains a system of pipes but is dependent upon a wind-mill for the water, and when this windmill fails, it is necessary to hitch up a wagon and haul water in barrels from a stream. For as long as two days at a time, the Home has been without water and has had to resort to this primitive method of securing it.

The January legislature of North Carolina granted an annual appropriation of $10,000 for the maintenance of the Home. But Colonel Rose advises me that none of this can be used for installing city water in the Home, this appropriation being made for actual maintenance only. I recommend that this convention make some plan to connect the Home with the water main of the city of Fayetteville.

The Chapters of the state have responded to my appeals this year with generous cash contributions and splendid donations of boxes of provisions of various kinds as well as boxes of dry goods. At this time sheets and pillow cases, bolts of gingham and unbleached domestic are needed. Boxes of eatables are always welcomed.

I urge the Chapters to remember the old ladies at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. L. E. Fisher,

Chairman of Committee for Confederate Woman's Home.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS AND PENSIONS

Madam President, Ladies:

In 1919 I was Chairman of the Committee to ask the Legislature for increased pensions for the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina. It was increased at that session $150,000—from $500,000 to $650,000 annually.

In January, 1921, our State President, Mrs. Wilson, appointed me Chairman of the Pension Committee. I closed my home and went to Raleigh to be "right on the job." My Committee were Mesdames M. O. Winstead, C. F. Harvey, J. D. Thrash, B. H. Griffin, Walter Woodard, R. L. Justice, Max Gardner, Hunter Smith, W. B. Pruitt, R. L. Ryburn and Misses Katherine Robinson and Daisy Denson and also the wives of the members of the General Assembly who were in Raleigh at that time, viz: Mesdames Cooper, Grier, Mendenhall, Varser, Townsend, Everett, Long, Brassfield, Gosney, Walker, Sams and Wright.

The Central Committee, who worked with me day and night for two months, were Mrs. Henry M. London, Miss Martha Haywood, Mrs. T. W. Bickett and Mrs. James H. Cordon. State Auditor Baxter Durham compiled for me the following statistics showing soldiers on pension list 1919-1920:

First Class (25), totally blind or totally paralyzed, $110 a year; $9.16 2-3 per month.

Second Class (97), partially diasabled, $100 a year; $8.33 1-3 per month.

Third Class (179), lost an arm or leg, $80 a year; $6.66 2-3 per month.

Fourth Class (5,031), $70 a year; $5.66 2-3 per month.

Widows (31), totally blind, $110 a year; $9.16 2-3 per month. Widows, Fourth Class (4,733), $70 a year; $5.66 2-3 per month. Totally blind and totally paralyzed (from General Fund), $180 a year; $15 a month.

Total number of pensioners, 10,096.

We asked that the above pensions be doubled. The Budget Commission did not recommend any increase, so it was uphill work, necessarily, to get a cent of increase. We went before the Joint Committee of the Senate and the House on Appropriations, and also before the Committee on Finance with our plea for increased pensions. We sent every member of the General Assembly a statement showing what each pensioner was getting and also what other States were giving to their infirm Veterans. It showed that North Carolina was next to the lowest in scale. Be assured that we laid stress on the disgrace of it; when North Carolina had sent more men to the war than any other State.

Every legislator was appealed to personally,—and the doubtful ones repeatedly. We had a splendid cause, and our propaganda was carried out perfectly, the Raleigh papers assisting us. Many Chapters sent letters and telegrams to their Senators and Repre-The Winnie Davis Chapter sent 25 letters and $12 worth of telegrams. Senator Gallert introduced the first bill for "Increased Pensions" and persistently kept the subject of increased pensions before the Senate. He was ably assisted by Senators Sams, Mendenhall, Elmer Long, McKinne, Irwin. Lambeth, Dunlap, Winborne, Cameron, W. H. S. Burgwyn, Walker, Hartsell, Carpenter and others. The bill passed the Senate to increase the pensions from $650,000 to $1,000,000—a net increase of $350,000 annually. The House, however, by a vote of 52 to 41, reduced the amount from $1,000,000 to $750,000. The next day the vote was reconsidered, upon a motion made by Matthews of Mecklenburg. The fight in the House was led and championed by Hon. Walter Murphy, of Salisbury, and it was largely through his influence that the appropriation of $1,000,000 was reinstated in the bill which then passed the House by the narrow majority of one vote. He was ably assisted by R. O. Everett, Bowie, Cowles, Cox. Neal, McBee, Townsend, Lawrence, Grant, Clements, Young and others. And we won the fight! It was a great victory getting an increase of $350,000 for our needy Veterans.

Madam President, we worked persistently and consistently on this for two months, and we owe much to the legislators who helped win the fight for "Increased Pensions."

Upon request, the State Auditor writes us that the increase in pensions will be paid on December 15th. The minimum amount, that is the Fourth Class soldiers and widows, will be $100 a year, payable semi-annually, in December and June. The Third Class is $120.00; the Second, $135.00, and the First Class, $150.00. The Special Class is paid $180.00 a year, payable $15.00 a month.

> Respectfully submitted, MRS. HENRY A. LONDON, Chairman of Pension Committee.

Mrs. London was given a rising vote of appreciation, Miss Haywood and the President paying tribute to her earnest and untiring work in this Committee.

REPORT OF NURSES' FUND, WOMAN'S HOME

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

I bring to you the closing report of the Nurse's Fund. As you know this fund was only an emergency-created to meet the needs at the Confederate Woman's Home, until an extra appropriation was made by the legislature.

This fund has been a great blessing in the home. Miss Watters Superintendent, has written me from time to time that she did not know what they would have done without it. Your splendid generosity has been very much appreciated by all in the home.

Mrs. Frank L. Wilson then gave the following report as Chairman of the Text Book Committee:

REPORT OF THE TEXT BOOK COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters of the United Confederacy:

Since last November, acting on the suggestion from State and General Conventions, a campaign against Muzzy's History in particular and all unfair histories in general, has been waged through the mediums of U. D. C. District Directors, Chapter Presidents, the United Confederate Veterans, the Sons of Veterans and the press.

Letters were written to each District Director asking their cooperation in distributing Miss Mildred Rutherford's book, "Truths of History," as the first step toward refuting unfair statements, in regard to the history of the South, found in many of the text books used. More than a hundred copies of this book and an equal number of Miss Rutherford's Measuring Rods, have been distributed throughout our State. Complimentary copies were sent to each member of the Board of Education and State Text Book Committee.

A letter has been sent to each Chapter President, asking that they write a protest, against unfair histories, to each member of the State Board of Education and each member of the State Text Book Committee—names and addresses of these were enclosed with the request, the Chairman of this Committee, having previously written each of these educational officials, the Governor included, asking for the elimination of Muzzy's and other unfair histories from our schools.

Protests were sent to 55 high school superintendents, who were reported to be using Muzzys History. Some of these have replied, saying the book has been taken from their class rooms.

Muzzy's History has been read by each member of this Committee and a criticism written and used either in a form letter to the State Board of Education and the Text Book Committee or as a newspaper publication.

Newspaper men have been asked to publish notes about Muzzy's History, publicity being desired to arouse public discussion of this and all unfair histories. The Raleigh News and Observer, Raleigh Times, Asheville Citizen, Monroe Journal, Gastonia Gazette, Statesville Landmark, Charlotte Observer and others have published comments on this subject, all of which was appreciated by this Committee.

Gen. J. S. Carr, who represents the Rutherford Committee from the General Confederate Veterans, has united his work with ours, and has written many letters and done much personal work in aiding our cause.

At the request of the Chairman of this Committee, General Carr took resolutions for adoption to the Confederate Veterans' Reunion at Durham and represented our Committee before that Convention. The following are his resolutions and were adopted by that Convention on August 24th:

Resolved: That in regard to school histories care should be taken to select only those books that tell accurately and truthfully the history of the people of North Carolina, it being much more important that the children who later are to constitute the people of the State should have correct information about their State and about their fathers than about other States and other peoples. Therefore, those histories that pass over North Carolina's actions as relatively unimportant are not suitable for North Carolina schools; while those that misrepresent North Carolina's actions are positively objectionable.

Resolved: That in regard to the war of 1861-65, no history should be allowed in any North Carolina school that ignores the fact that North Carolina's action was determined by President Lincoln having called on the State to engage in war against the people of the States that had withdrawn from the Union; and no history should be taught that ignores the fact that the Federal Government acted on the view that the inhabitants of the Southern States were insurrectionists or rebels; while on the other hand, the inhabitants of North Carolina, devoted to the Constitution and form of Government their fathers had assisted in framing, based their action on the claim of right as stated in the ordinance unanimously adopted May 20th, 1861.

General Metts expressed in letters and otherwise his appreciation and encouragement of our Committee.

Rev. Albert Sydney Johnston, D. D., of Charlotte, a representative of the Rutherford Committee from the Sons of Veterans has united his efforts with hers and upon request of the Chairman of this Committee, letters of protest against unfair, and pleas for only the use of fair histories have been written by him to the Educational officials in our State.

At our request, Mr. Jay Bivens, an attorney, has made a study and written a criticism of Muzzy's History for publication.

One objectionable book, "Lincoln's Attitude Toward Slavery and Emancipation,' by Henry W. Wilbur, was eliminated from circulation from the State Library of Extension at our request.

REPORT OF STATE DIRECTOR FOR JEFFERSON DAVIS MONUMENT

Madam President and Daughters:

Again as State Director from North Carolina for the Jefferson Davis Monument, I come to you with the following report:

Do you realize what it means to have, year after year, an unfinished work standing as your tribute to the man that bore all, suffered all, for the South?

Such is the Jefferson Davis Monument at Fairview, Ky. From time to time during the past year appeals have been sent to all Divisions pleading that first attention be given this work already too long delayed, that the few remaining Veterans may see it completed. The last plan that certificates be sold for $1.00 each, was well worked out, easy and met with good response.

North Carolina has done well, but the end is not yet.

Daughters, put your shoulders to the wheel and let 1922 see by your efforts and those of your sister States, the veil fall from that magnificent monument that shall stand forever a symbol of your undying love and patriotism for the Confederacy's only President—Jefferson Davis.

Now, let us all pull together and erect a monument that our sons and daughters for generations to come will always refer to with honor and pride.

"All hail to the Chief of our Dixie land,

We will build a shaft that will forever stand, In memory of the South's grand old man— So, each and all, help if you can."

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MONTROSE FREE BED FUND

Madam President and Friends:

In the days gone by women rather prided themselves on their ignorance of business affairs, all these were left to their men folks, but the time has come when we women are interested in business and in investing our money where it will bring the largest returns, and we are all looking for good investments. Two years ago you decided to start a fund to support a free bed at the State Sanatorium for Tuberculosis. We believe that this has proven itself to be one of the best investments our Division has ever made, and when we say this, we do not in the least disparage other investments in all the other splendid causes so dear to the hearts of every loyal Daughter of the Confederacy. Two young girls have received the benefit of this fund, and have recovered sufficiently to be sent home. We cannot estimate the results of giving these girls a new lease on life for we have probably not only saved their lives, but have protected their brothers and sisters from this dread disease. Both girls came from large families.

Not long ago I received a most pitiful letter from a young man in one of our Western North Carolina towns, saying he had tuberculosis but had been able to keep at work during the illness and death of his wife who had tuberculosis, but that now, his doctor said he must go to bed, and he went on to say, "have no bed to go to, no folks and no money." He had heard of this fund and wanted to know if we could send him to Sanatorium for treatment. Dr. McBrayer says he has hundreds on his waiting list, and many times we have returned thanks for your generosity in supporting this free bed so liberally. Again we appeal to you to help in this good work of building living monuments.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NORTH CAROLINA ROOM IN RICHMOND MUSEUM

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

I am most happy to be again with you to deliver my report in person.

Many of the Chapters have continued their loyal support to the North Carolina Room in the Confederate Museum at Richmond, Virginia.

The following have contributed: Asheville Chapter, Fanny Patton Chapter; Clinton, Ashford-Sellers Chapter; Enfield, Frank M. Parker Chapter; Fayetteville, J. E. B. Stuart Chapter; Goldsboro, Thomas Ruffin Chapter; Halifax, Halifax Chapter; Hertford, Perquimans Chapter; New Bern, New Bern Chapter; North Wilkesboro, Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter; Shelby, Cleveland Guards Chapter; Washington, Pamlico Chapter; Winston-Salem, James B. Gordon Chapter; total, $32.50.

I have written a number of letters, among them several to members of the Legislature asking them to continue their appropriation of $100.00 per year to this cause. I received most cordial replies, telling me they would strongly urge a continuance of it.

Thanking you for your untiring loyalty and support in this sacred work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LATTA C. JOHNSTON, Regent.

October, 1921.

Mrs. Little sent Miss Anderson $16.00 to be added to the general endowment of the Museum, which she made at a Jefferson Davis Birthday Party given by her Chapter for this purpose.

MRS. J. ALLISON HODGES, Vice-Regent.

THE PEACE PRIZE ESSAY REPORT

Only two essays were sent in for this contest. One other was sent later in the summer, but will have to be considered next year.

With the help of Mrs. J. J. Yates, the Historian of the Asheville Chapter, I passed on the two, and we decided the essay marked "Burgaw" had merit. It was sent on to the General Chairman of the Peace Prize Essay.

MRS. EUGENE B. GLENN. Chairman.

REPORT OF JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

This Committee has been given no work by the Central Jefferson Davis Highway Committee. I suppose the work is not yet in shape for active co-operation from State Committees.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY F. HENDERSON, Chairman.

Mrs. Edgar Cheek, Director of Music, gave a verbal report, requesting members to send to her copies of suitable songs to be included in the book now being compiled. Mrs. Cheek stated that she wanted not only songs sung during the War, but ante-bellum songs, favorite songs of generals, etc.

The following reports were read by the Recording Sec-

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF STATIONERY

Owing to the efficiency of the printer and kind consideration of the Daughters, my work for the year has been very pleasant.

The Division Officers have been furnished with the necessary stationery. Orders from the Chapter have been promptly filled and the printing for this convention sent out as requested.

Respectfully submitted,

LOWRY SHUFORD, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON "STARS AND BARS" MEMORIAL

Madam President and Daughters:

I regret so much not being with you at this meeting. I have not heard from all Chapters, but think I shall have to ask that our Committee be retained and our report continued, as I am trying to get a scholarship as well as a tablet in memory of Owen Randolph Smith, the designer of the "Stars and Bars" of the Confederacy.

Cordially yours,

REPORT OF THE REBECCA WINBORNE MARKER COM-

Madam President and Daughters:

We, the Committee for the Rebecca Winborne Marker, beg to submit the following report:

At the Convention in New Bern a year ago, we found that we only had in the Treasury about half enough funds to pay for a marker, such as we felt worthy of the cause we had undertaken. We asked for more pledges at that Convention for this work, but not enough was given to justify buying the marker.

On February 10, 1921, we sent, to all Chapters who had not contributed to this fund, and to those Chapters who had not redeemed their pledges, a circular letter asking them to fulfill their duty, that the Committee might complete this work by April 1st. This letter was given a hearty response and by the first of April we had sufficient funds in the Treasury to have the marker placed at the grave of her who made the first Confederate Flag. When the District Meeting was held in Wilson on the 29th of April, on the afternoon of that day, the marker was unveiled. The ceremony was simple but beautiful. The Children's Chapter marched around and strew flowers on the grave. The grandchildren of Mrs. Winborne unveiling the marker which was draped in a Confederate Flag loaned for the occasion by Miss Jessica Smith, who was the daughter of Maj. Owen Randolph Smith, who was the designer of the Flag Mrs. Winborne had made.

The occasion was honored by the presence of the State President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, who received this marker from the Chairman of the Committee for the North Carolina Division, U. D. C., and in turn committed it to the care and keeping of the John W. Dunham Chapter of Wilson. The President of that Chapter graciously received it. The Chairman of this Committee feels that special thanks are due Mrs. Walter F. Woodard for her untiring zeal in this work, and for her good business ability in getting such a splendid value for the money invested.

We are sorry not to present a photograph of this beautiful marker with this report, but did not think of it in time to have one made. However, we are sure the Wilson Chapter will be glad for you all to visit the marker at your convenience, and we are sure you will not only be pleased, but proud of the privilege of taking a part in this work.

All bills connected with this work have been paid, and there is a balance in the Treasury from this fund.

We thank you all for your loyal support.

Respectfully,

MRS. M. O. WINSTEAD. Chairman Rebecca Winborne Marker Committee.

REPORT FOR BODLIFAN LIBRARY, OXFORD, ENGLAND

Madam President and Daughters:

I am sorry that I am not well enough to attend the Convention. I have been corresponding with Miss Hanna in regard to securing the Library of Southern Literature. She has a friend in Atlanta whom she thinks may either donate it or give a part of it. As yet I have not heard from her, so have not sent out any letters. but hope to hear in time to get out a letter to be sent to the Chapters before the meeting in November.

Please make some statement explaining this situation to the Convention. All the Chapters will be called upon to donate to this cause. I hope to make some kind of a report before the Minutes go to press, and if so I will send it to Mrs. Anderson.

Miss Hanna says that she has a copy of the Library of Southern Literature, but that it is very hard to get.

I am sending a list of other books that she would like to have.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CUNNINGHAM MEMORIAL

Madame President:

I regret exceedingly to come to you with such a small amount for a cause that I feel is such a splendid memorial to one who did so much for the Confederacy. With the aid of Mrs. Eugene Little, who was a State Director, we tried to bring this splendid work before every Chapter, and also before the public. We do not believe the Chapters are not interested, but they had many obligations to fulfill, and we expect yet for them to respond to this fund. I have only $70.00 to report.

Respectfully,

MRS. E. C. BROOKS, Chairman Cunningham Memorial.

REPORT FOR THE GETTYSBURG FUND

A program for Gettysburg Day, to be held in April, was arranged by Mrs. Felix Harvey and Mrs. Marshall Williams and sent to every Chapter in the North Carolina Division.

On the whole the response has been most gratifying. Last November, the amount of the Fund was $550.69, which represented years of effort. The fund has increased over a thousand dollars this year and we now have $1,641.56 to our credit. Charlotte Chapter has set the whole Division a noble example with the largest and most generous donation, $400.00, and a pledge of $500.00.

Among the smaller Chapters deserving honorable mention are: Aulander, Beaufort, Morehead City, Pittsboro, North Wilkesboro, Leaksville-Spray.

Your Chairman spoke in behalf of the Gettysburg Fund at the District Meeting in Sylva, N. C., and also in Asheville. Our Fund is growing and ere long we can point with pride to the marker, which will speak for the heroic action of the North Carolina Confederate Soldier on the historic battlefield of Gettysburg. Then the Daughters of the Confederacy will again demonstrate to the world their undying appreciation of Southern valor.

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. MARSHALL WILLIAMS, Chairman.

Mrs. J. M. Gudger, Jr., Chairman of the Dixie Highway Committee, gave a verbal report. She reported progress of her Committee and stated that if the Division wished it, it could secure a die of General Lee on "Traveller," from which markers could be made to place at the intersection of the Dixie Highway with every State through which it passes. Each State would secure its own marker from the die owned by the North Carolina Division. She said Southern history would thus be perpetuated.

Following the report of the Dixie Highway Committee it was moved by Mrs. Staton and seconded that the work therein referred to be taken up by the North Carolina Same carried. The following amounts were Division. pledged to this work: Mrs. W. B. Taylor, Winston-Salem; Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, $25.00; Mrs. J. L. Stayton, Charlotte, $25.00.

The State Historian, Mrs. J. L. Bridgers, read a letter from Miss Mary D. Carter of Virginia, in reference to a history written by Dr. L. S. President of William and Mary College. She stated that it was being placed in the Foreign Collection, and offered to donate 15 copies of this book to any U. D. C. Division that would agree to place it in their schools and libraries.

The Convention expressed appreciation of this offer.

Mrs. Henry A. London stated that she had the entire set of Minutes of the Conventions for twenty-three years, ready to send to the University Library. She stated that she had already given 22 volumes of her husband's bound paper, the Chatham Record, to the University Library, containing much information of the Confederacy.

Mrs. F. M. Williams called attention to the fact that all monies should be sent through the Treasurer's office.

Mrs. Jack Hollister moved that a scholarship be named "Zeb B. Vance." This was unanimously carried. A daughter-in-law of Governor Vance, Mrs. Z. B. Vance, Jr., being present, was introduced to the meeting. The Convention arose to greet her.

Mrs. Marshall Williams introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas, the Lady Commissioners of the Bankhead National Highway Association at its annual meeting at Greensboro last April, proposed that the Congress of the United States be memorialized and requested to mark the spot in Alamance County where Light Horse Harry Lee killed 300 Tories and thereby dispersed the other 700 organized into a regiment at Hillsboro by Cornwallis just before the battle of Guilford, thereby depriving the British of their presence, and thereby preventing them from celebrating Guilford as their victory instead of America celebrating Yorktown;

Whereas, this resolution was adopted by the fourteen States traversed by the Bankhead National Highway;

And, whereas, it has since been adopted by a number of patriotic societies in the State, like the Cincinnati, Colonial Dames, Daughters of American Revolution, Confederation of Women's Clubs, and the North Carolina Good Roads Association;

Therefore, be it resolved by the United Daughters of the Confederacy of North Carolina that we heartily join in this memorial to Congress to mark this spot with a suitable monument where transpired such an important event in American history—the turning point of success in American arms—just as it has marked Kings Mountain, Guilford and Yorktown.

The motion was seconded and carried.

The following Committees were announced by the President:

Courtesy: Mesdames O. Max Gardner, H. A. London, Glenna Glover, L. E. Fisher, Geo. Connor, Harper Irving, I. W. Faison.

Carrie Watson Pearce Medal: Mesdames Marshall Williams, H. G. Strayhorn, John L. Bridges.

On motion the Convention adjourned at 4:45 P. M. to attend a reception given by Salem College and the Woman's Club

The minutes of the previous day were read by the Recording Secretary and accepted.

Mrs. H. A. London announced that she had seen by the morning papers that General Julian S. Carr has been elected Commander-in-Chief of Confederate Veterans, and moved that telegram of congratulation be sent him. This being seconded, was carried.

The President requested the District Directors to Mrs. H. L. Riggins, Winston-Salem, Fourth District.

The President called for the report of the Revision Committee. Mrs. F. M. Williams announced that with the consent of the President, Mrs. Thrash would read the report, and requested that each and every provision be adopted as read.

Article IV, Sec. 3, provoked much discussion.

It was moved and seconded that Article VI, Sec. 2, be amended so as to eliminate the nominating committee of five.

In re Article XIII, Section 6. Mrs. Marshall Williams moved to strike out the phrase, "that all the reports of Children's Chapters shall be read," and in lieu thereof, "that only the three best be read." After discussion, this motion was withdrawn, and Mrs. Strayhorn asked to make a motion, which she did as follows:

"Moved: That this section be amended to read: 'Wednesday evening of each Convention be set apart and known as Children's Evening, at which time the three best reports shall be read.'"

Same seconded and carried.

In Article XIII, Section 7. It was moved and seconded that this be amended to read: "Under supervision of the State Director, presentation speeches limited to three minutes." Carried.

The Constitution was unanimously adopted as a whole.

The By-Laws were then read and after some discussion unanimously adopted. The President announced the time had arrived for Memorial Hour and requested the Chaplain, Mrs. F. A. Woodard, and all those having a part in the program to come forward.

The reading of reports was resumed.

Mrs. R. P. Holt read her report as Chairman of the Committee for "Women of the South in War Time."

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF DISTRIBUTION FOR NORTH CAROLINA OF OUR BOOK, "THE WOMEN OF THE SOUTH IN WAR TIMES"

Madam President and Co-Workers:

It is with a feeling of pride that I bring this report to you who have made it possible for it is your work. At New Bern you voted to have our Treasurer send at once to Mr. Andrews a check for the amount that was pledged for this book at Louisville, I figured at what I thought the price was and told Mrs. Long to send check for $106.45, when it was received he wrote me we lacked $1.67 of sending enough so my C. of C. Chapter sent a check of $2.00. I have returned the amount of $107.00 to Mrs. Long and sent to the Publicity Fund for the sale of books $2.85.

I have written two hundred and eleven letters about this work, eighty cards, and sent out three hundred and eighty circular letters.

To shorten my report I am only going to give the list of those who have not bought our book. They are as follows: China Grove, Clayton, Concord, Dillsboro, Ellerbe, Faison, Gatesville, Hertford, Jackson, Kenansville, Kittrell, Laurinburg, Merry Hill, Morganton, Mount Olive, Murfreesboro, Maysville, Murphy, Norwood, Oxford, Pittsboro, Reidsville, Rose Hill, Selma, Spray, Sylva, Trenton, Vanceboro, Warrenton, Warsaw, Weldon, Windsor, Yanceyville.

I feel that must add to that list above the five Chapters that have sold the largest number of copies. Rocky Mount, 126; Asheville Chapter, 60; Gastonia, 52; Greensboro, 32; Newton, 17. We have sold in all 287 copies.

In September our President wrote the District Directors asking if each District would not contribute $3.00 to a fund so that we could place this book in every college in our State and our two Confederate Homes. The following have responded: District 14, check for $3.00 from Mrs. Wallace, Director; District 13, check for $3.00 from the Chapters; District 4, check for $3.00 from Mrs. Riggan, Director; District 15, check from the Frank M. Parker Chapter for $3.00; District 1, check for $3.00 from Mrs. McKee, Director; District 3, for $3.10 from Miss Shuford; District 7, check from the Albemarle Chapter for the $3.00; District 6, check from the Reidsville Chapter for 50 cents. Total $21.60. Eleven books have been placed in the following colleges:

University of North Carolina, Trinity College, Wake Forest; Davidson, State, N. C. College for Women, Greensboro College; Meredith College, Peace, St. Mary's, and Salem. This leaves 70 cents balance and I hope the other District Leaders will send theirs in so that I can report at St. Louis that we have placed these books. Asheville has placed a copy in the library at Bingham's and numbers of Chapters have placed copies in their public school libraries.

This book is a monument to our grandmothers and mothers that we can send around the world if only we can get the money and in that way will do more good than a monument of stone, for only those who are fortunate enough to be near can ever see the stone monument. Now we have made a beginning with the Publicity Fund in our Division and I hope another year we will have many times as much to report on this fund, for if you could only see the letters that have come to the publishers about this book you would feel proud that you could have a part in placing it before the world. One lady who went from the South to live in Boston says since she has owned a copy and loaned it to her neighbors they say they have an entirely different idea of the South of vesterday and that she is sure that it has gained friends for her and the South. There are many more letters along this same line. Now, Daughters, Mr. Andrews did not do this for money but for the love of the South and the memory of his mother's teachings. This is our book and it is up to you now to remember your loved ones who lived through those days and help place these true stories written by the dear Southern ladies of the sixties before the North, West and across the waters.

The following has been given by you towards this fund this year: Albemarle, North Wilkesboro, Smithfield, Enfield, Shelby, Rocky Mount, Whiteville, Elizabeth City, Kinston, Lincolnton, Durham, Kings Mountain, Greensboro, Fannie Patton Chapter, Asheville, Clinton, Tarboro, Beaufort, Salisbury, Winston-Salem, Charlotte, Fayetteville, Statesville, Graham, and Robert E. Lee C. of C., Asheville, each gave $1.00; Burlington, $2.00; the Division, $2.85; Nashville, $3.00; Asheville Chapter, $5.00; Lumberton, $9.00; Gastonia, $10.00; Junior Bethel Heroes Chapter C. of C., Rocky Mount, $15.00. Total, $70.85.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. R. P.) Tempe Whitehead Holt, Director of Distribution for North Carolina.

Mrs. Glenn of Asheville, General Chairman for this book, urged continued interest on the part of Chapters, as North Carolina was ahead of other States in this work.

It was moved and carried that Mrs. Holt's splendid report be accepted.

Motions were made and duly carried that scholarships be named "James I. Metts" and "Mrs. W. M Parsley," respectively.

After discussion, a motion was unanimously carried that the scholarships named in Wednesday's and Thursday's meetings be named in the following order:

- Mrs. W. M. Parsley. (1)
- Mrs. Ella B. Broadnax. (2)
- (3) H. L. Riggins.
- (4) Orrin Randolph Smith.
- (5) Zeb B. Vance.
- James I. Metts. (6)

The Director of the World War Records read the following report, which was accepted with thanks.

REPORT OF WORLD WAR RECORD DIRECTOR

Madam President and Daughters:

I feel ashamed to bring this report to you with the number of brave boys who went from our State to war, but without the help of the Chapters over our Division a Chairman's hands are tied. This year you have not shown the interest in this work that I had hoped for, that is the greater number, some few have done just splendid work and are still at work writing for more blanks.

I must mention one chapter who did not understand about the work and in August sent a list of the boys to our State Historian who turned it over to me; I immediately wrote to Mrs. Rothrock of Mt. Airy, sending her blanks and explaining the work and while on her bed she went to work and with the help of her husband in less than a month sent me 59 blanks filled out correctly, not a one to send back for corrections. Now if she could do that, so can we, so please let's all work to finish this work during the coming vear.

The following is the number sent by Chapters: Spring Hope, Sylva, Enfield, Durham, 1 each; Red Springs and Hendersonville, 2 each; Lincolnton, China Grove, Nashville, Cary, 3 each; Graham, 6; Jacksonville, 7; Rocky Mount, 9; High Point, 11; Elizabeth City, 16; Shelby, 18; Mooresville, 19; Kinston, 20; Waynesville, 49; North Wilkesboro, 52; Mount Airy, 59. Total 402.

Louisburg has gone to the front with 115 and several others that I feel sure she can get finished but it was too late to return for this year.

They are indexed as follows: Colonel, 1; lieutenant-colonels, 2; majors, 7; captains, 9; first lieutenants, 22; second lieutenants, 10; sergeants, 53; corporals, 35; privates, 238; sergeant majors, 2; wagoners, 3; storekeeper, 1; bugler, 1; chief quartermaster, 1; engineer, 1; seamen, 2; yeomen, 2; commanders, 1; junior lieutenants, 2; ensign, 3; cadet, 1; Ph. mates, 3; mechanic, 1; chief mechanic, 1.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT, Director.

REPORT OF CHURCH BELLS COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Last year I gave a long report of the Church Bells given in North Carolina to the Confederate Government to be cast into cannon, at the call of the Ordnance Department in Richmond in 1862.

I will give a synopsis of that report, and add to it, what we have been able to collect this year.

The Baptist, Presbyterian and St. Matthew's Episcopal Church of Hillsboro, N. C., gave their bells.

The Methodist and Episcopal Church of Greenville, N. C., gave their bells.

From Edenton, N. C., were sent bells from the Methodist, and St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and bells of every description which made four cannon, constituting "The Bell Battery."

The Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, and Episcopal Churches of Washington, N. C., gave theirs.

The Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches of Fayetteville, N. C., offered their bells.

The churches of Halifax and Pittsboro, N. C., offered their bells. All of the churches of Tarboro, N. C., gave their bells.

The Baptist, Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches of Charlotte, N. C., gave their bells; the cannon moulded from them forming Brem's Battery.

The Methodist and Episcopal Churches of Plymouth offered their bells.

The churches of Raleigh tendered their bells. On April 4, 1862, the Baptist Church offered its large bell, weighing 1,300 pounds, supposed to make three six-pounders, or half a battery. Shortly after this, Christ Episcopal, the Methodist, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic Churches of Raleigh offered their bells. We copy from The Raleigh Register of April, 1862, a part of the poem taken from a Richmond paper, entitled "The Church Bell":

> "Loosen the bolts-lower me down: Cannon must be made. From hill and vale, and leaguered town A Nation calls for aid! The joy of a Country's heart is gone, The light of a people fled: To hearts and hearths, the foe presses on O'er the forms of the gallant Dead.

No more should the tongue of the village bell Give forth its cheerful strain 'Til freedom and peace together shall dwell In this fair sunny land again. So haste! to the foundry let me go, Where my brazen sides may yield A weapon of death to the insolent foe-And then—away to the field!

Transferred again to my lonely perch, When the battle's fought and done-A peal I'll ring from the village church For countless glories won. And anon-a song for the brave who bled Ere victory crowned the day. And a dirge for the names of the honored Dead. Who fell in the fearful frav."

We have searched papers and manuscripts, and now, we call on the older generation for tradition about the Church Bells in the older towns of the State.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HENRY A. LONDON, Chairman of Church Bells Committee.

Pittsboro, N. C.

The former State President, Mrs. C. F. Harvey, of Kinston, who at this time arrived at the Convention, was presented to the Convention and given a rising vote of welcome.

Mrs. L. B. Newell of Charlotte announced that she wished to offer a prize of $5.00 in gold to the Chapter President who would send in the best condensed report, expressed in not more than 150 words. She urged all Chapters to compete for it. The Convention accepted this offer with appreciation.

District reports were read and accepted, from the following Districts: First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Sixteenth.

On motion the Convention adjourned at 4:30 o'clock to attend a reception given by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. Lindsay Patterson.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION

The meeting was called to order by the President at 9:30 A. M. After the devotional exercises, there was a vocal duet:

The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

Mrs. Duke Hay moved "that the Division petition that a U. D. C. woman be put on the State Text Book Committee."

Mrs. L. E. Fisher offered an amendment to this motion as follows:

"That we petition that the President of this Division be a standing member of the State Text Book Committee."

This amendment was accepted, and the motion being duly seconded, was unanimously adopted.

As information the President stated that the plan of the present Text Book Committee has every promise of success, and that this Committee is already working in harmony with the Committee appointed to select the text books.

Mrs. Fisher stated it was not her intention to interfere with the Text Book Committee.

Mrs. C. F. Harvey, Chairman of the Maury Monument Committee, gave a verbal report and spoke in behalf of the Matthew Fontaine Maury Monument in Richmond. She said that at the General Convention last November a resolution was presented and adopted that the Daughters of the Confederacy give a creditable sum to this undertaking; that the President General had appointed directors in every Division; and that she was now asking the Presidents of the Chapters represented to see that each Chapter fittingly observe the birthday of Commodore Maury, January 14th, and also seek to have this birthday observed in the public schools by appropriate exercises, and that the school children bring contributions on that day ranging from one cent up. The names of the children contributing should be sent to each Division Director, so that they may be placed in the corner stone of this monument, or in the Confederate Museum. Mrs. Harvey stated that already, without solicitation Chapters of Morehead City, New Bern, Pittsboro and Kinston had each forwarded $25.00 to the State Treasurer.

Mrs. Harvey then called for contributions from the floor, with responses as follows:

Mrs. Marshall Williams stated that Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, who is at present living in Virginia, thinks of applying to the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter of Raleigh for a demit to a Chapter in Richmond and reminded the Convention that Mrs. Moffitt is an Honorary President of this Division and that she would like to see her retained as such.

The Convention arose in compliment to Mrs. Moffitt and in appreciation of her as a lifelong Honorary President of the North Carolina Division.

- Mrs. J. L. Bridgers spoke in behalf of the "Kiffan Rockwell Memorial," and requested that each Chapter send some book written by a North Carolinian for the Tar Heel Library shelf in Paris.
- Mrs. F. M. Williams asked whether this memorial will bear the name, "Daughters of the Confederacy," saying if it did not, the Daughters could not undertake it. Mrs. Bridgers replied that it would and if necessary to put a tablet on this memorial she would give it.

There was much discussion. The question was asked: "Was Kiffin Rockwell a descendant of a Confederate veteran?" Mrs. Riggins replied that newspaper reports stated he was the grandson of a loyal Confederate veteran.

Mrs. Fisher of Asheville then moved "That a Tar Heel Library be placed in Paris in memory of North Carolina World War soldiers, who were descendants of Confederate veterans."

The motion was seconded and carried.

The President then called for the report of the Courtesy Committee, which was read by Mrs. O. Max Gardner.

REPORT OF COURTESY COMMITTEE

When the Daughters of the Confederacy received an invitation to Winston-Salem they felt a rare treat awaited them.

Winston-Salem combines the culture of those olden days, those golden days, when graces of mind and person were stressed—along with the glorious days of the present prosperity and progress—a combination to be envied and not easily attained.

All of our anticipations have been more than realized in the wealth of your welcome and royal entertainment.

To Mrs. H. L. Riggins, the beloved President of the local Chapter, we wish to express our hearty appreciation for her untiring efforts in our behalf, and:

To Mayor James G. Hanes and to each representative from the various organizations who welcomed us so cordially on the opening night, we tender our most heartfelt thanks.

To the James B. Gordon Chapter we offer our appreciation for the beautiful reception Tuesday evening, which was held in the hotel, the name of which we honor and revere.

We desire to express our appreciation for the elegant lunches and breakfast given us by the Civitan Club, the Retail Merchants' Association and that prince of a Veteran, Mr. P. H. Hanes, Sr. These courtesies will ever be remembered.

The Womans Club and Salem D. A. R. tea at the lovely home of Mrs. Lindsay Patterson; the revue at the Forsyth Country Club, given by the Rotary Club; the evening of pleasure given on Wednesday by the children of the Thomas Jethro Brown Chapter, will linger among the pleasantest memories.

To the daily newspapers, to Mrs. Latham, Chairman of the Publicity Committee, to the dear Confederate Veterans of Norfleet Camp, who honored us with their presence, to those who delighted us on each and every occasion with their excellent music, to the ministers who led the devotional exercises, to the pretty pages who served so faithfully, to the citizens who gave their services and cars, we wish to offer our thanks and deepest appreciation.

And to Miss Alice Baxter, of Atlanta, Ga., our own First Vice-President General, whose presence was a real benediction and inspiration, and lastly to our own beloved President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, we pledge our love, loyalty and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. O. MAX GARDNER, Chairman, MRS. H. A. LONDON, MRS. I. W. FAISON, MRS. GEORGE CONNOR, MRS. L. E. FISHER. MRS. W. C. GLOVER.

This was accepted by the Convention and heartily endorsed by all.

The President called for Chapter reports, and by request the one that won the prize, the J. E. B. Stuart Chapter of Fayetteville, was read first. Then, beginning with the letter "Z", the roll was called and Chapter reports read.

It was moved and carried that the Convention be open to invitations for next Convention.

Mrs. H. L. Riggins presented the invitation that the Division adopt the Robert E. Lee Hotel as their permanent quarters. The Convention expressed appreciation of her courtesy by hearty applause.

Mrs. Faison moved: "That the Convention go back to the old way of entertaining."

After much discussion, being seconded, the motion was carried.

Mrs. F. M. Williams requested that the papers competing for the Carrie Watson Pearce medal, offered by Mrs. T. L. Craig, be sent to the President by September 15th and be judged by a committee to be appointed by her, the first day of the next session.

Mrs. H. A. London asked that the Daughters help the Veterans in revising their rosters—that there is no correct roster of Confederate soldiers in existence today.

A telegram of greeting was read from Mrs. Fannie Patton, Asheville; also a letter from Miss Lowry Shuford, former State Historian, containing poem by E. S. Flagg, "The Confederate Veteran."

It was moved and carried that the minutes of the third day be left in the hands of the President and Recording Secretary and their reading dispensed with.

The President presented the new Executive Board and they were given a rising vote of welcome.

The President expressed appreciation of the work of her retiring officers and bespoke for the new officers the same hearty support.

Mrs. H. A. London expressed her appreciation of the President's efficiency, never-failing courtesy and charming womanliness. This was followed by other tributes. The Convention gave a rising vote of appreciation to Mrs. Wilson.

The President acknowledged a gift from the James B. Gordon Chapter, a gavel made from a piece of cedar from the historic Moravian grave-yard, presented to the Division and used during this Convention.

After the singing of "Dixie," the Convention adjourned to meet the second week in October, 1922.

DISTRICT REPORTS

DISTRICT No. 1

Madam President and Members of the Convention:

As District Director I take pleasure in submitting the following report:

The B. H. Cathey Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was hostess to the Annual District Meeting of the First District, North Carolina Division, Thursday and Friday, June 22 and 23, 1921.

On Thursday evening the delegates and visitors were entertained at a garden party at the home of Mrs. M. D. Cowan. This informal gathering gave the Daughters from the various Chapters in our large District a much needed opportunity of getting acquainted.

On Friday morning at 10 o'clock a short service was held at the foot of the beautiful monument erected to the Jackson County Heroes of the Confederacy. Wreaths of flowers were placed on the monument by the little great grand-daughters of Mr. B. H. Cathey, for whom the hostess Chapter was named, and his son, Mr. James Cathey, addressed the ladies with a few well chosen words.

The business session was held in the Methodist Church, which was tastefully decorated with Confederate flags. The meeting was opened by singing "America," and prayer by Rev. O. J. Jones. A cordial address of welcome was made by Mrs. M. D. Cowan, President of the B. H. Cathey Chapter, and a hearty welcome to the church was extended by the pastor. A most pleasing response to the addresses of welcome was made by Mrs. L. E. Fisher, of the Asheville Chapter.

The following Chapters were represented in the meeting by delegates: Asheville Chapter, Fannie Patton Chapter, Transylvania Chapter, Haywood Chapter, W. A. Enloe Chapter, and B. H. Cathey Chapter. The District was fortunate in having as honor guests our Division President, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Marshall Williams, ExState President, and Mrs. Bridgers, State Historian. whose brilliant addresses made the session not only delightful, but instructive as well.

Greetings were extended by the President of each Chapter represented and Chapter reports were read by the Secretaries. These reports gave evidence of remarkable interest and activity in the various Chapters. The receipts reported were around $2,000.00.

Forty-four Crosses of Honor had been bestowed. There are five enthusiastic Children's Chapters.

The Chapter reports show an unprecedented activity in local work—aiding and entertaining veterans, presenting books and pictures to schools, offering prizes for essays, etc., the greatest undertaking in the District being the establishment of a public library by the Transylvania Chapter.

An assessment of three dollars has been paid by the District for placing "Southern Women in War Times" in our State Colleges.

The business session closed with the election of officers, Mrs. E. L. McKee being re-elected Director, and Mrs. L. E. Fisher, Secretary.

Our Division President was then introduced in a charming and graceful manner by Mrs. John McRea, of the Fannie Patton Chapter. Mrs. Wilson's excellent address covered every phase of U.D. C. work in the North Carolina Division and she delighted her audience with the charm and graciousness of her personality.

Mrs. R. L. Madison, of the W. A. Enloe Chapter, with fitting remarks introduced Mrs. Marshall Williams, who made a brilliant and stirring appeal for the Gettysburg Monument Fund. Mrs. Charles Malcolm Platt, of the Asheville Chapter, made a most interesting and illuminating talk on "Truths of History," and Mrs. Bridgers closed the program by speaking briefly on "The Importance of Historical Work."

The program was interspersed with music—a piano solo by Miss Candler, a violin selection by Mrs. Odell Dillard, and two solos sung by Miss McKee.

Just before adjournment a telegram was received from the Abel Shuford Chapter, Hickory, endorsing Mrs. James Gudger, the candidate of the Asheville Chapter for Division President in 1922.

A beautiful luncheon was served at the hotel to the delegates, visitors and members of the B. H. Cathey Chapter. Toasts and short speeches were delivered between courses and at the close, standing around the tables, all joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie."

Two new Chapters have been organized in the District, although too late for their charters to be sent in before Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE DILLS MCKEE,
Director First District, N. C. Division, U. D. C.

Sylva, N. C., Oct. 28, 1921.

On May 30th, at Cleveland Springs, District No. 3 held a very profitable meeting. A picnic dinner was enjoyed on these beautiful grounds by the ladies present. In the absence of the Director, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Frank L. Wilson at one o'clock. As song leader, Mrs. J. Holland Morrow conducted the singing of a number of Confederate songs. The six Chapters of the District were well represented, gave splendid reports, and reports from two of the Children's Chapters were read. The main feature of the meeting was the inspiring address by our Division President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, on the many phases of the work of this great organization.

All the mother Chapters, assisted by the Children's Chapters, observed January 19th and Memorial Day with fitting exercises and sumptuous dinners served to the veterans. Flowers and wreaths were placed on graves Memorial Day. June 3rd was observed by most of the Chapters.

MISS LOWRY SHUFORD, Director of District No. 3.

DISTRICT No. 4

The annual session of the Fourth District of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held May 25, 1921, at the Commercial Club in Mount Airy, with the Chapter at that place the hostess to the North Wilkesboro and the Winston-Salem Chapters. These three Chapters compose District No. 4. At one o'clock, a delicious luncheon was served and immediately following the meeting was called together by Mrs. J. C. Hollingsworth, President of the Mount Airy Chapter. who graciously welcomed the visitors. This was responded to by Mrs. W. O. Spencer, of Winston-Salem, after which Mrs. H. L. Riggins, the District leader, took charge of the business.

Splendid reports were given from each Chapter in the District. Mrs. Coffey, of North Wilkesboro, presenting the report of the Wilkes Valley Guards Chapter. This Chapter reported all taxes paid; $31.00 paid to the Gettysburg Monument Fund; $16.00 toward the free bed at Sanatorium.

The Chapter stood as one among five who had sold the largest number of copies of "The Women of the South in War Times."

Memorial Day celebrated and forty-four war records collected. These, with a donation to the Woman's Confederate Home, were the outstanding features of the year's work.

The report of the Mount Airy Chapter was made by the Secretary, Mrs. Marvin Ellis, who reported all taxes paid; $5.00 sent to free bed at Sanatorium; $50.00 donated to aged veteran and wife; $5.00 donated to beautify the cemetery; five copies of "Women of the South in War Times" sold.

The report of the James B. Gordon Chapter was presented by Mrs. James K. Norfleet, who reported a roster of 133 members; all taxes paid; $5.00 sent to the North Carolina Room in Richmond; $20.00 to veterans; Hero Fund paid. The interest of the Chapter is centered now around the State Convention. which will be held with us in October.

The various calls of the State and General Division were presented for the consideration of the body, especially the new registration. Mrs. Riggins stressed the sale of the book, "Women of the South in War Times," and spoke most interestingly of the Hero Fund, which is the outstanding feature of the year's work.

A few minutes were spent in an animated discussion of matters of interest to the Chapters. Following this Mrs. Riggins thanked the hostess Chapter for its courtesy and kindness to the visiting delegates.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. O. SPENCER, Secretary, MRS. H. L. RIGGINS, Director.

DISTRICT No. 5

The annual meeting of District No. 5 was held in Salisbury, June 3rd. After a delightful buffet luncheon at the home of Mrs. F. F. Smith, the delegates convened in business session in the Old Hickory Club. China Grove, High Point, Lexington, Salisbury, and Thomasville responded to roll-call. Concord was again unrepresented. A short memorial program in honor of President Jefferson Davis was given precedence. In view of the day, it is of interest to note that the gavel of the Robert F. Hope Chapter, used by the presiding officer, is made from a piece of the wood of the funeral car of President Davis, the car in which he made his royal progress back to his Capitol at Richmond.

Reports from the United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapters and the Children of the Confederacy Chapters showed all were meeting their obligations and doing valuable work. The Charles F. Fisher Chapter, Children of the Confederacy, of Salisbury, has been revived, according to the promise of the Robert F. Hoke Chapter, made last year at Thomasville, and reported active progress. Mocksville was suggested as a promising field for a United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter, and Jamestown for a United Daughters of the Confederacy and a Children of the Confederacy Chapter.

From a District point of view, the two important features were:

1. The establishment of a District Scholarship in the School of Business at the North Carolina College for Women, the same not to be held more than one year in succession by the incumbent,

2. The selection of the week of General Lee's birthday, January 19, 1922, as the week in which each Chapter of the Fifth District will devote its efforts to securing donations for the Lee Memorial Fund of Washington and Lee University.

Miss Mary Henderson was re-elected District Director.

An invitation from China Grove for the District meeting of 1922 was accepted.

At the close of the business, the delegates were entertained by the Children of the Confederacy on the Old Hickory Roof Garden, from which the guests enjoyed the beautiful views of Salisbury and the surrounding country.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY HENDERSON,
Director of District No. 5.

DISTRICT No. 6

Madam President:

District No. 6, consisting of the following Chapters: Randolph

Chapter, Asheboro; Charles Fisher Chapter, Burlington; Guilford Chapter, Greensboro; Graham Chapter, Graham; Rockingham Chapter, Reidsville; Chalmers Glenn Chapter, Leaksville-Spray, met in their regular yearly meeting with the Guilford Chapter, Greensboro, April 7th. The meeting was opened by the Lord's Prayer in concert. Miss Lizzie Lindsay, President of the Guilford Chapter then welcomed the visiting Chapters in a charming manner. Mrs. J. D. Kernodle of Graham, District Leader, responded to Miss Lindsey's welcome and introduced Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson of Gastonia, North Carolina State Division President.

Mrs. Wilson made a most inspiring address. She said, among the numerous other good things during her talk, that the motto typified by the five points of the U. D. C. Star; pray, think, dare, live, love, could be the true guiding star. Pray to prove worthy of the great cause; think over and become informed of every phase of the work; know all the causes for which the U. D. C. works and for which it stands; live, vitalize the work; love, for in love there is service.

love there is service.

She also emphasized the importance of Historical work and of co-operating with the Text-Book Committee in order to correct the unfair statements regarding the South during the War Between the States and even after, with which history and literature abound. Mrs. Wilson called the District's attention to the numerous prizes offered by the State and National Organizations. She stressed the various monumental funds, chief among which is the Gettysburg Monument Fund.

One of the most appealing thoughts in Mrs. Wilson's speech was the fact that the U. D. C.'s might let their love which has warmed and blessed many an old Veteran, extend to the new Veterans of the World War and in numberless tender tokens ease the pain and hurt of hundreds who are this very minute in hospitals all over the South as well as the entire United States.

Mrs. Kernodle expressed appreciation in behalf of the delegation to Mrs. Wilson for her very splendid address.

Next came the reports of each Chpter represented, and every Chapter in the District was represented. Every report, without an exception, was an expression of work, enthusiasm, and service.

The District Convention was invited to meet with the Randolph Chapter at Asheboro next year.

Altogether this year's annual Convention was a perfect success, and each delegate must in part carry back to her home Chapter some of the interest and enthusiasm which typified the meeting.

A delicious luncheon was served the guests in the dining room of the Country Club house at 12:30. Immediately after luncheon the visitors were invited into the parlor and were entertained by musical numbers consisting of a trio and two solos by Mesdames Charles Reaves, Joe Taylor and Charles Banks.

As District Leader I have written to each Chapter many times urging them to respond to the appeal of our President for proper registration, as it means so much to our voting strength at Conventions. It was my great desire to meet with each Chapter in the District during the year. Sickness and other things prevented my doing so. The Chapters have all done good work, met most obligations and I have three reports contesting for medal.

I was invited to meet with Chalmers Glenn Chapter at Leaksville-Spray; Randolph Chapter, Asheboro; and Charles Fisher Chapter, Burlington. I only had the pleasure of meeting with the Burlington Chapter, but was delighted with the work the Chapter was doing and they have a splendid report for the year.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. J. D. Kernodle, District Leader No. 6.

DISTRICT No. 7

The Seventh District is composed of the Chapters of Albemarle, Monroe, Wadesboro, Laurinburg, Ellerbe, Norwood and Frank Bennett Children's Chapter of Wadesboro. Of these Chapters, I regret to say Laurinburg, Norwood and Ellerbe have been inactive for several years. Laurinburg has recently been reinstated and we hope before another Convention time rolls around to be able to report the same of Norwood and Ellerbe. Our Chapters all report regular meetings with good attendance, all dues paid, all special days observed and practically all calls responded to. Monroe reports a delightful reception given for benefit of Confederate Home at Fayetteville and has raised $125.00 to furnish a U. D. C. room in the new hospital at Monroe. Wadesboro Chapter gave a splendid reunion to Veterans September 16th.

Albemarle Chapter sent a box of home-made candy to each occupant of Confederate Home at Christmas and later canned goods and two dozen pair of hose. This Chapter's special pride is the scholarship which it gives at the Albemarle N. and I. Institute. The beneficiary of this scholarship, after four years at the school, graduated the past summer and Chapter sent her a check for $25.50, bought her commencement clothes and individual members gave her nice graduation presents. Another girl has been selected for the scholarship and is now at the college.

Frank Bennett Children's Chapter comes last but is not least by any means, for it is the joy and pride of the whole district. Under the fine leadership of Mrs. Clarence Burns it has made wonderful progress and has increased its membership this year from fifteen to sixty-five registered members. Each of these was presented a Jefferson Davis certificate by General William A. Smith, Commander Second North Carolina Division, U. C. V. This Chapter, assisted by the Wadesboro Chapter was hostess for the district meeting which was held at the Wadesboro Country Club, Juen 3rd. We were especially fortunate to have with us at this meeting our State President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson; Mrs. Strayhorn, Director of Children's Chapters; our Third Vice-President, Miss Mary Mabry, and our own Ex-President, Mrs. Eugene Little.

The children had prepared a lovely program which was well rendered at the morning session. A most elegant luncheon was served, to which the forty or more delegates from Monroe, Albemarle and Laurinburg, all of which had driven forty or fifty miles through the country, did ample justice. Lovely and appropriate toasts were given by the young President of the Children's Chapter, by Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mrs. John Bennett.

At the afternoon session there were chapter reports, addresses by State officers, interspersed with music. A unique feature was the observance, the first that we know of this day, as "Confederate Museum" day, the members bringing a relic or silver offering for Confederate Museum. The meeting closed by singing "Stars and Bars Forever."

An invitation to meet with Monroe Chapter was gladly accepted. To our young hostesses, the Frank Bennett Children's Chapter, we hereby express our most grateful appreciation for a day long to be remembered, indeed a perfect day.

MRS. J. M. BROWN, Director.

DISTRICT No. 10

The annual meeting of the Tenth District was held on the 27th of April at Smithfield with the Saunders-Holt Chapter. Delegates from Raleigh, Selma, Pittsboro, Cary, Smithfield and Clayton were present. Prominent among those in attendance were Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, our beloved State President, and Mrs. H. A. London, Ex-State President. We were received at the home of Mrs. William Sanders and later taken to the Methodist Church, where our meeting was held. Prior to this a most delicious luncheon was served, the local Chapter being hostess.

The meeting was opened with prayer and the beautiful ritual of the U. D. C. Mrs. Holt, President of Saunders-Holt Chapter, welcomed the visiting Daughters in a most gracious manner, presenting to them Mrs. H. A. London, the new Director. Mrs. London, don thanked the local Chapter for their cordial welcome and entertainment, then spoke of the marvellous growth of the U. D. C. in its membership and broad field of activity and the qualities necessary for leadership in it, introducing Mrs. Wilson as one in whom these qualities were vested.

In her own sweet, unassuming manner Mrs. Wilson made a most interesting and instructive talk, touching briefly on all the phases of our work. This was followed by the singing in unison of "The Bonnie Blue Flag."

Reports from all the Chapters and Henry A. London C. of C. were then given. Mrs. H. A. London, of Pittsboro, told of her visit to the Gettysburg Battlefield and the crying need of a North Carolina Monument there.

A most interesting paper was read by Mrs. A. J. Ellis, Historian of Johnston Pettigrew Chapter. This was an account of the engagement between the Merrimac and Monitor and was written by Capt. W. F. Drake, who witnessed it.

Attention was called to the neglected condition of resting place of the three hundred Southern heroes who lie where they fell at Bentonville. The point was made that although we have a marker there there should be an iron fence to inclose this sacred spot. This work will be undertaken by the District.

Mrs. H. A. London, State Chairman of Increased Pensions, gave her very splendid report.

Mrs. Charles Lee Smith, Chairman of the Bodleian Library, asked for Southern books to be sent to Oxford, England.

Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Ellis delighted all present with stories of their personal experiences as young girls of the sixties.

Mrs. H. M. London was unanimously elected to retain her position as Director.

After an invitation to the District to meet in Raleigh next year and an expression of thanks to the Sanders-Holt Chapter for the happy day, and the delegates for their good attendance, the meeting stood adjourned.

It is with great pleasure that I bring to you a new Chapter formed at Sanford with thirty-one charter members. And we have every prospect of one at Franklinton in the very near future. Louisburg will reorganize C. of C. Chapter this fall.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. M. LONDON, Director.

DISTRICT No. 11

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session opened with "My Old Kentucky Home." Miss Cornelia McMillan, District Director, in a pleasing manner outlined the work for the year. and disposed of the usual business. A letter from Mrs. Wilson, State President, with greetings, expressing her regret at her inability to attend, was read. Good reports from all Chapters were then read, showing splendid work. Thirty-seven dollars was subscribed to the Vacuum Cleaner Fund for Woman's Confederate Home. Mrs. McEachern was selected to succeed Miss Eloise McGill as custodian of the Flora MacDonald Scholarship Fund. Miss Katherine Robinson, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. L. T. Townsend, of Lumberton, committee appointed to assist her.

Upon the invitation of Miss Sallie Purdie, of Dunn, the District voted to hold its next annual meeting in Dunn. Mrs. J. H. MISS CORNELIA MCMILLAN, Director.

DISTRICT No. 13

The Thirteenth District of the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was beautifully entertained by the John W. Dunham Chapter at the Wilson Country Club, April 29, 1921. The meeting was presided over by our splendid Director, Mrs. Walter F. Woodard.

On roll-call of the Chapters it was found that every Chapter in the District was represented, and when the registrar was asked for the number present she reported 100.

We were very happy to have so many honor guests for our meeting: Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, our beloved State President, who gave us an outline of our work; our War President, Mrs. Jacksie Daniel Thrash, who told us all about the work of the Jefferson Davis Monument; Mrs. John L. Bridgers, State Historian, who pleaded for better and more historical work; Mrs. F. A. Woodard, State Chaplain, who opened our meeting with our ritual; then two of our honorary State officers, Mrs. M. O. Winstead, who always adds to our meetings with her wise counsel, and that devoted Daughter of the sixties, Mrs. J. H. Thorpe.

Our District consists of the Chapters in the following towns: Wilson, Tarboro, Greenville, Nashville, Spring Hope, Middlesex, Rocky Mount, and our new Chapter at Farmville, which was organized by Mrs. Woodard in June. Then five Children of the Confederacy Chapters.

The beautiful Powell Banner, given our District by our former Director. Mrs. Staton, for increased membership, was this year won by the Bethel Heroes Chapter, of Rocky Mount.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy membership of the District is 586 with 79 new members. We have registered with the General Registrar 591, as some of the Chapters are trying to register all of their members since they were organized.

The Children of the Confederacy has 261 members, with all registered with the General Division.

Taxes have been paid on 552 members, both in the State and General Divisions. Every Chapter has paid its Sinking Fund.

Five dinners have been given to the veterans and their wives and widows that are outside of our homes, also fruit, flowers, tickets to the Reunion, cards written them at Christmas, and many visits during the year. To widows, $60.00, and much more in supplies.

Boxes sent Confederate Woman's Home, valued at $465.00, and $2.50 in cash, besides a trunk of things and sixty-four Victrola Records.

Amounts sent other objects as follows: Soldiers' Home, $26.00; Nurse at C. W. At our District meeting a resolution was offered and passed to bring before the State the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of General William Dorsey Pender, and Tarboro has already $500.00 in bank subject to call for this work.

I would go into detail about the beautiful unveiling exercises when the Winborne Marker was placed in the care of the John W. Dunham Chapter, but that will be told by one who can do it better than I, for she has been Chairman of that work since she offered the suggestion that it should be done.

Receipts for the year for the District, not counting the $500.00 in bank at Tarboro for Pender Monument, $2,579.99; disbursements, $2,343.07.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY BRYAN GORHAM, Secretary.

DISTRICT No. 14

The Fourteenth District of the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, is composed of eleven Chapters of United Daughters of the Confederacy, with an active membership of six hundred and sixteen (616), a gain of eighty-seven (87) members for the year, and eight Chapters of the Children of the Confederacy, with an active membership of two hundred and eight (208), an increase for the year of one hundred and forty (140). Two Chapters, Vanceboro and Mayesville, having ceased to function during the year, hence no account of these Chapters is taken in the above.

I have organized during the year, one United Daughters of the Confederacy Chapter, "Col. G. F. Whitfield," at La Grange, with a present membership of forty-six (46). Have registered, according to the new triple registration, all old Chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in the District, making every Chapter in the district now correctly registered. This means a complete roll, including transferred, demitted and decreased members.

Have also organized four Children of the Confederacy Chapters, with a present total membership of one hundred and thirty-seven (137). The "Mary Francis Hancock" Chapter, at Morehead City, with a membership of seventy-six (76); the "Ann Carter Lee" Chapter at Beaufort, with seven members (7); the "Col. S. B. Taylor Chapter, at Jacksonville, with nine members (9), and the "Joseph Kinsey" Chapter, at La Grange, with twenty members (20). This Chapter now has applications for thirty (30) new members. In addition thereto, have registered two old Chapters: the "Winnie Davis" Chapter at Kinston, with fourteen (14) members, and the "Washington Grays," at Washington, with eleven members (11). This completes the registration of all the Chapters in the District under the new requirements.

In making a survey of the District, the first of the year, I found much lethargy and inactivity in several Chapters. It therefore became necessary to do a great deal of work. During the year, I have visited every Chapter in the District—several Chapters a number of times—traveling thirteen hundred and seventy-five (1375) miles, writing three hundred and forty-one (341) letters, fifty (50) post cards and sending fifty-four (54) telegrams and telephone messages. The results have fully justified the effort and expenditure.

On Saturday, April 30th, the annual session of the District meeting was held in Kinston at "Vernon Hall," the beautiful home of Mrs. C. Felix Harvey, our former Divisional President. We were happy to have with us our honored Divisional President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, of Gastonia, who graced the occasion with a very inspiring address. We had also, Mrs. T. G. Hyman, of New Bern, Divisional Vice-President, and Mrs. D. G. Bell, of Morehead City, Divisional Registrar.

Letters from Miss Mabry and Mrs. Long were, by request, read at this meeting. The representatives from the various Chapters were requested to contribute favorite songs to Mrs. Cheek, our Musical Director, who is compiling a book of Southern Songs.

Every Chapter in the District was represented, there being about two hundred delegates and guests present. We were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Harvey, assisted by the A. M. Waddell Chapter; Mrs. Dan Quinnerly. President, having extended to us a very cordial welcome.

At this meeting, Mrs. Harvey presented to the District a very handsome Loving Cup, in memory of her uncle, Capt. George Stanley Dewey, to be awarded annually to the Chapter in District No. 14, making the best record of educational work, including all educational purposes, Hero Fund, Divisional Educational Fund, Scholarships and local co-operative work for education. The writer offered as a prize, for the largest increase in membership by any Chapter in the District for the year, ten dollars ($10.00) in gold.

This was by far the most largely attended meeting ever held in the District, and much enthusiasm was created.

I have taken occasion through correspondence, to thank the Hon. Walter Murphy, of Salisbury, member of the House of Representatives, and the Hon. Solomon Gallert, of Statesville, member of the State Senate, for their untiring and successful efforts in behalf of our honored veterans, while the Pension Bill was being considered by the last Legislature.

Upon inquiry, I find that Maury's United States History is being taught only in three counties out of eight, comprising the Fourteenth (14th) District, and strenuous effort is being made to have these eliminated.

There are taken by two Chapters of the District twenty-six (26) copies of "Truths of History," and by the various Chapters of the District thirty-two (32) copies of "Southern Women in War Times"—five copies have been presented to the schools. The amount requested by Mrs. Wilson for the purchase of "Women of the South in War Times," to be given to the two Confederate Homes and the Colleges of the State, has been remitted. Nearly every Chapter in the District are subscribers to the "Veteran." We hope to very largely increase the circulation next year. Eleven Historical papers have been prepared and one hundred and three (103) War Records sent to Mrs. Holt.

Recipes for the United Daughters of the Confederacy Cook Book have been forwarded to Mrs. Boskinsky. Two (2) handsome pictures have been presented to schools and three prizes of five dollars ($5.00) each have been awarded to high school pupils for best essay. Five (5) Crosses of Honor have been bestowed and twelve (12) Markers placed.

Memorial exercises in conjunction with the World War Heroes have been observed throughout the District and the honored veterans have been graciously remembered by placing wreaths and flowers on the graves of the departed, and supplying sumptuous repasts to those still with us. Boxes of fruit, canned goods and linen have been sent to both Confederate Homes by the Chapters of the District which have not contributed in money.

The total disbursements from the District for the year amount to $2,983.67, which includes the amount from sale of the Jefferson Davis Monument receipts, $130.00. For detail and itemized information, see appendix.

Every Chapter in the Fourteenth District is now in fine, healthy condition, and it gives me great pleasure to acknowledge the hearty co-operation of the members of the various Chapters in the development of the work. I feel very sure we will be able to show very satisfactory progress during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES S. WALLACE,
Director Fourteenth District.

The ninth annual meeting of the Fifteenth District of Halifax County was held in Enfield, N. C., April 5th, at 11 o'clock. Delegates arrived by automobiles from Littleton, Weldon, Halifax and Scotland Neck. The meeting was called to order by the Director, in the Baptist Church, which was appropriately decorated with patriotic colors. Back of the pulpit hung the U. D. C. five-pointed star, each point representing a distinct feature of the work. Mrs. R. C. Dunn, President of the hostess Chapter welcomed the visiting delegates. Mrs. R. S. Travis of Weldon responded in behalf of the District, and voiced the appreciation of all. Rev. T. L. Justice opened the meeting with prayer, after which the beautiful and impressive U. D. C. Ritual was used. The Director declared the meeting opened for business.

Our honored State President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, in her gracious manner, gave a most interesting address which was based on the five points of the Star of the Confederacy: Think, Dare, Love, Live and Pray, each word meaning so much in the noble work. Mrs. R. P. Holt, Third Vice-President General, made a splendid talk on the work of organizing Children's Chapters, and urged each Chapter to organize. Mr. R. B. House, State Collector of War Records, impressed his hearers with his earnest appeal for collecting all historical data. The following songs were sung: A solo, "Our Own Stars and Bars Will Live Forever," by Miss Rut. Reade and chorus; "Suwanee River," by Enfield High School stadents; solo, "Goodbye," by Rev. T. L. Justice; "Old Kentucky Home," by quartet. The meeting was closed with "Dixie."

All Chapters had splendid reports, including the Children's Chapter of Halifax. Adult membership 212, all of whom were registered and most of them have been re-registered. New members, 24. Have two registered Children's Chapters, one at Halifax and one at Weldon, which has recently been organized with 28 members.

Six war records and four historical papers have been sent in. Two Crosses of Honor presented Veterans. Eight subscribers to "The Veteran." Fifteen copies of "Southern Women in War Times" sold. $8.00 sent to "Stars and Bars Memorial," $20.00 to State Educational Fund. Each Chapter has paid the $1.15 per capita to the "Hero Fund," except Weldon, which gave $3.00. A war cannon was mounted on the Graded School campus at Weldon at a cost of $85.00 to the Junius Daniel Chapter. Each Chapter contributed $5.00 to both Confederate Homes, besides sending boxes of canned goods, quilts, rugs, etc. Scotland Neck gave a towel shower for the Confederate Women's Home. Eight markers were placed on Veterans' graves; $5.00 sent to Nurse's Fund, $12.50 to Gettysburg Monument, $2 to N. C. room in Richmond, Va., $7 to free bed at Montrose Sanatorium. Contributions were also sent to General Educational Fund and Confederate Relief Fund; $24.25 were sent to Jefferson Davis Monument. Sold by Director, ten Jefferson Davis souvenir receipts, $10.00, and eleven contributions solicited to Lee Memorial Fund, $11.00. A copy of "Southern Women in War Times" was presented to the Graded School at Enfield, and one to the Graded School at Scotland Neck. Each Chapter observed all memorial days with appropriate exercises. Have liberally aided sick Veterans and Daughters and attended the funerals of all Veterans, placing evergreen wreaths and Confederate flags upon their graves.

The Director visited each Chapter during the year, also tried to organize Chapters in Whitakers and Roanoke Rapids. The Chapter at Enfield has $100.00 in the savings department of the Banfof Enfield, to be added to and used in buying markers for the Confederate dead. The Frank M. Parker Chapter of Enfield gave $25.00, a drugget, and members gave clothing, furniture and a pounding to two Daughters, who lost their home by fire. Two Chapters support an Armenian orphan. Historical programs are used by some of the Chapters. The Director has written 158 District letters, 35 cards, 90 letters and 45 cards for her Chapter since January, 1921. Two memorial trees were planted on the Enfield Graded School Campus in memory of the two boys who lost their lives in France. The District accepted the invitation to meet with Scotland Neck Chapter next April.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a bountiful luncheon was served in the Sunday School Department. The color scheme was carried out and small Confederate flags were given as favors.

Respectfully submitted,

KATIE W. RIDDICK, Director of District No. 15.

DISTRICT No. 16

The annual meeting of the Sixteenth District, N. C. Division of the U. D. C., met in the annex of the First Baptist Church in Elizabeth City, N. C., May 17, 1921. The meeting was opened by Rev. H. E. Myers, pastor City Road Methodist Church with an appropriate scripture reading. A talk on "The Accomplishment of Women," followed by prayer. The audience then sang "Star-Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Glover, President of the D. H. Hill Chapter, delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the Chapter; words of welcome in the name of their city were extended visitors by Mr. Job, President of Chamber of Commerce. His words were well chosen and he paid a beautiful tribute to our organization, saying it was an honor to entertain ladies of such an organization as ours, women with vision and vim, with backbone instead of a wishbone.

These words of welcome were followed by response by Miss Ella Early of Aulander in very appropriate and beautiful words.

Our District Leader, Mrs. E. L. Gatling, was then introduced by Mrs. Glover. She gave an account of District meeting held in Windsor May, 1920.

She then gave an outline of Chapters in our District, reporting ten adult Chapters and one Children's Chapter. The work of the Joseph Cherry Chapter, Merry Mill, was specially mentioned.

Mrs. Gatling then made an earnest plea for contributions to the Gettysburg marker, saying she thought it was the least we could do to be anxious to complete some memorial to the brave men of the sixtiets who went farthest in the heat of the battle. Also told us that the Jefferson Davis monument had been turned over to our organization for completion and expressed a desire that that work be accomplished as soon as possible.

The next thing on the program was a duet beautifully rendered by Mesdames Will Twiddy and J. L. Pritchard.

Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, our State President, was introduced by Mrs. E. L. Gatling. Her address was full of inspiration and interest to us all. Her theme was "The Things We Already Know and Getting a Clear Vision of What We Are Supposed to Do." She contrasted our first General Convention and our last one which met in Asheville, telling us that in the twenty-seven years our number had reached nearly 100,000, 6,000 of which are in our Dilvision.

In beautiful and effective words she told us of what we had done and set before us what our goal should be, in the meantime urging us to stimulate interest among the young people and children so that the Confederacy may not die.

Mrs. Wilson then spoke of the prizes which are offered for the best papers written on subjects pertaining to the Confederacy, and recommended this as a means of creating interest among high school pupils.

The educational work was then discussed and the importance of it was forcefully brought out. Mrs. Wilson explained fully the Hero Fund. Also told us that the month of June had been set aside as the month to work for the Jefferson Davis Monument. She asked that we observe June 3rd and that we ask that Jefferson Davis' favorite hymn be sung in our churches the Sunday before his birthday.

We then entered the business session. Minutes of last meeting were read, followed by roll call of chapters, five chapters reporting. Committees were appointed on nomination and time and place. Just at this time we were delighted to see three Confederate Veterans come in. They were asked for remarks to which all responded, after which we adjourned for dinner.

A bountiful feast of good things was served us in the social room of the church, which was beautifully decorated with our colors. We had the pleasure of enjoying beautiful music rendered by the Elizabeth City Orchestra during the repast.

The afternoon session opened at 2:30 with Mrs. E. L. Gatling presiding. Mrs. Glover introduced Mr. W. O. Saunders, editor of The Independent, to make a talk. He said the one big thing confronting womanhood today is world disarmament, and urged us as an organization to make propaganda against war as long as we have an organization.

A letter was then read from Mrs. Little urging the ladies to help on the Cunningham Memorial, the founder of the Confederate Veteran.

Mrs. Gatling then made an earnest appeal for Davis Monument and in this appeal urged the daughters to be faithful to our heroes, who were first at Bethel, farthest at Gettysburg and last at Appomattox. Mrs. Wilson made a short talk in which she told us the Rebecca Winborne Marker in Wilson was unveiled at 1921 District meeting. Also spoke of bed at Montrose and told us about our patient there. Mrs. Noah Burfoot then sang for us very beautifully "Sweet Genevieve."

Business session was again entered into. Edenton and Hertford had sent in by request histories of their chapters which were read. The District Leader asked that they be recorded in the Secretary's book, also added that she hoped to get the history of each Chapter in our District.

A letter from Mrs Long, our State Treasurer, was read, asking each Chapter to send money now to what they had failed to respond to as the expenses this year were even greater than before.

Mrs. Wilson then explained what the Woman's Relief Fund is, stating that it was to help old Confederate ladies where there are no organizations. She also mentioned the $1,000,000 Pension, which has just been granted the old soldiers.

Mrs. E. L. Gatling then presented resolutions which she asked that each Chapter adopt. The resolutions were adopted. The audience then joined in singing "Carolina."

Mrs. Wilson suggested that each Chapter ask some capable man or woman who is interested in the Confederacy to give a hostorical address once or twice a year for the benefit of school children and also to place pictures in schools of Confederate heroes.

The report of Committee on Nominations was then called for. Mrs. E. L. Gatling, Windsor, N. C., was re-elected District Leader. Mrs. H. M. Bell, Windsor, N. C., was re-elected Secretary. Report on time and place was then called for. On account of so many Chapters not being represented the time and place was left open for communication.

Resolutions of appreciation in behalf of the delegates and visitors were drawn up and read by Miss Ella Early, Aulander, N. C.

Mr. Matthews, one of the Veterans, made a few impressive remarks concerning their camp and asked for advice or any suggestions from the Daughters as to how they might maintain their camp as their officers were fast thinning out. One of the Daughters of the D. H. Hill Chapter made a motion that their Chapter adopt this camp and have their meeting together. This motion was carried.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the meeting came to a close with a delightful automobile ride over the city and through the trucking section near the city, past colonial residences of historical interest.

A reception was given in honor of the Daughters in the spacious and hospitable home of Mrs. Charles Robertson.

Since the meeting the District Leader has been busy visiting the Chapters and writing them monthly letters. Aulander, Ahoskic, Edenton, Elizabeth City, Winton and Windsor are correctly registered, while the Merry Hill, Hertford, Gatesville and Murfreesboro Chapters are busy looking up old applications. A Children's Chapter has been organized in Aulander.

MRS. E. L. GATLING, District Leader, MISS MARY PRUDEN, Secretary Pro Tem.

The support and management of our Memorial Library and the Bureau of Information for summer visitors have come to be our main tasks. There we spend most of our energy and most of our funds. The town and county have shown their appreciation of our work and worth by putting steam heat in our Library and building a handsome cobble-stone wall steps and cement walk at our entrance.

Besides sending a barrel of potatoes to the Home in Fayetteville, and keeping up our three scholarships, we have contributed to the State Education Fund, to the Jefferson Davis Monument, the Jefferson Davis Highway, the Rebecca Winbourne Marker, the Orrin Randolph Smith Tablet, and the bed at Sanatorium.

KINSTON-A. M. WADDELL CHAPTER, No. 382

Our meetings are well attended and featured by the singing of Confederate songs. Our best and most satisfactory work is caring for and assisting the veterans. Our request, made to our County Commissioners to send our veterans to the Reunion at Chattanooga, was heartily granted. A collection was taken at our Memorial Service on January 19th for the free bed at Sanatorium. Our Memorial Day line of march to the Confederate Cemetery halted at the Victory Arch and Daughters and veterans placed wreaths of poppies on it to the memory of the boys of Lenoir County who offered up their lives in the World War.

The Gettysburg program was interestingly carried out, $25.00 being sent to the Memorial Fund; also the same amount to the Matthew Fontaine Maury Memorial Association. An accurate registration of Chapter members has been made and monthly letters written the occupants of the Chapter's room at the Confederate Woman's Home. One hundred and three war records have been obtained and $25.00 worth of souvenir certificates purchased.

The September meeting was held at the wreck of the Confederate gunboat Neuse, half a mile below the city on Neuse River, about 100 feet of which may be seen at very low water. An appetizing supper of eggs, bacon and coffee was prepared on the beach, after which the history of the construction and sinking of the ram and a sketch of the Confederate Navy was given.

The happiest occasion of the year was the entertainment of the Fourth District at Vernon Hall, at which time our President, Vice-President and Registrar were present.

The Gettysburg and Lee contributions were enthusiastically contributed. We arranged to co-operate with the American Legion on Memorial Day, at which time a marker was unveiled to Jacob Boone, the first soldier from our town to pay the supreme sacrifice on battlefield of France. On this day automobiles brought to the unveiling all old Veterans and their wives at our expense. The U. D. C.'s donated a wreath of poppies for the marker, and as many as a hundred designs were later taken to the old soldiers' graves in our two towns.

The last move of interest is the decision to adopt a room in the Grimes cottage at the Old Soldiers' Home. After giving it the necessary comforts, we shall at intervals send such things as will bring cheer and comfort to the two old heroes who will occupy the room.

During the year our Memorial Committee has sent to homes of the deceased five designs. We have lost two members by death and three were sent to homes of Veterans.

PITTSBORO-WINNIE DAVIS CHAPTER, No. 259

The Winnie Davis Chapter was organized in October, 1898, by Mrs. William Parsley, the mother and founder of the North Carolina Division. We have on our roll 140 members; 14 have died and 39 removed, leaving us 86 actual members. We have paid $42.50 in taxes-$1.00 Sinking Fund; $35.00 to Gettysburg Monument; $20.00 to the Hero Fund; $1.00 to tuberculosis bed; $1.00 for Stars and Bars memorial; $1.00 to Cunningham Memorial; $18.00 for fruit, flowers and necessities for veterans; $12.00 for telegrams to Legislators to work for increased pensions, in addition to writing 25 letters. What Chapter did that much? We always send laurel wreath and Confederate flag to every veteran who dies within reach of us. Have just paid out $30.00 for marble markers for soldiers' graves. We sent out cards of announcement to every veteran in the county to come to the fine celebration and dinner on 10th of May. Hon. R. O. Everett, of Durham, who worked hard for pensions, made a splendid speech on that occasion. We asked our County Commissioners to pay the expenses of the Chatham county veterans to the last Reunion and to Chattanooga. We are studying the Confederate Navy, and are especially interested in Admiral Maury, called "The Pathfinder of the Seas." By his devices and bombs in the harbor, he kept the Yankees from Richmond a long while. We gave $35.00 to the Admiral Maury Monument in Richmond. We have already given our per capita to Jefferson Davis Monument. Our Relief Committee seeks out cases of sick or needy veterans. We will send them cards at Thanksgiving. We gave three bright rugs to the Winnie Davis Chapter Room at the Soldiers' Home last Christmas. Our Winnie Davis Chapter is alive and active.

We have paid out $100.00 for a tablet to be unveiled in our High School to the World War boys who went from that school. It is to be unveiled this fall. It will cost $150.00. We gave a splendid dinner to our veterans at our Reunion this year. One hundred and twenty-five partook of it, besides the veterans. The Henry London Children's Chapter is working hard to erect a fence around our Confederate Monument. They will have a Hallowe'en party to make money for it. When possible we have veterans from our county to give us talks on their experiences in the war. In November, a veteran who was a Junior Reserve, will give us a talk, and we are looking forward to it with pleasure.

MRS. HENRY A. LONDON, Preside.

RAEFORD—RAEFORD CHAPTER, No. 1279

Our Chapter has been handicapped owing to resignation of our first President. One was elected later. We gave $1.00 to Rebecca Winbourne Marker. RALEIGH-JOHNSTON PETTIGREW CHAPTER, No. 95

We have paid our taxes and Sinking Fund, contributed to Winbourne Marker and Woman's Relief; gave $25.00 to Gettysburg Monument; $10.00 each to Educational Fund and Cunningham Memorial; 17 copies of "Women of the South in War Times." In November, our Chapter had a birthday party at Soldiers' Home for Captain Cathey, celebrating his ninety-ninth birthday. This was a real party with toasts and speeches, music and songs and a huge home-made cake aflame with candles. At Christmas we attended the Christmas tree given the veterans at the Home by the Manly's Battery Chapter. January was perhaps our most active month. We entertained the wives of the Legislators the three times we met-once our regular meeting, then an extra meeting to hear Mrs. St. Clair speak on the Lee Memorial, then at our Lee-Jackson Day exercises, which were held in the Capitol. Our Gettysburg Day was intensely interesting. Papers were read on "North Carolina's Part at Gettysburg," "Pettigrew at Gettysburg," and the President, having recently been there told of her visit to the battlefield and her feeling of shame, that with all this glorious record of hers. North Carolina had no monument there. The Chapter voted $25.00 to the Gettysburg Monument. We gave our annual dinner to the veterans on May 10th. This included the men at the Home and the Wake County Veterans, 150. The Governor and his staff were guests of the occasion. After a perfect dinner, the men adjourned to seats on the lawn, where speeches were made, songs were sung and much reminiscising done. At the appointed hour beautifully decorated automobiles sent by the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs carried the veterans to the Capitol to join the military parade of 1,000 State College cadets, who acted as an escort to the Confederate cemetery, where our memorial exercises were held. Can you picture a more beautiful sight than was ours on entering the cemetery gates, where more than a thousand Confederate flags were waving over the graves of our Southern dead? A flag by each stone. On June 3, impressive exercises were held in the chapel at the Home, when Dr. D. H. Hill made a splendid address. We contributed ice cream and cigars to the veterans' dinner that day. In August, we asked the Rotary Club to supply automobiles to carry the veterans to Durham to the Reunion, which they did, bringing them back two days later. Truly the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter has never been more keenly alive to active Confederate work. Our March meeting was one of rejoicing. Pension Bill has been successful, and we had with us again our beloved Josephus Daniels. We sent to Lexington a beautiful laurel wreath to be placed by General Lee's statue for the 19th. January 20th we made moving pictures at the Soldiers' Home. showing the veterans receiving their Crosses of Honor.

When we organized, the children elected a very able girl to serve as President. She had a great uncle in the war, but we have been unable to find his record in the roster. The Chapter feels that it cannot get along without her, consequently we have at least 12 or 15 children to register that cannot register until the President does so. We shall continue our search until our October meeting and then elect a new President. On the 4th of July we decorated a float for our parade and received the first prize of $10.00. The J. D. Moore Chapter has shown a most active, wide-awake enthusiasm this fall and has planned splendid work for the coming year. The large membership and difference in ages justified separating into a Junior and Senior division, which promises a pronounced advantage. Forty-four certificates have been given and all will have them soon. Each of the one hundred and sixty-eight members are knitting squares to be made into a quilt for the J. D. Moore Chapter's room at the Soldiers' Home. Another inspiration is in the little crippled children of the North Carolina Orthopaedic Hospital, to which the Chapter is responding happily. In offering the Loving Cup to the Children's Chapter of the Division, we note already a great increase in membership, for which we feel deepest gratification. Bless the children and their splendid achievements, and let theirs be the work our greatest efforts are directed toward, for through them God has truly opened the way.

The Zeb Vance Boys' Chapter held regular meetings during entire year with a social feature combined. The mother of the Chapter, our beloved State President, Mrs. Wilson, delighted the boys with an old-fashioned candy pulling during the winter, and Mrs. F. L. Wilson entertained them on the 20th of May with their mothers as special guests. The mothers helped to swell the fund for the Old Soldiers' Home, also gave them sox and towels. Chapter has responded to all calls made with generous contributions. Sent personal Easter cards to many of the soldiers. One of the boys represented the Chapter at our District meeting in the Spring. Chapter has taken a room at the Old Soldiers' Home to be known as Zeb Vance room, and with help of mother Chapter, hope to make it comfortable. Their chief joy and work is the Old Soldiers' Home. Two boys of the Chapter visited the Old Soldiers' Home during the summer.

We have had unusually interesting and enjoyable meetings this year, the members living in the suburbs entertaining during the summer months. At one of these meetings two veterans attended and told the children of some of their personal experiences during the sixties. Both of these veterans belonged to the famous Twenty-sixth North Carolina Regiment and both had seen Generals R. E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson, Pettigrew and others, and these personal recollections held an added charm for the audience. After the program the veterans kindly signed many application blanks for new members. The leader has been reading a story at each meeting from the book, "Southern Women in War Times."

The Alfred Rowland Chapter extends greetings to State Convention, now in session. We are pleased to report our Chapter in good condition. Nine new members have been received, while eight have blanks to be filed. We have transferred two of our girls to Robeson Chapter. We were very happy last fall to be one of the lucky six Chapters selected to send a page to State Convention. Our work this year has been very interesting. We have responded to all calls, quite a bit of charity work has been done, fruit, flowers and substantials carried to Confederate Veterans and widows of veterans. We clothe one of the ladies at Confederate Home for Women, and at Christmas each member contributed not only a gift but a cheery greeting, also a small purse containing several dollars. Our flower committee has carried wreaths to one Confederate Veteran's funeral and to several World War Veterans. The 10th of May was observed as usual. Our Chapter sang several selections for the veterans, then marched in a body to the Confederate Monument and while "The Stars and Bars" was softly sung the monument was entwined with beautiful roses. We stand ever ready to help when needed.

The children had entire charge of 10th of May program. Our Chapter is gathering material for a little history of the Confederate Veterans in our community.

Convinced the most important work now before the Southern people is of courageous organizations through which to set before its children the truth of its history so as to defeat the pernicious influence of ignorant and prejudiced writers, whose works in biography, history and fiction are insiduously infiltrating our schools and maliciously and intentionally undermining the true interpretation of our history; all Manly's Battery works followed two lines of propaganda for establishment of truth in appreciative service to the living and dead Confederate soldiers. First: We have in tribute to the living employed every agency to carry facts of importance concerning the status of the veterans of this State to all its people, using the press, legislative hall, and moving pictures, and thereto enlisting every resource in the fight for increased pensions; co-operated with Community Service Bureau in making and routing moving pictures of presentation of crosses to veterans, Girls' Friendly Society in Christmas activities, tree at hospital with Mrs. Bickett as "Perennial Mrs. Santa Claus," secured from Senator Overman and Representative Pou seed set in motion prize flower bed contest. Second: In memory of the dead, we have used every agency to sustain the revival of interest in the Confederacy, its policies and constitution, so to inform the minds of young people of the inspiration of those who died for the right of self determination, that the North and West may not shame us with a more intelligent appreciation of the ancient gospel of the Southern Confederacy. To this end we have installed memorial to our Godmother, Miss Kate West, have placed 30 books in Raney Library, distributed 350 papers, 300 Lincoln pamphlets, 20 Minor's Lincoln, 24 articles deploring use of Muzzy's History in North Carolina, co-operated with Welby Carter Chapter in placing books giving the truth of Southern History in colleges, schools, universities, libraries in Europe and throughout the States of the Union.

On Saturday before the 10th of May we entertained the mother Chapter and also had as our guests Mrs. F. M. Williams and Mrs. A. M. Waddell. They both made us fine talks. We had recitations and songs appropriate to the time, then served punch and cake, after which we went to the cemetery and decorated the graves of our veterans and our two mother Chapter Presidents. On the 10th, we placed a wreath on the monument. On January 21, we celebrated Lee-Jackson Day with an entertainment of old-time songs and recitations by the boys and girls of the Children of the Confederacy. Then had a contest for our guests, the questions being taken from our Catechism. Very few could answer them. While the judges were going over the papers we served sandwiches and tea. Our first prize was a copy of our book, the second a picture of Lee on Traveler, the third a copy of our Catechism. We have given the following: Publicity Fund, $15.00; Gettysburg Monument, $5.00; Jefferson Davis Monument, $8.50; Hero Fund, $12.50; Lee Memorial, $2.00; Hospital Bed, $2.50; Winbourne Marker, $5.00; Confederate Woman's Relief Work, $5.00; Jefferson Davis Highway, $5.00; flowers and wreaths for veterans and others, $21.75; local work, $69.24; certificates for all of our members. Have placed 11 copies of our book in schools, given eight copies to veterans, bought and sold together 106 copies.

We have fallen short in our work this year but will do better next year. We have given nine of our badges as prizes, and several of our members are trying for prizes.

We have special program on January 19th, and on 10th of May the children march in procession, carry wreaths and flowers and assist the U. D. C. in serving the dinner to our veterans. They acted as marshals on May 10th and pinned the badges on the veterans. On June 3rd, the mother Chapter is host to the children, who furnish the program. Last June 3rd, we were entertained at the home of the President of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. M. In Memoriam

The business of the convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy paused for a brief interval in a memorial service to the deceased Veterans and loyal Daughters of the Southland.

These services in memory of our departed Daughters were presided over by Mrs. F. A. Woodward, Chaplain of the Division.

After the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee," the invocation was pronounced by Dr. J. K. Foster of the First Presbyterian Church. An appropriate musical selection was rendered by Miss Antoinette Glenn.

After a reading of the scriptures, the roll was called of departed Daughters of the Division during the past year, twenty-six in number.

Mrs. Woodward then gave the following beautiful tribute to these devoted members of the U. D. C.:

"We do well to pause at this time to pay tribute to those of our number who with us have labored to keep alive in the minds of succeeding generations the glory that was in the ideals and sacrifices of the sixties, those who a year ago were with us in our annual meeting and rendering a service as vital in the seclusion of our hundreds of local organizations. Their minds have ceased to plan our activities and their hands to execute, but who will dare say they have ceased to live? They have only crossed from a range of human vision to a larger life. If we look about us we shall find that we are fulfilling plans of those who have labored here for a while and the scheme of present activity is larger because they saw and in faith projected. They have lived faithful to the ideals of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and in that they have been loyal to all the ideals of citizenship. Gathering up into a beautiful life the details of each day's work, the commonplace seen in isolated deeds, is lost in the brightness of a rich life. We are sure the summons came to them in such an hour as they were busy with some divinely appointed task and we can say of them with Millman:

"'Death cannot come
To him untimely who is fit to die;
The less of this cold world, the more of heaven;
The briefer life, the earlier immortality.'

"To them death was a stage in human progress, a passage from children into the full life of maturity. We love to think of these as "'Star by star declines

Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines to pure and perfect day;
Nor sinks those stars in empty night
They hide themselves in heavens pure light.'

"The passing of each of these has marked, somewhere in our State, personal sorrows, personal loss and a realization of friend-ship's true meaning. We would extend comfort to those who sorrow in the words of Robert Hall: 'The friendship of high and sanctified spirits loses nothing by death, but its alloy; failings disappear, and the virtues of those whose faces we shall behold no more appear greater and more sacred when beheld through the shades of the sepulchre.' Like Jonathan at the evening time, you may be lonely and your heart may hunger for your friend, yet there is joy for each in the comradeship of spirit.

"As the days pass each of us will know the call in the heart of Tennyson, his very soul pleading for the loved Hallam:

"'O for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still.'
And comfort comes out of the prayer when we know that,
"'Far off thou art, but ever nigh;
I have thee still and I rejoice;
I prosper circled with thy voice;
I shall not lose thee tho' I die.'

"We pause today not to lament but to rejoice, and as we recount the deeds of love and mercy done by these and recorded in the Book of Life our hearts are filled with a holy joy. While their common dust, their deeds shall live after them, immortal as the names may be forgotten and their mortal bodies mingle in the soul and precious in the sight of Him who was from the beginning. My sisters, these gave of time and means that the glorious deeds of our fathers might be kept to the day of our children's children. That there may be an ever increasing heritage of patriotism should be our work today and in the coming days. Our sons and brothers have brought new glory to the banner of our common country and though we meet today as Daughters of the Confederacy, we shall labor to weave these deeds of valor done on Flanders fields under a foreign sky into the new spirit of America, a single heritage of patriotism for a new generation. These sisters of ours saw this new day from afar, and rejoiced in its coming. 'Tis our privilege to bring it nigh, and in its inspiring presence to labor. The labored in faith, and wrought mightily and we rejoice in what they achieved. Of them we may say:

'Life's race well run; Life's work well done; Life's crown well won; Now comes rest.'"

A memorial to Mrs. J. Bryan Grimes, Honorary President of the Division, was read by Mrs. Henry M. London of Raleigh.

A memorial to Mrs. Eva Hendren Martin of Winston-Salem was read by Mrs. W. O. Spencer.

The Chaplain then read a memorial written by Hon. Samuel A. Ashe to the late General James I. Metts, Commander of the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina.

The Recording Secretary read resolutions on General Metts, prepared by a committee appointed by the President.

A beautiful floral tribute was presented by the Children's Chapter of Winston-Salem in loving memory of all the Daughters of the Division who had passed to their final rest during the past year.

The benediction was given by Rev. Dr. Foster, and this impressive and solemn service ended.

MEMORIAL TO MRS. BRYAN GRIMES

Mrs. Charlotte E. Grimes, widow of the late General Bryan Grimes, died at her residence in Raleigh Saturday, December 11, 1920. In the passing to the Great Beyond of her spirit, we realize that something true and precious has taken its flight, but in quick succession comes the thought that "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

Mrs. Grimes' home had been at Grimesland, Pitt County, for more than fifty years, but her health having failed, she had been living in Raleigh for the past two years.

Mrs. Grimes was born in Raleigh January 27, 1840, and was the daughter of the late Hon. John H. Bryan and his wife, Mary W. Shepard. She was educated at St. Mary's School in Raleigh and at Madame Carpentier's in Philadelphia. In her younger days she was an accomplished musician and she had always been noted for her poise, grace and remarkable beauty. Her girlhood was spent at the capital of the State in the midst of all the enjoyments of a refined and cultured society. She was a "Belle of the Sixties," beautiful and accomplished, besides possessing great strength of character and a deep sense of religion.

In September, 1863, she married General Bryan Grimes, C. S. A., and spent the winters of 1863-64 and 1864-65 with her husband in the Army of Northern Virginia.

About 1866 when the war clouds had dissolved, General Grimes brought his young wife and infant on to the Grimesland Plantation to make their home where his ancestors had lived and were buried. Many years of happiness ensued, their home was noted for hospitality and elegance. In fact General Grimes evinced his heart's desire to shield his wife from all adversity and to surround her with every luxury. And to his children he gave the best advantages of education and mental uplift that could be found. His greatest happiness was in his devotion to his wife and children. The thought of their future appeared to obliterate all ambitions and desires for himself. Everything seemed prophetic of happiness and length of life for himself and his wife; they were active in all the good works in their community, and were truly more blessed in giving than receiving.

In August, 1880, a terrible tragedy occured by which General Grimes became the victim of a cowardly assassin's bullet. In the dusk of a summer evening when he was at the flood-tide of endeavor and the joy of life, his dead body was brought home. At that moment, out of the agony of her grief, there sprung up in the breast of his young widow the determination to consecrate her life to his memory, and to the rearing of their family of nine young Other plans were held up to her that gave less of responsibility and more of ease, but she refused to consider them. With undaunted courage she took up the threads of their home life and carried it through as she knew he would have wished. Under conditions which would have appalled some men and most women, she undertook the management of her husband's business affairs, and in so doing she exhibited such a commanding dignity and brightness of intellect that she attracted the admiration and respect of everyone. Her warm sympathy and wonderful tact made sincere friends of all those who served her either in business or domestic capacities. Her strong mind, fine judgment, strength of character and quiet dignity gave her a controlling influence over her children and those with whom she came in contact.

She was very tender and womanly, tenacious in her love for her family and friends. In her plantation life she was characterized by a high feeling of sympathy and responsibility to her dependents that held their love and reverence. She venerated the high ideals and refined purposes of the old South to which she was born and bred. She could not have been other than loyal to the "Lost Cause"; and she was anxious that the history of the Confederacy be kept true to its standards; and that the purity of the things for which their fathers fought be impressed upon the coming generations. She gave generously of her means and sympathies to the organizations of the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Veterans. She was President of the Ladies' Memorial Association of Beaufort County, President of the Pamlico Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, and Honorary President of the State Division of the U. D. C.

Mrs. Grimes was a devout member of the Episcopal Church and during her long residence at Grimesland was active in all good work at Trinity Chapel. She was one of those characters who enter into life good and beautiful and retain their beauty and keep their souls in tune with the Infinite to the end.

The following lines found in her prayer book express her abiding faith and deep devotion:

"Some day the silver cord will break And I no more shall sing: But, O, the joy when I shall wake Within the palace of the King.

"Some day my earthly house will fall, I cannot tell how soon 'twill be; But this I know—my ALL IN ALL Has now a place in heaven for me.

"Some day, when fades the golden sun Beneath the rosy tinted West, My blessed Lord shall say, 'Well done,' And I shall enter into rest.

"Some day, till then I'll watch and wait, My lamp all trimmed and burning bright, That when my Saviour opens the gate My soul to Him may take its flight."

The funeral services were held at Christ Church, Raleigh, December 12th. In this church Mrs. Grimes was christened, confirmed and married. The interment was at the old family cemetery at Grimesland there where she rests beside her loved ones until,

"On the resurrection morning Soul and body meet again;

No more sorrow, no more weeping, No more pain.

"Soul and body reunited,
Thenceforth nothing shall divide,
Waking up in Christ's own likeness, Satisfied."

The surviving children of Mrs. Grimes are: Hon. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State; Mrs. Alfred Williams of Raleigh; Mrs. J. Gordon Hackett of North Wilkesboro; W. D. Grimes, Junius D. Grimes and Mrs. H. C. Rodman of Washington, North Carolina; and a number of grandchildren.

MEMORIAL TO MRS. EVA HENDREN MARTIN

Truly the years demand their toll; and often when the sunshine of life seems at its rosiest glow—behold the shadows fall.

So the shadow of death crept into the portals of the James B. Gordon Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of Winston-Salem, and ushered into the sunshine of the life eternal, the spirit of Mrs. Eva Hendren Martin. Mrs. Martin was the eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Hendren; she was born in Cary, N. C.; graduated at Greensboro College for women, and married Mr. Frank Martin of Winston-Salem, where she had since resided.

Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin: Frank, Jr., Irene, Eva and Linville, and there preceded her to that 'Ain Countree', her husband, and her eldest daughter.

A wonderfully comprehensive and sympathetic mind enabled her to enter into the life of her family and friends, as it is given to few people to do.

As a mother she was superb—giving of herself to the limit—the lode-star of a happy home; and as a friend, she was akin to the Divine, for in her loyalty and self-effacement she indeed seemed to count it not too great a sacrifice, to lay down her life, for her friend. Wise, with a wisdom of heart, as well as of brain, fine in her decisions, and accurate in her judgments, she was honored with positions of trust and responsibility, both in her church and in the various civic organizations to which he belonged. No more loyal Daughter of the Confederacy ever lived—no more devoted wife and mother—no finer Chritian character, and no more faithful friend—truly it may be said of her, that in all the obligations of life she was faithful—even unto the end.

We are thinking very tenderly of her today, for it does not seem possible that she has gone—we only feel that she has just passed into God's other room; into that beautiful country, where free from all strife and care, tired of earth's shadows, and weary of life's suffering, she gladly rests—where existence is eternal.

The sweet memories of her that linger, are as the fragrance from a bed of pure white lilies—when night's shadows fall—that subtle, elusive fragrance, that permeates—and whispers of the tender love of yesterday, which was hers to give—and then of the many mansions where today, she rests, safe in her immortality.

The benediction of her beloved presence we shall ever miss, but today, as we are gathered to honor her memory, somehow—

"I cannot feel that she is far—
Since near at hand the angels are,
And when the sunset gates unbar,
We then shall see her waiting stand,
And white against the evening star—
The welcome beckoning of her hand."

For we are somehow feeling today, that there is no death; what seems so is transition—that

"Ever near us, tho unseen—
The dear immortal spirits tread,
For all the boundless universe,
Is life—There are no dead."

And therefore there need be no sad farewells—the darkness of the shadows of today shall be the roseate glow of tomorrow's noonday glare.

Then let us tenderly say this day:

"Only good-night beloved—not farewell Until we meet around His throne—Good-night,—Good-night, Dear Friend."

MARY KERR SPENCER.

MEMORIAL TO GEN. JAMES I. METTS

The death of Major-General James I. Metts, the Commander-in-Chief of the North Carolina Veterans, has given grief to us, the Daughters of the Confederacy, and brought mourning to the State. From boyhood till death, he devoted himself to the service of the Confederate Veterans. In perfect health, with a physique that betokened many more years of usefulness, this hero of the Civil War met with an accident at Wilmington, and expired on the 18th instant.

He had hardly reached his nineteenth birthday, when in response to the call of North Carolina, he enlisted as a private in the Rifle Guards, a company formed by his associates at his home in Wilmington, and with it on April 15th, 1861, he went to occupy Fort Caswell.

At one time this Wilmington company had on its rolls more than a hundred men, ranging from sixteen to twenty-two years of age, and only one married man among them. This devoted band is known as Co. I, 18th Regiment, North Carolina Troops.

The fine carriage of Private Metts led to his being given charge of the Regimental Colors, which he carried, until on the reorganization, a year later, he enlisted in the 3rd Regiment, under Col. Gaston Meares. His bravery and fine capacity won for him particular distinction in the Seven Days Battle before Richmond.

In every battle it was the same. In the assault at Culp's Hill, on the evening of the second day at Gettysburg, he led his men close up to the Federal breastworks, and there received a wound in his left lung. His sufferings were intense and his condition was so hopeless that his recovery was perhaps a miraculous intervention of Providence, preserving his life for future usefulness.

After a year of cruel suffering at Johnson's Island, he was selected as one of the most enfeebled of the prisoners for exchange, and on rejoining his command served in Cox's Brigade, Grimes' Division, and on the Staff of General Grimes, always gaining honors, until at length, he bowed his head in sorrow at Appomattox

Returning home, he was an exemplar in peace as he had been in war. The hero on the battlefield now became the patriot in civil life. Throughout the years he set an example of patient industry; of cheerful performance of the duties of citizenship, and of benevolence, that was not without its effect in his community. In a spirit of fine manhood, he met and overcame adversity, and won success in life, enjoying the esteem, admiration and affection of all his associates.

While we embalm his memory as a hero and patriot, ever devoted to his Confederate associates, and worthy of the high honors accorded him, we shall long remember his uniform courtesy and cheerfulness, his bright eyes, his attractive manner, and his engaging personality. In his demise the State has lost one of the brightest ornaments of her citizenship.

It is with deep sorrow that the North Carolina Division, U. D. C., records the death of General James I. Metts, which occurred October 18.

His record as a soldier of the Confederacy especially endeared him to the hearts of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and we, the Daughters, feel that we have lost a loyal friend. His devotion to the cause of the Confederacy and the U. D. C. was most earnest.

His warm hearted character and his modesty showed itself in his loyalty to everything the Division undertook.

The Division mourns his death and will ever reverence and honor the memory of this brave soldier, who was the beloved Commander of the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina.

"It is not death to die—
What we call death is transition;
Life at the end of our mission;
The silent passing of the breath,
The quiet closing of the eyes;
A fleeting passing moment wrung—
And then, to awake in paradise with God—
This is not death, but life begun."

To

Our Mothers of the U. D. C.

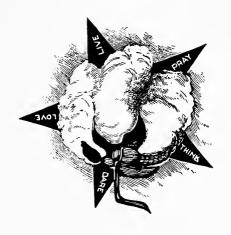

By Mrs. Thomas M. Brockman

With gallant stars a-glimmer
On a field of royal blue
As a guide and an inspiration,
Southern women, loyal and true,
Formed a circle wide as the heavens—
Made a vow as firm as the stars,
To build a shrine forever
Round their hallowed Stars and Bars.

From the heights of our lofty mountains With their proud heads lifted to God, To the shores of the moaning ocean Where dreams and visions have trod, They joined heart and hand together, They lifted their tributes in stone, And the brave gray line of their heroes Has never marched alone.

Then here's to the loyal women,
Of the State we love the best,
Who have kept alive through trying years
A page that will stand the test
Of all of history's searchlights,
Of all that the years set free—
The women who sealed the heart of the South
In the shrine of the U. D. C.

District No. 10-Mrs. H. M. London.

District No. 13-Mrs. R. Philip Holt.

District No. 14-Mrs. Charles Wallace.

Each Director responded by coming forward and presenting to Mrs. E. W. Burkheimer, Custodian of Flags, the flag of her District, telling briefly what her flag represented; this being a charming and colorful bit of pageantry introduced this year at the suggestion of Mrs. T. W. Wilson, President.

At the request of the President the following were introduced to the Convention: The Executive Board, General Officers, Former Presidents, Confederate Veterans, and other honored guests.

The Credentials Committee's report then was called for and was read by Mrs. J. Hicks Bunting, Chairman.

The report was accepted, subject to corrections.

Mrs. Wilson, the President, then expressed herself as "very happy indeed to have the pleasure of presenting to the Division, Mrs. T. E. Sprunt, daughter of the beloved founder and first President of the North Carolina Division, Mrs. W. M. Parsley." Mrs. Sprunt acknowledged with heartfelt appreciation the enthusiastic welcome accorded to her by the Convention.

Mrs. Peter A. Gorrell, Second Vice-President, was called to the chair and presided while the President, Mrs. Thos. W. Wilson, read her report.

Daughters of the North Carolina Division:

At Winston-Salem you again placed in my keeping the leadership of this Division, and now another year has passed; October, the harvest month of our U. D. C. year, is upon us and again we are assembled in Convention, bearing the sheaves which we have gleaned from the fields of opportunity—precious sheaves, records of your deeds from which let us hope may be gathered inspiration to press on to other harvest seasons.

Since the Daughters of the historic Cape Fear Chapter opened their homekeeping hearts to the Division and said, "Come, celebrate this silver anniversary with us," I have felt that this was done in the spirit of the beloved and honored Division Mother, whose Daughters of the Cape Fear have ever been loyal to their priceless heritage. And my prayer has been that, as we come together, the records of our deeds for this year and for this administration of 1920-1922 may be sifted of all that might be dross, that they may be as silvery sheaves upon this home-altar, the impress of which will for all time bear testimony to the worthiness and high ideals of the Daughters of North Carolina.

During the year we have been bereft of one of our honorary presidents, Mrs. William Dorsey Pender, whose death occurred on the anniversary of that of her distinguished husband, General Pender. The remains of both lie in the old Calvary Church-yard at Tarboro. Expressions of sympathy have been tendered to be reaved members as follows: Mrs. L. F. Long, our Division Treasurer, upon the death of her son and only child; General Julian S. Carr, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans, upon the death of his son, Julian Carr, Jr.; General Carr also was remembered during his long and serious illness; Mrs. Henry L. Riggins, hostess last year to this division in Convention assembled at Winston-Salem, bereft of her husband, Capt. Henry L. Riggins, who was an honorary member of this organization and for whom one of the scholarships maintained by this Division has been named.

The standard of this Division assures your President of many courtesies wherever she may go, and it was a privilege to represent you in General Convention at St. Louis last November, immediately following the State Convention at Winston-Salem. The inspiration gathered there has served as an impetus to renewed efforts for the work of this Division. At that time it was my pleasure to serve on two general committees, viz.: as a member of the Credentials Committee and as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions of Thanks.

Through a letter sent to chapters I gave you a detailed report of that Convention, but allow me to call attention to the high standard which as a Division we are to live up to. The beautiful Loving Cup before you was won for the greatest number of new members between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years. This is the second time this cup has been awarded to North Carolina. Your Historian would not have you forget that the beautiful medal for the best essay on the Confederate Navy was awarded to North Carolina, as was also the Peace Prize, and the beautifully bound book awarded to the Director of "Women of the South in War Also the three best prizes for the children's work, viz.: the Ricks Banner and the Bettie Marriott Whitehead and the Tempe Battle Marriott prizes. This year the list of prizes, both State and general, exceed in number and attractiveness any previous list, and I trust they have proved an incentive to even greater activity.

It was my pleasure to outline this year's work in calendar form and to present this to you with the hope of encouraging you to take up the work in a systematic way, endeavoring to complete some special object each month. The many demands upon the woman of today make system necessary to any work, and I have been gratified over expressions from various Chapters and Directors as to the helpfulness of this plan.

I wish that I might say to you all that is in my heart to say of the splendid cooperation of my Executive Board. They have joined me in a continuation of the policy of last year, and together we have endeavored to heed the admonitions of the seer of old who said: "Enlarge the place of thy tent and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations; spare not, lengthen thy cords and strengthen thy stakes." To this end I have upheld to you the policy of our President General, viz.: to organize Chapters composed of members from eighteen to twenty-five years of age.

One such Chapter is in formation but not yet quite completed, the Laura Little Chapter of Wadesboro.

The following Chapters have been organized and chartered: In the Seventh District, the Pee Dee Guards Chapter of Rockingham; Eleventh District, the Gus Floyd Chapter of Fairmont; Sixteenth District, the Albritton Sugg Chapter of Hookerton. Up to the present date I have signed this year 749 certificates for new members. This record, added to that of last year, gives a total of 9 new Chapters, 4 reinstated Chapters, and 1,613 new members added to the Division under this administration. I also signed, for the Children of the Confederacy, 727 certificates for new members this year, and 11 new Chapters have been organized and fully registered.

It is not my purpose to include an account of the work accomplished by the Officers, Directors and Chairmen, but among the various reports to be heard, I invite your special attention to that of your Registrar, your Director of children's work, and your Second Vice-President. Your Registrar has a wonderful report; one that will forever place this Division high on the records of State and General Registration, therefore making a more perfect organization. I have requested that in giving her report for this year your Registrar also will give totals for the two years of splendid service which she has given you. Keeping within the requirements of the general organization, your Director of children's work has perfected a system of bookkeeping which has placed the work on a firm foundation on which to build for years to come. The work of your Second Vice-President is heartly commended to you as a step forward in raising the standard of the educational work.

Early in May an Executive Board meeting was held in Greensboro, at which time the work was discussed and plans formulated which will be presented to you by your Secretary in the form of recommendations. I beg your careful consideration of all recommendations presented to you by the Executive Board, for they are the result of experience and thought offered in the interest of the advancement of the Division work.

Some of the most pleasant memories of my administration are connected with the District Meetings. They are inspirational and feed the life of the Division, just as the Division life feeds that of the General Organization. I can never praise too much the work of the District Directors; their close touch and splendid cooperation with the chapters and Division enable them to advance every cause. This year I attended several of these meetings, and regretted exceedingly that I could not attend every one held.

I was delighted to visit both the Confederate Homes again this year. At the Soldiers' Home the transformation wrought by the improvements was both striking and pleasing. The Veterans were warm in their praise of the care and attention they were receiving, and especially praised our U. D. C. Chairman. At the Woman's Home I had the pleasure of being a guest at luncheon in company with some other Daughters. We had a delightful time with the dear old ladies, who seem to enjoy their home and think of it as a real home. They were greatly interested in the prospect of furnishings for the two spacious sun parlors, which had just been completed. You will have full reports from these homes through the respective Chairmen.

The Chairman of our Text-Book Committee has worked along double lines this year, having the hearty cooperation of her own committee and that of the Rutherford History Committee, of which she is a member, and I commend to you her report and plan of work. In May I went to Raleigh, and in company with your Historian and several members of the Text-Book Committee, appeared before the State Board of Education and was gratified to hear Doctor Brooks announce the elimination of Muzzy's History from the State schools. I am sure Doctor Brooks has the sincere appreciation of every Daughter in the State for his coöperation, his interest, and his successful effort. At that meeting this Division went on record as declaring unabated and everlasting interest in the histories that are to be taught to the children of this State, and an appeal was made to the Board that only United States histories that are true and fair to all sections be selected. Daughters, this is one of the most important phases of our work; it is a work that requires watchfulness and patience—a work that will continue until American historians shall give justice to Southern history.

In the early spring I received a communication from General Smith, Commander of the N. C. Division, U. C. V., in which he sought the help of the Daughters of the State in the reorganization of Camps and in helping the Veterans on to Richmond—expenses paid, and where possible, the gray uniform supplied. I presented this to you by letter and discussed it at District and Chapter meetings; and, of course, you responded nobly, for whenever did Daughters of North Carolina fail our beloved Veterans of the 60's? Many were the Veterans who went to Richmond happier and more comfortable because of your care of them, your efforts in their behalf. Also, several Camps were reinstated, and General Smith has expressed himself as very much gratified over your ready response.

A few weeks ago some confusion was caused by the action of the Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., of Lexington, Va., in protesting the work for the enlarging and fireproofing the Lee Memorial Chapel. In an effort to correct this I sent out a Chapter letter calling attention to the fact that our work for this Memorial is official U. D. C. work and not to be interfered with by unofficial protests. I trust that your Director has a report to make that will prove North Carolina Daughters appreciate the privilege of having a part in this wonderful, this worthy Memorial. I trust that during this Convention our obligations to some of our general work for monument funds may be fully met and others greatly advanced. You will hear, through the Directors for these monuments, detailed reports.

In State Monument work we have endeavored to stress the Gettysburg and the Stars and Bars Memorial funds, and it is the hope of the Director and Chairman for these funds that you will at this Convention take action that will place these monuments on a basis that will assure the erection of both at no distant day.

The amount pledged to the General fund for Confederate Woman's relief, which was $100, has been paid. The President General tells us that unless the Divisions sell more copies of "The Women of the South in War Times," the prizes offered by the publisher can not be awarded. In this I trust that you will respond to the plea of your State Director, who also is the Chairman General for this book.

It is to be regretted that your Treasurer can not be present at this Convention, but you will hear her report and will realize what faithful and efficient three years' service she has rendered.

I am glad that among the worthy objects of our organization we find the word "social"—to cherish the ties of friendship among our members and to interpret it in another sense, that of extending friendship to other organizations. Last November it was my pleasure to again extend greetings for you to the State Convention, Daughters of the American Revolution, this time assembled in Convention in my home town, where I had the pleasure as your President of being an honor guest of my own Chapter, D. A. R. On Lee-Jackson Day it was my privilege to address the Veterans of my own county. On May 10 I attended the Memorial exercises at home and assisted the Veterans of the county in the reorganization of their Camp. At the State Federation of Women's Clubs I represented you for one evening.

During the year I have had many invitations from both Districts and chapters. While it was impossible to accept all, I did accept as many as I could, and placed the work and its needs before the Daughters to the best of my ability. And at such times I have been the recipient of honors expressed in receptions, teas, luncheons, beautiful flowers, and the warm and delightful hospitality of many homes. In June I attended the General Reunion of the Confederate Veterans in Richmond, where I was shown every honor due your President. I served on the staff of the State Commander, Gen. William A. Smith, and also as Matron of Honor to the Second Brigade, commanded by General Alston. I felt you were signally honored in that your President carried the Veterans' Division flag for General Smith. And also as your President I was an honor guest at some beautiful dinner parties. While in Richmond I was glad to attend the laying of the corner-stone of the Maury Monument, and to visit the Confederate Museum and the Battle Abbey. For the State Reunion recently held in Asheville, I was appointed by General Alston as Matron of Honor to the Second Brigade, a courtesy which I am pleased to acknowledge. The date of that Reunion came so near this Convention that I found it impossible to attend except for the banquet given the Veterans on Tuesday evening at Battery Park, at which time I represented you in a toast to our Veterans.

During the year appeals have come to me which deserve consideration, but to which we are not obligated as a Division. Among these I commend to you the World War Veterans at Oteen and the Near East Relief.

My two years of service as your President will cease with the closing of the Birmingham Convention, November 18. Since first your mantle of leadership fell upon me I have worn it as a sacred trust, consecrated to the high ideals of our organization. Always I have realized that in maintaining the standard of this Division there must be no standing still—to stand still is to falter—but that always we must press on through the years to our ultimate goal.

And so I have consecrated my time and my thought to the best interest of the Division as I have seen it. And now I do not mind telling you that I have dreamed dreams and had my heart set on their fulfillment. With the Registrar I saw a complete registration of every old member both in General and in State, filed in loose-leaf binders. I went further, and visioned such a registration for every chapter. With the Director of C. of C. I saw a Children's Chapter for every Mother Chapter and these with complete registration and certificates. With your Second Vice-President I caught a glimpse of a better basis for our Educational work, including the completion of the Hero Fund. With the Text-Book Chairman I could see a sentiment created in favor of better histories from which to teach our children, and with our Historian there was a great ingathering of precious memories with which to enrich our Historic Halls. I visioned better things for our Confederate Homes and those outside the Homes. And, too, I saw a beautiful Stars and Bars Memorial keeping watch at Louisburg, and far on the way a Monument rising higher and higher at Gettysburg.

Because of your coöperation, your loyalty and zeal, some of these things have come true; others are not quite completed; but, Daughters, I have faith in you—faith in the love which everywhere binds the hearts of the loyal U. D. C.—faith in your courage to do and dare, and I look with confidence to the fulfillment of these dreams.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOS. W. WILSON, President N. C. Div., U. D. C.

Upon conclusion of this splendid report, the Convention rose and extended to Mrs. Wilson a hearty vote of thanks for the noble and splendid work she has done for the Division. Mrs. Wilson then exhibited to the Convention the Alexander Allen Faris Loving Cup won by the Division for the greatest number of new members between the ages of 18 and 25 years. This has been won by the N. C. Division twice out of the three years it has been offered. Mrs. Wilson urged the Chapters to use their very best endeavor and to report all new members before the Birmingham Convention, as determined effort may hold this Loving Cup in North Carolina another year. Mrs. F. M. Williams also asked that the Division do all possible to keep this Cup in North Carolina.

The Recording Secretary's report was called for, which report was read and accepted.

RECORDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The report of the Recording Secretary must include work done by my predecessor, Mrs. John H. Anderson. She arranged and had printed and distributed the Minutes of the Winston-Salem Convention, as provided for in the Constitution. A list of Chapter officers of the Division was sent to the Secretary General for the General Minutes. Three new Chapters have been chartered and eleven Children's Chapters registered. I have attended and kept the Minutes of two Executive Board meetings.

Respectfully submitted.

MARY HENDERSON, Rec. Sec. N. C. Div., U. D. C.

The Corresponding Secretary read her report, which was accepted with thanks.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

In coming to you again with a report I want first to express my sincere appreciation of the coöperation and hearty response I have had from the Chapters throughout the State during the past year, and want to express my sincere thanks to one and all. It has been a great pleasure to aid in a small way in so great a work as that of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and may we ever carry forward this grand and noble work.

Since October, 1921, I have written 564 letters; 174 post cards and 7 telegrams.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. D. M. Jones, Cor. Sec. N. C. Div., U. D. C.

Mrs. Bell, the Registrar, read her report. Mrs. F. M. Williams, Registrar General, stated that North Carolina has done well in her registration and commended Mrs. Bell's excellent work, but also urged that the work be pushed forward until we attain the 100 per cent registration.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

I bring to you this year, not the report that I had hoped so earnestly to bring, but, after all, one that reflects credit upon the Division. While we have not registered as many new members nor organized as many new chapters this year as last, still, we have just cause to be proud of our work in the registration of both new and old members. There have been in all 776 registries. Six hundred and eighty-three were new members added by application, 8 came by demit from other States, 43 were transfers from one Chapter to another, and 42 were old members registered on Chapter Roll but not in the State. Thirty-three certificates of membership have been secured for old members that never had received one. Three new Chapters have been organized. The Pee Dee Guards of Rockingham, the Gus Floyd of Fairmont, and the Albritton Sugg of Hookerton.

But the work which has held first place in the heart of your Division Registrar has been the re-registration of old members. If you recall my report of last year, I expressed the belief that before this Convention every active Chapter in the Division would be re-registered. I have worked long and late to bring to a fulfillment that prophecy. If you note carefully this report you will see that I have not entirely failed. I bring to you today 64 Chapters perfectly re-registered in the triple applications ready for the loose-leaf binders, making a total of 5,654 re-registered members. Twelve Chapters have not sent in all members re-registeredonly the active living members. Eight have sent in some records, but not all. Thirteen Chapters have never responded to any call nor sent any report of their work in the two years that I have been Registrar, so they can not be considered active—at least very much so. You will see that leaves about 20 active Chapters that have not re-registered. Some of these have caught the vision and are even now working on their records, and I feel sure that at the next Convention your new Registrar will present to you the realization of my dream—a perfectly re-registered Division. The Stonewall Jackson Chapter, Charlotte, wins the prize for the greatest number of new members, having gained 63; while Green County Chapter, Snow Hill, with 100 per cent increase, claims the prize for greatest percentage of increase.

It is impossible to give an accurate statement of the number of members, as some Chapters failed to report. Below is a statement, as nearly correct as it is possible to secure, showing a total membership of 6,625:

And now, as the time draws near to place into another's keeping this sacred charge, I wish to thank you one and all for the confidence bestowed upon me, and to assure you that it has been a pleasure to serve you in my small way. The many kind words and expressions of loyalty from you, dear Daughters, always will linger with me and make life sweeter for having known and served you and the Confederacy of our own Southland.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. L. F. Long,

Division Treasurer.

This report was accepted with a rising vote of thanks, and Mrs. F. M. Williams spoke feelingly of Mrs. Long's unceasing work for the Division, accomplished under the burden of sorrow and illness. On motion of Mrs. T. E. Fisher, the Corresponding Secretary was instructed to write to Mrs. Long a letter expressing the Division's regret at her absence and assuring her of its warm love and sympathy.

In this connection Mrs. J. A. Yarborough moved that a wreath from the North Carolina Division be placed upon the grave of Cyril Long, son of Mrs. L. F. Long, immediately after Memorial Hour, as he is buried in Wilmington. This motion was carried by a rising vote.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that, in view of the fact that the Treasurer was not present in Convention, the President be empowered to instruct her to send to the new Treasurer, immediately upon her election, moneys for taxes and other purposes. The motion was carried.

The report of the Auditing Committee was read and accepted.

AUDITING COMMITTEE'S REPORT

We, your Committee on Auditing the Treasurer's Books of the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy, beg to submit the following:

We examined the records of the receipts and disbursements for the year ending September 15, and found them correct.

We reconciled the bank's and the Treasurer's balances and found them to agree.

We verified all cash transactions, tracing the receipts into the bank and verifying all disbursements with cancelled vouchers.

We also attach an affidavit made by Charles D. Long, an auditor.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS BONNIE E. MAUNEY,
MISS LOWRY SHUFORD,
MRS. W. A. RIDENHOUR, Committee.

NEWTON, N. C., Oct. 2, 1922.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have checked the total receipts and disbursements of the North Carolina Division, U. D. C., as shown by the Treasurer's records, and find the total balance to agree with the bank balance, September 20, 1922.

Yours very truly,

CHARLES D. LONG.

Mrs. Peter A. Gorrell, Second Vice-President and Chairman of the Educational Committee, read her report, which was a very interesting one, and is as follows:

EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters N. C. Division:

Another year has passed and the Educational work of the N. C. Division of U. D. C. has taken another step forward. The work stressed last year was putting the Educational work on a business basis. We trust the efforts of the two years have not been in vain, and that we have laid our business foundation firm and strong and that as the years go by this foundation holds fast. All records for two years' work have been recorded, applications for scholarships filed, and everything pertaining to Educational work recorded and bound in a leather binder with ample room for the work for the next several terms to be entered. This will aid the incoming Educational Commander to go forward with the work and not lose time hunting up past records, etc.

The good news that the Hero Fund has been met and more than the amount paid will bring joy to your hearts. Educational work certainly has made headway in connection with public schools. Several Chapters report good work along this line, members of Chapters going to schools making talks on Southern Heroes. One member of the Educational Committee has visited N. C. C. W. at Greensboro twice and had most interesting talks with the girls holding State scholarships.

At the Executive Meeting held at Greensboro in the Spring it was decided to have holders of scholarships write a memoir of the person whose scholarship they are using and turn it in to the Educational Committee. It also was decided to have the essays on Jefferson Davis sent to the Chairman of Education, and have the Educational Committee award the scholarship—value, $200.00.

Another creditable advance is the placing of N. C. Confederate flags in many of the schools. Another Chapter reports attendance at business meetings has increased 50 per cent this year, due largely to the interest in Educational programs. We have the honor, as a Division, of having placed a copy of "The Women of the South in War Times" in every college in the State. In other words, have placed 46 copies in colleges, for several have been sent from the Division to some of the northern colleges.

A gratifying report comes from Brevard-Transylvania Chapter, and we give it, hoping it will prove a stimulus to inactive Chapters. Three scholarships, value $81.00; number of books given to library, 275 (value, $200.00); librarian's salary, $220.00; improvements on library and interest, $52.50.

Following is detail data of the Educational work:

Six scholarships at N. C. C. W. at Greensboro; value, $130.00 each.

- 1. Mrs. William Parsley Scholarship, awarded to Nell Craig, Gastonia, N. C.
- 2. Ella B. Broadnax Scholarship, awarded to Lorena Kelly, Mooresville, N. C.
 - 3. Orrin Randolph Smith Scholarship, awarded to Lila D. Jordan, Hendersonville, N. C.
- 4. H. L. Riggins Scholarship, awarded to Louise Tate, Wilkesboro, N. C.
 - 5. Zebulon B. Vance Scholarship, awarded to Margaret Bridgers, Tarboro, N. C.
 - 6. James J. Metts Scholarship, awarded to Ruth C. Robertson, Leaksville. N. C.

Moffit Loan Scholarship, value $90.00, awarded to Olive Webb, Oxford, N. C.

A. & E. Scholarship, value $45.00, awarded to J. W. Lewis, Raleigh, N. C.

Trinity College Scholarship, value $60.00, awarded to Wade H. Beck, Durham, N. C.

Jefferson Davis Scholarship at Chapel Hill, value $200.00, awarded to Newton Cox, Graham, N. C.

Flags placed in schools, 10.

Pictures placed in schools, 9.

Books placed in libraries, 574.

Medals, 2.

Chapter Scholarships, value, $156.00.

Prizes 9, value, $5.00; $5.00; $21.00; $10.00; $8.00; $2.50; $12.50; $12.50; $25.00. Total $101.50.

Subscriptions to the Veterans, 39.

May we compare the N. C. Division of U. D. C. to a beautiful sea in whose waters are reflected the glory of those beloved soldiers who fought, bled, and died for the cause they loved, and may we compare the Educational work as a great boat resting on these waters with 111 Chapters holding the oars which will row the boat to success and honor? May we beg those 111 Chapters in the coming year to bend with redoubled energy and enthusiasm and to push and strive with all their strength?—and then we know 1922-1923 will be a glorious year indeed.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Peter A. Gorrell, Chairman, Mrs. L. W. Wilson, Mrs. O. Max Gardner. In the absence of Mrs. J. T. Hollister, Third Vice-President and Publicity Chairman, her report was read by the Recording Secretary, and it was moved and carried that this report be accepted.

THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

As Third Vice-President, and Publicity Chairman, I have done very little. As such I tried to follow instructions as to establishing a bi-monthly U. D. C. column by sending typewritten articles to the three leading State papers, the Raleigh News and Observer, the Charlotte Observer, and the Greensboro News, but owing to prolonged illness in the family I did not send them regularly, nor was I successful in getting them published when sent. I also tried to interest District Leaders in sending me important movements and activities in their Chapters. I would like not only to recommend but to urge that each Chapter elect or appoint a Publicity Chairman and have her send matter to State Chairmen, thereby avoiding repetition, as the papers cannot publish it twice.

I have sent several typewritten letters to The Veteran, District Directors, the Soldiers' Home, and the Confederate Women's Home for their Christmas news and cheer; stressed the Matthew Fontaine Maury Memorial in January, and was much gratified with a splendid "Maury" meeting and collection, locally. Also, Jefferson Davis Monument fund, Gettysburg, in April, and the Lee Memorial.

The prize of $5.00 in gold offered to the District making the greatest gain in new subscribers to $The\ Veteran$ during the year ending October, 1922, was continued.

I trust some little good has been done, and to those who helped me by sending activities and information I wish to express my thanks and appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Jack Hollister,

Third Vice-President.

Mrs. Fisher of Asheville moved that the Third Vice-President, in her capacity as Publicity Chairman, send monthly or semi-monthly stories, at her discretion, giving U. D. C. news, to the Asheville Citizen, the Charlotte Observer, Greensboro Daily News, Winston-Salem Journal, Raleigh News and Observer, and Wilmington Star. This motion was carried.

Mrs. John L. Bridgers, Historian, presented her report, which was accepted with thanks.

Madam President and Daughters:

Our year's work in the Historical Department has been quite satisfactory. From historic Cape Fear and Newbern to the mountain fastnesses of old Haywood, from Gastonia on our sister Carolina's border to the Roanoke Minute Men at Virginia's line; from Jeb. Stuart and Bethel Heroes, Johnson Pettigrew and "Stonewall" Jackson, have come such splendid reports that I feel justified in recounting them by name.

The Division, as a whole, has responded nobly, and there is a wholesome tone to this feature of our work which is encouraging

The outstanding effort of the year is the work of the Historian of the Cape Fear Chapter, two splendid pageants, by our talented Mrs. Burkheimer. These will bring renown to our Division.

A most important work has been the elimination of Muzzy's History from our schools, which, in connection with the Text-Book Committee, we have been able to accomplish.

We have received quite a number of historic papers, contesting for the valuable prizes, of which your Historian is justly proud. I only wish I could present to each Daughter who sent in these well-written sketches the prize she so richly deserves. We sent on to our Historian General five fine papers to contest for the general prizes. You will remember that our Division won seven of the prizes offered by the Historian General last year, one of which was the Hundred Dollar Peace Prize, given by Mr. John Brown of Nashville, Tenn., in memory of his mother. This prize was won by our neighboring Chapter of Burgaw.

The unsolicited honor which you conferred upon me two years ago has been a joy. I consider it the highest honor you could confer upon me, and I frankly say that I retire with regret. I shall miss the pleasant intercourse with the noble women of our Division. Meeting them on "paper" has been most enjoyable. In making this my valedictory, I thank you.

Trusting that this will meet with the approval of your honorable body, I am,

Most sincerely,

Mrs. John L. Bridgers, State Historian.

In speaking to her report, Mrs. Bridgers deplored the frequent use of "Civil War" for "War Between the States," and deprecated the term "Lost Cause." Mrs. Marshall Williams presented a motion asking that the newspapers be requested to help through their columns to correct this mistake, which motion was carried.

Mrs. H. M. London, Recorder of Crosses, gave her report, which was accepted.

RECORDER OF CROSSES' REPORT

Respectfully submitted,

MRS H. M. LONDON, Recorder of Crosses.

Following the reading of her report, Mrs. London requested the privilege of presenting "a Daughter who has spent her life in keeping history straight," and introduced Miss Katie McKimmon of Raleigh, who was received with applause.

The President then called for the reports of the Executive Board meetings. The report of the Spring meeting held in Greensboro was read, and on motion the recommendations were voted on ad seriatim, and the report was accepted as read.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

The Executive Board of the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met in Greensboro at the O. Henry Hotel, May 2, 1922. The Board was delightfully entertained at luncheon by our gracious President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, and met in executive session immediately thereafter, Mrs Wilson presiding.

Mrs. Wilson opened the meeting with a brief resumé of the affairs of the Division from October to May. As no invitation for . Convention had been received, in accordance with action of the 1921 Convention it was moved and carried that the President be empowered to accept with thanks an invitation under the self-entertaining plan for the Convention of 1922, received from the Cape Fear Chapter of Wilmington.

Mrs. E. W. Burkheimer's Confederate Pageant was heartily endorsed.

Mrs. Gorrell was appointed to select a suitable present to be sent to Miss Alice Baxter, First Vice-President General, as a token of appreciation from the North Carolina Division, of her delightful address made at the Winston-Salem Convention, and for her generosity in making the long trip at her own expense.

Resolutions urging the importance of correct and truthful histories and the elimination of unfair and misleading histories were introduced and endorsed, and Mrs. T. W. Wilson was requested to present them in person to the State Text-Book Committee on May 3. A full discussion of the problems of the educational Chairman followed. The following recommendations were presented and adopted:

"I. That, hereafter, the six scholarships at the North Carolina College for Women be fixed at approximately $130.00 annually, as $75.00 per annum no longer covers half expenses of a student at this college.

"II. That holders of scholarships at the North Carolina State College for Women shall write and submit to the Educational Committee an essay on the person for whom the scholarship is named; rules for essay to be formulated by Committee on Education.

"III. That Jefferson Davis Scholarship shall be in charge of the Educational Committee, and the holder of this scholarship shall submit grades at end of each College semester to Chairman of the Educational Committee.

"IV. That Jefferson Davis Scholarship shall carry $200.00 annually.

"V. That each Chapter be requested to contribute at least 25 cents per capita to the Educational Fund each year.

"VI. That the action of the Twenty-fifth Annual Convention, that the Division 'go back to the old way of entertaining' (page 88, Twenty-fifth Annual Minutes), be rescinded.

"VII. That hereafter the Division Convention shall be on the independent or self-entertaining plan."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY HENDERSON, Recording Secretary.

The adoption of Recommendation No. 7 brought up for discussion the best policy to be adopted in the future should the Division receive no invitation for Convention. In view of Winston-Salem's gracious and cordial invitation that the Division adopt the Robert E. Lee Hotel as permanent headquarters, Mrs. F. M. Williams made a motion that the Robert E. Lee Hotel be accepted as the Western Home and a town in the eastern part of the State be selected for an Eastern Home, meetings to be held in such of these towns as the President shall select when the Division receives no invitation for Convention. This motion was seconded and much discussion followed. Mrs. Josephus Daniels offered an amendment to the motion of Mrs. Williams providing that a committee be appointed to receive suggestions regarding the permanent headquarters, this committee to report to Convention. Mrs. Williams accepted Mrs. Daniels' amendment, and upon vote of the Convention the amended motion carried.

The report of the Program Committee was presented by Mrs. Huggins and was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

The meeting adjourned for recess at 1:15 p. m., to convene immediately following luncheon.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was called to order by the President at 2 o'clock, after a luncheon given for the Convention by the Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans.

At the request of the President, the Rules and Regulations of the Convention were read by the Recording Secretary.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that the Lee Memorial Chapel at Lexington be made the special order of business Friday at 10 o'clock A. M. The motion was carried.

The recommendations adopted by the Executive Board at its meeting October 10 were next taken up.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE'S REPORT NO. II

The Executive Board of the North Carolina Division U. D. C. met at the home of Mrs. T. E. Sprunt on Tuesday afternoon, October 10. After an unusually delightful luncheon tendered the Board by Mrs. T. E. Sprunt, Mrs. W. M. Peck and Mrs. T. L. Speiden, the meeting was opened for business.

The following recommendations were presented and adopted:

"I. That all Chapter Registrars be required, when sending in reports, to give State numbers of members and that names be given in the order in which they are registered, instead of alphabetically.

"II. That the Division Registrar be empowered to re-register, at the expense of the Division, Chapters that have ceased to function.

"III. That the Division purchase steel filing-cases for Historian, Registrar, Director of Children's Chapters, to whose care valuable records are committed.

"IV. That balance remaining from the Hero Fund be placed to credit of the State Educational Fund.

"V. That, as Chapter Treasurers take office immediately after the Division Convention, it is suggested that the Books of Treasurers shall close on Sept. 15, thus corresponding with books of State Treasurer."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY HENDERSON, Recording Secretary. Recommendations Nos. 1 and 2 were adopted. Recommendation No. 3 was amended to read "Historian, Registrar, and Director of Children's Chapters" instead of "all officers." This amendment was accepted. Recommendation No. 4 was read and accepted. Recommendation No. 5 was read, but was ordered to be incorporated in the report as a suggestion only.

The Corresponding Secretary read telegrams of greetings from Mrs. Sidney P. Cooper, Miss Jessica Smith, Mrs. Jacksie D. Thrash Morrison and Mrs. Henry A. London.

Mrs. T. E. Sprunt moved that a telegram be sent Mrs. H. A. London, regretting her absence on account of illness and greeting her as a Mother of this Convention, as she is, in point of service, one of the oldest and most devoted members of the North Carolina Division. It was so ordered.

Mrs. R. P. Holt moved that the Division send flowers to Mrs. T. L. Speiden, President of the Cape Fear Chapter, who is now in hospital very ill. This was carried by a rising vote.

Mrs. Charles S. Wallace, Director of Children's Chapters, read her report, which was very interesting. Upon motion of Mrs. John Anderson, this report was accepted by a rising vote of thanks.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHILDREN'S WORK

Madam President and Daughters:

This brings us to the close of my first year's service as Director of the Children of the Confederacy. The rapidity with which time passes makes it very necessary for us to do quickly what we undertake. Realizing this in the beginning, I determined to leave nothing undone, that I could do, that would in any way help the cause. It gives me great pleasure to report the work in fine condition. We have not accomplished during the year all that we hoped and planned for, but we have made substantial progress, and the prospects for further advancement are indeed hopeful. We, therefore, are greatly encouraged, and shall make every effort possible during the coming year to develop the work along all lines.

We have organized, registered and re-registered during my administration the following Chapters:

"Stonewall" Jackson	. Burlington
George Davis	Wilmington
Confederate Heroes	Faison
Sylva Chapter	Sylva
John Alexander Fleming	Marion
Capt. Swift Galloway	. Snow Hill
W. T. Everett	Rockingham
Col. B. Y. Graves	. Mount Airy
Annie Johns	. Leaksville
Bessie Simonton	. Kings Mountain
Annie Dillard Hall	. Reidsville
James A. Western	.Hickory
Eleven members demitted from the Dixie
Grays	.Hickory

The following Chapters have been organized, but not yet registered: Raeford, Elizabeth City, Wentworth, Windsor, and Warrenton. I have sent out this year 4,069 application blanks.

We have registered during the year 727 new members and issued 75 duplicate certificates. The total State enrollment now is 2,374, all of which are properly registered. Five hundred and forty-five still hold the old State certificates, while 1,829 have certificates issued by the General Division.

There have been placed in schools and libraries 15 pictures of Robert E. Lee, 100 copies of "Wrongs of History Righted," 500 copies of "Lincoln as the South Should Know Him," and 114 copies of "Truths of History," "Women of the South in War Times," and The Confederate Veteran. Twenty-eight Chapter prizes were offered and competed for, and may historical papers were collected.

At the State Convention in Winston-Salem it was ordered that water connections with the city water system of Fayetteville be made with the Women's Home and that the expense of same be made the special object for the children to work for during the year. Early in December I presented this matter to all the Chapters; later in the year I again called their attention to it, and urged that this expense be met, even suggesting to them the minimum amount per capita necessary to meet it. Acting upon the assurance that the necessary amount would be raised, the Trustees of the Home, proceeded to have the connections made. The cost of the work complete is $650.00, and up to this time only $267.00 has been paid into the Treasury. Many of the Chapters have made no response to the call. Certainly some action should be taken by this Convention to meet the balance of this obligation and relieve us from an embarrassing situation.

The total receipts in actual cash have been $2,585.31. In addition to this amount there have been contributions to the Homes, the Veterans, and the sick and dependents, of clothing, confectionery, etc., amounting to several hundred dollars in value.

I wish to urge upon every Chapter of the U. D. C. that has not already a Chapter of Children of the Confederacy, the importance of this work and to earnestly request that they plan at once, and as soon as possible organize a Children's Chapter, and to please see that every member is provided with certificates from the General Division, to the end that the young people who will soon take our places may "keep the fires burning" in the cause we hold so dear.

I have had made, and with the approval of our President at the expense of the Division, permanent roll-books for both State and Chapter rolls, which will be valuable to the work during the years to come. Every member is now enrolled, and all applications are properly indexed and filed by Chapters, as required by the Constitution.

We could not have made the record we have without the splendid coöperation of the U. D. C. workers. I believe there are still greater things in store for us, if we continue this spirit; we are all interested, therefore we can assuredly expect a continuance, and during the year let each of us have as our GOAL the enrollment of every child of the Confederacy within the borders of this grand old State. For every response to my calls, and for every kind expression of confidence, I wish to express my deepest appreciation and sincere thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Chas. S. Wallace,
Director of Children's Work.

Mrs. E. F. Reid, Division Chaplain, made no typewritten report, but spoke a few words to the Convention, which were enjoyed.

In the absence of Mrs. Frank L. Wilson, Chairman of the Text-Book Committee, the report of that Committee was read by the Secretary, and upon motion of Mrs. C. E. Platt, the report was adopted.

REPORT OF TEXT-BOOK COMMITTEE

Madam President and United Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is a happy privilege to give you a report of the past year's work of your Text-Book Committee.

At the end of two years' service we can report that only "True to the South" histories are recommended by the North Carolina State Text-Book Commission in their recent book adoptions for the next five years' use in our public schools. We feel safe in saying that our organization has, at this time, the sympathy and interest of the State Board of Education. Special thanks should be rendered Dr. E. C. Brooks, State Superintendent of Education, for cancelling a two-years' contract for Muzzy's History. This was done after our letters of appeal, and the personal protest of a committee composed of our President, Mrs. Thos. W. Wilson; our Historian, Mrs. J. L. Bridgers, Miss S. W. Ashe, and Mrs. Henry M. London.

The Chairman of this Committee, being unable to attend this meeting in person, had requested a complete review and criticism of the book to be made by Gen. Irvine Walker, Chairman of the Rutherford Committee of History; also, notations and criticisms by Miss Bonnie Mauney, protests by Mrs. A. A. Campbell, Historian General, by Miss Mildred Rutherford, and by Mrs. Walter Crowell, of our Committee. These were sent to the State Text-Book Commission, previous to their final meeting, and Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, acting for the Chairman of the Committee, presented the appeal for the State Division.

The Text-Book Committees of the Concord and Raleigh Chapters are to be especially commended for the successful elimination last winter of this objectionable book from their schools. Other Chapters, where the book is still used this year, would do well to follow their example, as it still is in use in some of our High Schools until the present year expires.

Capt. S. A. Ashe of Raleigh has given much good advice and encouragement in our work, and deserves our thanks.

The work has been a pleasure, in that our original aims have been accomplished, namely, the elimination from our public school system the use of histories unfair to the South, and a growing sentiment over our State of the love of truth and justice in our text-books—honor and loyalty to the heroes of the Confederacy.

May I recommend to the Daughters that a Text-Book Committee be appointed by each Chapter President, whose duty it will be to read the histories taught in their schools, to visit their schools and, at intervals through the year, to prepare and deliver before the school children, interesting talks on historical and patriotic subjects, dealing especially with the history of the Confederate States of America. Keep a friendly interest in the schools, the teachers and the pupils, thus creating a greater love for the cause we represent.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Frank L. Wilson,

Chairman.

Mrs. H. M. London moved that the Division send a note of thanks to Captain Ashe for his valuable assistance to the Text-Book Committee. This motion was carried.

Mrs. Hunter Smith gave her report on the Woman's Home, which was accepted by a rising vote of thanks.

REPORT OF CONFEDERATE WOMAN'S HOME, FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Madam President and Daughters:

Again, it is my pleasure to bring to you my annual report as State Chairman of The Confederate Woman's Home.

This year has been no exception to your loyalty and generosity, for the nice boxes have been numerous and bountiful, and so much appreciated ond enjoyed.

Am very glad to report the addition of two sun-parlors, one adjoining the Infirmary, and one on the second floor. They have not been furnished. The grounds have been much improved, and now that the street cars to Fort Bragg pass the Home, we feel additional pride in making the surroundings more attractive. The cars will add greatly to the convenience of friends who wish to visit the Home.

Another great-felt need has been supplied by the Board—a Ford Touring Car, which our new Superintendent, Mrs. Norman Williams, is able to drive, and is ready and willing to bring the ladies into the city and to church services, when they are able.

We feel very fortunate in having Mrs. Williams as our Superintendent. She is a Christian lady, kind and considerate at all times of the wishes of the old ladies.

The Reaper has dealt heavily with our aged family since our last Convention. Six have gone to the Great Beyond: Miss Holland and Miss Brown and Mesdames Covington, White, Eliza McDonald, and Winbourn.

The visits from the Chapters of nearby towns, with remembrances and with arranged program, brought a great deal of joy and gladness to the "shut-ins." I recall delightful visits and generous donations from the following Chapters: Dunn, Laurinburg, Clinton, Rockingham, and Fayetteville.

Our State President honored the Home with a visit, which was much appreciated by the ladies.

We are really in need of some additional room downstairs. We have more on the waiting list, eager for admittance, than ever before in the history of the Home. The only vacancies we now have are made by death, as all the rooms are filled. We dislike to keep those waiting who are in need of a place of refuge. We have in the Home at present, including all the ladies and the help, 32 persons.

Have saved the best for the last. Am delighted to tell you that the city water line has been connected with the Home, at a cost of $650. Previous to this, our dependence was a windmill. A motion was made at our last Convention that the extension of the water to the Home be taken up by the Children's Chapters, and I know every child in the State who has had a part in this work must feel happy to think they have not only given a cup of water in His name, but bathtubs full, also. Mrs. Wallace, Director of the Children's Chapters, will give you the amount they in raised.

Mrs. Fisher, Assistant Chairman from the West, and Mrs. Mary Battle, Assistant Chairman from the East, have been zealous in their good work for the Home, and we have felt the fruits of their labor.

Again I wish to assure you of our deep appreciation of your loyalty and support, for which every old lady wishes she could thank you in person.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HUNTER G. SMITH,
Chairman.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. F. Long, Treasurer, N. C. Div.

The Convention adjourned at 3:15 o'clock to go for a drive to Fort Fisher, by the courtesy of the American Legion.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION

The second day of the Convention was called to order by the President at 9:30 o'clock, after which Dr. John Jeter Hurt, paster of the First Baptist Church of Wilmington, pronounced the invocation. This was followed by a very beautiful reading, "His Last Song," given by Miss Marie Drill.

The Minutes of the previous day were read by the Secretary, and were accepted with corrections. The roll was called and Rules and Regulations were read.

Mrs. Wilson then appointed the following committees:

Courtesy Committee: Mrs. H. M. London, Mrs. Rufus Gwyn, Mrs. C. F. Harvey, Mrs. R. C. Warren, Mrs. J. O. Yarborough, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Miss Nannie Gary, Mrs. John S. Watters.

Permanent Headquarters Committee: Mrs. F. M. Williams, Mrs. P. A. Gorrell, Mrs. H. M. London, Mrs. L. E. Fisher, Mrs. T. A. Uzzell.

Special Stars and Bars Committee: Mrs. R. E. Little, Mrs. E. L. McKee, Miss Martha Haywood.

The Convention at this time heard greetings from the following: Mrs. T. W. Bickett, Mrs. W. A. Hines, Mrs. Roswell Bridger, Mrs. Frank Harold, President of the Georgia Division; Mrs. E. L. Huey, President of the Alabama Division, and Mr. Henry Wilson. Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that a telegram of greetings be sent to the Virginia Division, U. D. C., which is also in session at this time. It was so ordered.

Miss Martha Haywood, Chairman, read the report of the Soldiers' Home Committee, which was accepted. Miss Haywood also read a most interesting letter from Superintendent Wiggs of the Soldiers' Home, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. This letter was received as information, not to be printed in the Minutes. Mrs. R. E. Little and Mrs. T. W. Wilson warmly complimented Mr. Wiggs' success in filling this difficult position.

REPORT OF SOLDIERS' HOME COMMITTEE

I am happy to report to you a most encouraging, widespread, and active interest in the welfare of the Soldiers' Home from all concerned in its present guidance: the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Board of Directors, the Veterans at the Home, the Superintendent, the Matron, the nurses, and the doctors. Since the beginning of the New Year, this interest has grown healthily on the inspiring food of the added appropriation for maintenance and improvement.

A most practical and sustaining demonstration of this interest came to us at Christmas through the generous contributions of fruits and sweets sent in by the Chapters throughout the State, and the zeal and untiring work of the Daughters in our midst. beautiful trees made the night a happy one for every Veteran on the place. The generous and stately tree in the Chapel, with its abundant gifts of candy, tobacco, handkerchiefs and presents, we owe to the Girls' Friendly Society of the Church of the Good Shepherd. For two years now this organization has brought a new and much appreciated light into the lives of the Veterans. For the beautiful and bountiful tree in the Hospital, we were indebted to the cooperation of the nurses, members of Manly's Battery, and the Chairman of the Purchasing Committee. of sweets, raisins, apples, oranges, graphophone records, quilts, rugs, cigars, marbles and chairs were provided at this time by the following Chapters: Neuse, Bell's Battery, Frank Parker, J. E. B. Stuart, Onslow Guards, John W. Dunham, Junius Daniel, Spring Hope, Nash, Trenton, Zeb. Vance and Boys' Chapter. The 110 comrades in the Home were amply provided during the holiday season with comforts and good cheer.

Owing to increasing years, the Hospital averages from day to day about one-third of the total members of the Veterans who live at the Home. Some are in serious stages of infirmity and disease, some are feeble-minded, almost helpless, or sightless and requiring infinite patience, tact and tenderness; but our most efficient nurse and her two assistants conduct the hospital well. Neither the nurses nor the attendant physician can be too highly commended; and the fact that, notwithstanding the increasing age of its patients, the death rate of the Hospital has decreased since 1920, speaks finally for the efficiency of those in its charge. Throughout this year a great deal of pleasure has been added to the lives of those in its wards, through the weekly visits of the Visiting Committee of the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter, organized by Mrs. Rowland, supplemented by those of Manly's Battery. These visitors bring fruit, flowers, and magazines, and, above all, the sight of new and happy faces. The psychological effect of this innovation cannot be overestimated. With the rest of the Home, the Hospital came in for its share of the 7,723 pounds of hogmeat that was raised, killed and cured on the place.

Senator Overman and Representative Pou sent again this year a most liberal supply of flower seed; and thanks to the industry and love of beauty of Comrades Beavers, the Home grounds and the wards of the Hospital have been beautiful with flowers.

I have appended to this report a letter from the Superintendent, from which I quote in brief for your better understanding of affairs at the Home.

The interest of the various Chapters throughout the Division has been constantly manifested by applications for blanks for admittance to the Home, and at least eight or nine Veterans have found comfort at the Home through the direct offices of the Daughters of their home counties. Interest in the furnishing and maintenance of the Chapter Rooms has spread with the months, and gifts of chairs and rugs and bed linen have been added to different rooms on request of their occupants; and by degrees the cottages, as well as the dormitory rooms, are coming under direct charge of the different Chapters.

In the cottages, the Chalmers-Glenn, Fannie Patton, and R. F. Hoke have furnished their rooms. The Alfred Waddell, Bell's Pattery, Manly's Battery, Albert Garrett, John W. Dunham, Annie Kyle. Onslow Guards, Nash Trenton and Neuse have added to the comforts of their rooms in the dormitories. The Pee Dee Chapter has furnished hymn-books for the Chapel, and the W. N. Everett Memorial room has been furnished.

On Memorial Day we entertained at the Home with a bountiful dinner supplied by the management, twelve members of the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter, the eight of Manly's Battery, twenty school children from Holly Springs with their chaperons, the members of the L. O. B. Branch Camp, several members of the State Executive Board, and half a score of distinguished Confederate Veterans, who took part in the inspiring and moving and patriotic parade, which under the able management of Mrs. H. M. London embodied in a not-to-be-forgotten and glorious pageant, the inspiration and crown of the year's work.

Not since October, 1869, when the Confederate Veterans' Association of North Carolina adopted a resolution that a Home for helpless and disabled veterans was a necessity, has a more moving appeal of loyalty to the inestimable birthright of a heroic past stirred more profoundly the hearts of the people. A day of tremendous accomplishment, it was an appealing crown to a year of noble and fitting endeavor, widening scope, and healthy growth of interest.

To the Richmond Reunion we sent twelve of the comrades, writing directly to the County Commissioners of their home counties for funds. To the Asheville Reunion we sent ten. For this we had $50 from Mrs. London and generous help from the Charlotte, the J. D. Moore, and the Hillsboro Chapters. The Zeb Vance Boys' Chapter has given a beautiful Confederate flag. Charlotte has contributed a generous treat of ice cream and cakes.

Through Mrs. London's coöperation we have bought new curtains for the Hospital reception room, two North Carolina State flags for the Home, apples and oranges throughout the year to supplement the regular supply for the Hospital, and chairs and rugs and shades for the rooms, as interest in the comfort and welfare of the Veterans has suggested. The Board of Directors, seeing the growth of this interest, has exerted itself to cooperate in its increase, and we will venture to say that through this coöperation the Veterans are finding a larger scope for their interests and amusements, and that at the present writing a great majority of them are more contented than they have been in many years. To this contentment the Superintendent and his wife have contributed by their active interest the sanitary and well-kept rooms and the generous and nourishing fare. The nurses and the doctor also have contributed by their unfailing patience and intelligent service.

Extensive repairs, changes and improvements have been made on the Home, and for all that these improvements have contributed to the machinery that has enabled the growth of satisfaction in the Home to go forward, we unceasingly return our thanks; for inspired by that satisfaction in the hearts of those who make their home there, we find the spiritual energy to bring yet nearer to the realization the vision we have long held of an unfailing haven of rest and peace for heroic service beyond the measure of reward.

The report of the Purchasing Committee for the Old Ladies' Home was read by Mrs. Hunter Smith, Chairman, and was accepted. Mrs. Smith presented the matter of furnishings for the two new sun-parlors at the Home, and asked that any who wished to help in this cause should do so, and suggested that any chapter might furnish a sunparlor if it so desired. Mrs. Smith called attention of other needs at the Home, one of which she said was silver, but stated that the Fayetteville Chapter had recently undertaken this work and expected to present the silver to the Home as a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, Chairman Purchasing Committee.

Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Vice-Regent of the N. C. Room in Richmond, and a former Daughter of North Carolina, was welcomed to the platform by the President. She brought greetings from the N. C. Room, and read the reports of the Regent and Vice-Regent.

REPORT OF THE REGENT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ROOM Madam President and Daughters of the N. C. Division of the U. D. C.:

I regret not being present to deliver my report in person. I had the pleasure of attending the Reunion of Confederate Veterans in Richmond, Va., last June. I heard it said many times that this was the greatest of all the Reunions. I am prepared to believe it was, for surely there never was more lavish hospitality shown than by the people of Richmond. One of the pleasures of the occasion was frequent visits to the North Carolina Room in the Confederate Museum, where we always found many visitors who seemed greatly interested. Under the wise supervision of our efficient Vice-Regent, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, the room had been repainted; every portrait and picture had been removed, cleaned, and rehung on the walls; and the cases of relics had been opened and cleaned, presenting a beautiful appearance. Among the many social attractions was a tea given at the beautiful home of Miss Sally Archer Anderson, President of the Literary Memorial Association, in honor of the Regents of the Museum. I am sure her handsome Colonial home never looked more beautiful than on this occasion. Among other hospitalities was an elegant luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Ruffin Cox, State President of Colonial Dames and Vice-President of South Carolina. Space in the Minutes will prevent my recounting the many other entertainments so graciously given during our sojourn there.

A portrait of Col. William Johnston of Charlotte, N. C., given by Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston Andrews of Raleigh, N. C. A charming book, "Glowing Embers," presented by its author, Mrs. John Van Landingham.

Thanking each Chapter for their contributions and asking a continuance of this interest,

MRS. LATTA C. JOHNSTON,

REPORT OF THE VICE-REGENT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ROOM

Madam Presiden: and Daughters of the N. C. Division of the U. D. C.:

The great event of the past year was the Confederate Reunion held in Richmond in June. Once more the Capital of the Confederacy resounded to the strains of martial music and the tread of soldier feet. Thousands of Veterans came, and many deeds of valor were recounted. For one week the city was given over to their entertainment, and all pronounced it the greatest Reunion that had ever taken place. We were very proud of this, as our own chivalrous Gen. Julian S. Carr was the presiding officer. With his cordial greetings and lavish hospitality he made all the guests most welcome. More than 5,000 persons visited the Museum during the Reunion, and our room was a Mecca for all the North Carolinians. The room had a new coat of paint this spring, all of the portraits and pictures had been taken down, cleaned and rehung, and the cases of relics opened and cleaned. It was an expensive and fatiguing job, but we felt repaid for the trouble as the room presented a very handsome appearance and received many compliments from the visitors.

The following gifts were received:

A portrait of Col. William Johnston of Charlotte, N. C., given by Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston Andrews of Raleigh.

A flag which belonged to Company B, Thirty-first Regiment of North Carolina, given to them by the ladies of Anson County, bearing the motto, "Aut Vincere, Aut Mori" (To conquer, or to die). This flag was captured early in the war, and recently was presented by Col. H. H. Andrews and his sister. When captured the flag was sent to Colonel Andrews' father, John A. Andrews, the War Governor of Massachusetts. The silken banner is much torn, and the staff shows the marks of many shells.

A shell which was fired at salute over the grave of Sir Moses Ezekial at Arlington was presented by Mrs. Charles Fisher Taylor of the Robert Lee Chapter of Washington, D. C., who was present at the burial exercises and secured the shell, and the piece of wood to which the shell is tied is from the original floor of the Lee home at Arlington.

We are indebted to Col. John W. Gordon for a very interesting sketch of the life of the gallant Confederate soldier, Henry H. Rutledge, Colonel of the Twenty-fifth N. C. Regiment.

A little picture of the Confederate Ram, "Albemarle," built by P. E. Smith of Scotland Neck, was given by Mrs. S. H. Deveraux.

A most interesting book, "Glowing Embers," presented by its author, Mrs. John Van Landingham.

A pamphlet, "Jefferson Davis, Historical Essays," by Alice Morrison, given by Miss Jessica Smith.

"North Carolina at Gettysburg," and "Pickett's Charge, a Misnomer," written by Chief Justice Walter Clark.

A group photograph of the ladies composing the Frank Bennett Chapter of Wadesboro, given by Mrs. Florence Leader.

The gavel used by General Carr at the Reunion in June, 1922, was placed in the N. C. Room by Mrs. Isaac Faison, Mrs. L. B. Newell, Mrs. C. F. Taylor.

Two Rolls of Honor have been received, one of Alex McAllister, one of Spear Whittaker.

Our President, Mrs. Anderson, suggested some time ago that the Chapters celebrate in some way Jefferson Davis' birthday, to arouse interest in the work of the Museum. In response to this, Mrs. Little of Wadesboro, gave a party, from which she realized $16.00, which was given to Mrs. Anderson for the general endowment fund of the Museum.

Most earnestly do we long for the completion of the endowment of our rocm. As you see from the statement, we still lack $1,100 of reaching our goal of $5,000, and I beg that the North Carolina Daughters make an especial effort to raise this amount this year. I wish more of the Chapters would take Life Memberships. The $25.00 paid for one goes to the In Memoriam Endowment Fund. I also urge you to have the Rolls of Honor filled out.

Thanking you for your continued interest and coöperation in this sacred work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. ALLISON HODGES,

Vice-Regent.

Mrs. F. M. Williams came forward and presented to Mrs. Hodges for the N. C. Room at Richmond "her most precious possessions, the commissions of her father, General Robert Ransom, in the Confederate Army." The Convention rose to its feet in honor of General Ransom, and Mrs. Hodges expressed her appreciation.

The report of the Gettysburg Committee was read and accepted.

GETTYSBURG MONUMENT COMMITTEE'S REPOPT

Daughters of the N. C. Division:

Last year you raised over $1,000.00 to increase the Gettysburg Monument Fund; this year you have added $655.25. Credit for the larger donation last year is due to the generous gift of $400.00 from the Charlotte Chapter, under the leadership of Mrs. Newell, whose enthusiasm has been and is an inspiration to your Director.

We have been soliciting funds for a long time, and now have $2,296.81 on hand. It is now time for the Division to decide on the amount it wishes to put in a marker, and the character and size of the Memorial. After we select our design it must be submitted to Congress for approval before it can be placed on Gettysburg Battlefield.

Let us ever remember that "a country without sentiment is a country without monuments; a land without monuments is a land without patriots."

Let us show enough patriotism to mark the spot where North Carolinians reached the pinnacle of sacrifice and horoism.

Donations of the largest amounts this year were from the following Chapters:

Charlotte, $100; Asheville, $50; High Point, $50; Kinston, $50; Morehaed City, $50; Mooresville, $25; New Bern, $25; Windsor, $25; Wilson, $25; Dillsboro, $15. Our efficient Treasurer made interest of $44. Present amount, $2,296.81.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Marshall Williams, Chairman.

Upon motion of the Convention, the time for report was extended and Mrs. Marshall Williams, Chairman, gave the Convention a thrilling history of North Carolina's troops at Gettysburg, and the Convention was held spellbound while she reviewed this great battle. Mrs. Williams asked that the Division decide now upon the character of the memorial to be erected. Mrs. F. M. Williams stated that, as Mrs. Marshall Williams had studied this subject from every angle, she (Mrs. F. M. Williams) did not believe the Division could do better than to leave to Mrs. Marshall Williams the decision as to what should be placed on the battlefield. Mrs. C. F. Harvey, who also had visited Gettysburg for the North Carolina Division, described the battlefield and favored a boulder with handsome bronze tablet for the famous "Bloody Angle," but said that only a handsome monument would be worthy of a place on Monument Avenue. Upon motion of Mrs. F. M. Williams, seconded by Mrs. Platt of Charlotte, the decision as to marker or monument to be placed at Gettysburg was left in the hands of Mrs. Marshall Williams and Mrs. C. F. Harvey.

Mrs. James M. Gudger, Jr., Chairman, read the report of the Dixie Highway, which report was accepted. Mrs. Gudger displayed beautiful photographs of the bronze tablet to be used in marking the highway.

REPORT OF DIXIE HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

The marking of the Dixie Highway with a bronze tablet of Gen. Robert E. Lee on "Traveler" at each State Boundary through which the Dixie Highway runs, has met with tremendous approval throughout the Southern States and also in the North. The movement was designed and the project was first sponsored by the Asheville Chapter of the U. D. C., and later was unanimously adopted at the State Convention of North Carolina held at Winston-Salem in October, 1921. The movement has gained tremendous headway, and was unanimously adopted at the Florida State Convention, which convened in Orlando, May 3 of this year. The tablet is to be of bronze in bas relief, with Lee on "Traveler," size 24x28 inches. The die will cost $800, and will be owned by the U. D. C. of North Carolina, who first adopted the movement. All other States can secure the tablets at $115 each.

Mrs. Uriah Seely of Asheville, N. C., and Orlando, Fla., who is a member of the Asheville Chapter, conceived the idea of erecting the tablets, and she calls our attention to the fact that we, as true Daughters of the South, have too long neglected our duty in placing General Lee's picture in Southern homes, as those of Lincoln occupy a place of honor in the Northern homes. Thus will General Lee, though dead, still speak through all the ages. We have made a small facsimile of the large bronze tablet, which all Chapters of the U. D. C. can secure at $2 per 100, to be sold at twenty-five cents each, which would net $23 for each 100 lot sold. This we consider an additional honor to General Lee, and an easy plan to finance the movement. Send orders for the pictures to Birrell Brown Company, 55-57 Lafayette Street, Newark, N. J. with Mrs. J.M. Gudger, Jr., who is Chairman for North Carolina and introduced this project at the State Convention at Winston-Salem last October.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JAMES M. GUDGER, Chairman.

The report of the Jefferson Davis Highway Committee, Mrs. L. E. Fisher, Chairman, was read and accepted.

REPORT OF JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters:

The progress of the work of my committee to secure enactment of the legal naming of North Carolina's link of the Jefferson Davis Highway has been slow. We have found that the State Highway Commission has that power, and our initial work has been with that body. Maps of the proposed highway through North Carolina and many urgent letters have been sent to each member of the commission. Mrs. Jacksie Daniel Thrash Morrison, member from North Carolina on the General Committee, appeared before the commission at the April meeting and presented the proposal, and the matter was taken under advisement by the Commission. No action has yet been taken.

During the recent Reunion of the North Carolina Division of Confederate Veterans, I appeared before the meeting and presented the movement and they unanimously endorsed it. I feel sure this will give strong momentum to our progress.

All the meetings of the State Highway Commission are held in Raleigh, and a confirmation by the legislature of any action taken by the Commission will be necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. L. E. Fisher.

Chairman.

Mrs. Marshall Williams asked permission to call for pledges for Gettysburg Monument. The following amounts were pledged: Burgaw, Pender County Chapter, $5; Beaufort, Fort Macon, $5; Burlington, Charles F. Fisher, $10; Charlotte, Stonewall, Jackson Chapter, $500; Clinton, Ashford-Sillers Chapter, $5; Durham, Julian S. Carr Chapter, $5; Elizabeth City, D. H. Hill Chapter, $5; Faison, Faison Hicks Chapter, $5; Fayetteville, J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, $5; Graham, Graham Chapter, $5; Halifax, Halifax Chapter, $10; Hickory, Abel A. Shuford Chapter, $5; High Point, High Point Chapter, $10; Marion, McDowell Chapter, $10; Monroe, Monroe Chapter, $5; Raleigh, Johnston Pettigrew, $25.

The President announced that the hour of noon had arrived. Mrs. E. F. Reid, Chaplain, was called to the chair and presided through Memorial Hour.

SECOND DAY—Afternoon Session

The Convention was called to order at 4:30 o'clock, after a delightful oyster roast at Wrightsville Beach, through the courtesy of Civic and Commercial Organizations.

Prayer by Mrs. E. F. Reid, Chaplain.

The final report of the Credentials Committee was read by Mrs. J. Hicks Bunting, and was accepted with the cordial thanks of the Convention.

Mrs. Huggins thanked the Convention for the honor of the nomination but withdrew her name as a candidate in favor of Mrs. Sprunt.

There being no further nominations, Mrs. Sprunt was elected First Vice-President by acclamation.

Mrs. T. J. Gold of High Point placed in nomination for the office of Second Vice-President the name of Mrs. L. B. Newell of Charlotte; seconded by Mrs. Marshall Williams of Faison.

Mrs. John H. Anderson of Fayetteville placed in nomination for Third Vice-President the name of Mrs. W. C. Rodman of Washington, N. C.; seconded by Mrs. H. M. London of Raleigh.

Mrs. Rufus Gwynn placed in nomination for office of Third Vice-President the name of Mrs. C. M. Platt of Charlotte; seconded by Mrs. F. M. Williams of Newton.

Mrs. C. M. Platt withdrew her name as a candidate, because Charlotte had already received the office of Second Vice-President. There being no further nominations, Mrs. W. C. Rodman was elected Third Vice-President.

The remaining officers of the Division were unanimously elected or re-elected as follows:

Mrs. L. E. Fisher, President of Asheville Chapter, asked the privilege of the floor, and presented Mrs. James M. Gudger, Jr., with a magnificent basket of flowers, voicing the appreciation of the Asheville Chapter of her fine work and service.

A beautiful corsage was presented to Mrs. Gudger by the William Bender Ferguson C. of C. of Waynesville. This was fittingly acknowledged by Mrs. Gudger.

On motion, the Convention adjourned at 6:30 o'clock.

THIRD DAY-Morning Session

The meeting was called to order by the President at 9:30 o'clock. Invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Edwin F. Keever, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mrs. R. P. Holt, Chairman of the Committee for "Women of the South" read her report, and it was moved and carried that this splendid report be accepted.

REPORT OF STATE DIRECTOR OF "WOMEN OF THE SOUTH IN WAR TIMES"

Madam President and Daughters of the North Carolina Division, U.D. C.:

Last year it was with a feeling of pride that I brought you your report on the sale of our book and the publicity fund for this book, but today it is with a feeling of regret.

Only twenty-three Chapters have responded at all to the call of the General Division, who last year at St. Louis pledged themselves to sell this year 10,000 copies and asked that each Chapter sell or buy not less than 10 copies. Have you even tried to carry out your part of this pledge? Five Chapters in our Division have fulfilled their part: Wilson has ordered 18 copies; Rocky Mount, 17; Durham, 12; Greenville, 11, and New Bern 10.

The following are the ones who bought one or more copies: Snow Hill, Sylva, Laurinburg, Hendersonville, Nashville, Chapel Hill, Ahoskie, Kinston; Fannie Patton Chapter, Asheville; Asheville Chapter, Webster, Fairmont, Fayetteville, Weldon, Wilmington, Raleigh, Graham, and Aulander. These orders total 100 copies.

The following contributions to the Publicity Fund for this book have been received: Enfield, $1.00; Fayetteville, $1.00; Graham, $1.50; Greenville, $1.00; Rocky Mount, $2.00; Snow Hill, $1.00; Spring Hope, $1.00. Total, $8.50.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT, State Director.

Mrs. R. P. Holt, Director of World War Records, read the following report, which was accepted:

WORLD WAR RECORDS DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters:

It is with a feeling of regret that I bring you this, the report of your year's work in collecting the records of our boys who risked their lives for you and for me during the years of 1917-1918.

Only twenty Chapters have sent in records this year; but as many others have sent for blanks, I hope when you go home you will at once collect these records from your boys and send me the blanks filled out by the 20th, so I can make the copies and send them on to my Chairman-General in time to count on our report at Birmingham.

The following is a list of Chapters and the number of correct records received: LaGrange, Dillsboro, Charlotte, Asheville Chapter, Enfield, 1 each; Kinston, 2; Rocky Mount, 3; Greenville, 8; Jacksonville, 11; Durham, 13; Oriental and North Wilkesboro, 14 each; Mount Airy, 21; Whiteville, 22; Sanford and Waynesville, 29 each; Spring Hope and Shelby, 38 each; Fannie Patton Chapter, 50; 4 without Chapter name. And now it gives me great pleasure to present to you the name of the winner of the Sallie Bunn Thorpe Prize of $10.00 in gold which was offered by the Bethel Heroes Chapter, in honor of their first President, to the Chapter sending in the greatest number of records correctly filled. This prize has been won by Mrs. Thos. L. Speiden, President of the Cape Fear Chapter, who sent in 131 records. These records were all typewritten, so that I had only to make the general copy. For this I wish to thank Mrs. Speiden.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT,
Director World War Records.

Mrs. F. M. Williams, Chairman of the Headquarters Committee, announced that they were ready to make their report. This report was read and accepted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO SELECT U. D. C. HEADQUARTERS

After due deliberation your Committee brings to you the following report:

That the Robert E. Lee Hotel at Winston-Salem be adopted as headquarters of the U. D. C., N. C. Division. This does not, however, prevent invitations from being given and accepted for the Convention to meet on the independent plan in other places.

We also recommend that when the Division meets at Head-quarters, all expenses of the Convention be paid by the Division.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. M. WILLIAMS, MRS. H. M. LONDON, MRS. P. A. GORRELL, MRS. L. E. FISHER.

It was moved and carried that the Convention be open to invitations for next Convention. Mrs. Lindsay of Greensboro extended an invitation to the Convention to meet with the Guilford Chapter in Greensboro in 1923, which invitation was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

Mrs. F. M. Williams then introduced Dr. Smith of Washington-Lee University, saying, "Dr. Smith will tell you what he wishes to do, and then I will tell you what I want you to do." Dr. Smith charmed the Convention with his wonderful talk, and the Lee Memorial was discussed fully. Mrs. Williams made the following motion: "Moved, that North Carolina Division, U. D. C., reaffirm the resolution adopted by the General Convention to enlarge and fireproof the Lee Chapel in Lexington, Va., and that N. C. Division stand firmly by the action of the General Organization in this matter."

This motion was carried, and the President was instructed to so act at the General Convention in Birmingham.

Mrs. C. F. Harvey, Chairman of the Maury Memorial Committee, gave a verbal report and, after much discussion, it was decided that $800 is a most creditable amount for North Carolina to give toward the Maury Memorial Association.

The Convention then heard the report of the Director for Jefferson Davis Monument, Mrs. Jacksie Daniel Thrash Morrison, which was accepted.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF JEFFERSON DAVIS MONUMEN?

Madam President and Daughters of the N. C. Div., U. D. C.:

. If you Daughters honor the name of that great statesman and soldier whose memory should be engraved on the hearts of every United Daughter of the Confederacy, as you are contributing to his monument at Fairview, Ky., then surely your interest in Jefferson Davis is growing less and less.

It is with humiliation, almost, that I am bringing this report to you—the most meager in all the years, when it should have been the best—the first year that the work has been your very own.

Because the Confederate Veterans called upon the United Daughters of the Confederacy to assume the responsibility of finishing the Monument, your President-General, Mrs. McKinney, recommended it to you at St. Louis, and you accepted this duty.

How you are fulfilling your pledge, your financial report will show.

How much the Veterans are depending on you the following extracts from a letter written to your Chairman by Gen. William B. Haldeman, President of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association, will show you. General Haldeman says:

"The Legislature of Kentucky made an appropriation of $15,000 to the Jefferson Davis Monument Fund by a vote of 28 to 4 in the Senate and 66 to 6 in the House. This measure, with a number of other appropriation measures, was vetoed by the Governor in the closing hours of the legislative session. There were a number of appropriations that were vetoed by the Governor and he did not see his way clear to approve the Jefferson Davis appropriation. Although a Republican, he had given me active support and was really anxious to sign the measure, but believed that under the circumstances the politics involved in the various appropriation measures, to approve our measure he would invite attacks, and he therefore disapproved the bill. I had passed, however, in the preceding Legislature, a bill, which is now on the statutes, that the State of Kentucky will take charge of the monument and the park at Fairview upon the dedication of the monument, and will maintain it for all time to come."

The Confederate Reunion Convention at Richmond approved the reports submitted by me, unanimously, and that was all. No money was raised at the Reunion, and that is what we need just now.

The Woman's Memorial Association, through Mrs. Wright, sent us $500.00 immediately before the Reunion, and promised to raise additional funds. The money raised by this Association was sent direct to the Jefferson Davis Home Association.

At the time of the Richmond Reunion the monument at Fairview had been raised from a height of 176 feet to 216 feet, at a cost of $20,000. At that time $17,000 had been raised by the various sources, and I advanced $3,000 to carry out the contract with the contractor for the amount due—$20,000 for work done. Of this amount, $2,000 has been repaid to me from funds raised by the Daughters and others, which reached the Jefferson Davis Home Association shortly after the Richmond meeting.

Immediately upon my return from Richmond, I stopped active work on the monument, and work will not be resumed until we have on hand the amount necessary to complete it.

That amount will be about $30,000, and with this sum raised we can complete the monument within two months and dedicate it and turn it over to the State of Kentucky on June 3, 1923.

WE WILL HAVE TO LOOK IN THE MAIN FOR THESE FUNDS FROM THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY, WHO HAVE UNDERTAKEN TO COMPLETE THE WORK.

Our Southland is studded with monuments to the gallant men of the Confederacy. They have been the work of your loyal hearts and generous hands. Let this, the completion of the Jefferson Davis Monument, be the crowning glory of your loyalty and love. Make possible this prayer and hope:

"That in the future some historian shall come forth both strong and wise.

With a love of this Republic, and the truth before his eyes,

And will show the subtle causes of the War between the States.

He will go back in his studies far beyond our modern dates,

He will hold the scale of Justice; he will measure praise and blame,

And the South will stand the verdict, and stand it without shame."

General Chairman Monument Committee.

Mrs. Morrison also discussed the Jefferson Davis Highway, and offered the following resolutions, which later were amended and seconded by Mrs. Fisher and accepted by the Convention:

RESOLUTIONS FROM THE JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

Be it resolved:

- 1. Whereas, to further honor the name of that great statesman and soldier, whose memory should be engraved on the hearts of all true sons of the South, the North Carolina Division, U. D. C., requests the State Highway Commission of North Carolina to designate the route, and officially recommend the name of same to be "The Jefferson Davis Highway," to the State Legislature.
- 2. That a copy of this resolution be sent the honorable body with the earnest request that it be acted upon at its next meeting, on October 27, 1922.
- 3. That the House of Representatives and the Senate, concurring, hereby be asked to approve the action of the State Highway Commission in designating and naming the North Carolina route of the Jefferson Davis Highway.
- 4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each Chapter of the North Carolina Division, requesting it to use its influence with its respective County Representatives in the Legislature, that this may be accomplished.

Respectfully submitted, Jacksie Daniel Thrash Morrison.

State Director Jefferson Davis Highway Committee.

Mrs. Anderson gave a report on the placing of names of Southern Heroes on the Amphitheatre at Arlington, which report was accepted. The President then ealled for District Reports. Mrs. Little gave a verbal report on the Cunningham Memorial, which report was accepted.

Mrs. F. M. Williams made the following motion: "Moved, that all unread Minutes be left in the hands of the Recording Secretary for publication, and that she require printers to send proofs of the Treasurer's report, so that she may compare with the Minutes." This motion carried.

FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is with sincere regret that I cannot present my report in person. As First Vice-President, my duties have been so simple it seems almost unnecessary to make any report; however, since it has been called for I will render one.

I have answered by return mail each request for blank, since I succeeded in getting the blanks. I have received during the year thirteen letters and sent out 121 blanks.

I want to thank you for the honor of being permitted to serve the U. D. C., and assure you it has been a great pleasure. With regret that I could not accomplish more,

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. James K. Norfleet, First Vice-President, Dept. N. C. U. D. C.

The President then called for the report of the Courtesy Committee, which was read by Mrs. H. M. London.

DISTRICT No. 5

Wilmington, October 11, 1922—President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, Gastonia.

The next Convention of the North Carolina Division, will be held in Greensboro, the second Wednesday in October, 1923. The next General Convention will be held in Washington, D. C., the third Wednesday in November, 1923.

The annual meeting of the Fifth District was held at China Grove June 15. The delegates assembled at the charming home of Mrs. C. B. Miller, where a delicious buffet luncheon was served by the hostess Chapter. After luncheon we drove to St. Mark's Lutheran Church, where our business session was held.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. C. P. Fisher, pastor of the church, and this was followed by the impressive U. D. C. Ritual. Miss Virginia Hoke welcomed us most beautifully in the name of the China Grove Chapter. Several delightful songs gave variety to the program. Perhaps the most interesting musical feature of the day was a solo by Mrs. Sloan, of Charlotte, "Cover them over with Beautiful Flowers." This is a lovely poem set to music and dedicated to our Confederate Memorial Day. Mrs. Sloan's glorious voice fittingly interpreted the words and music. All who desire a new and beautiful selection for use on Memorial Day should secure copies of this song from the composer, Mrs. Baker, of Charlotte.

Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, President of the North Carolina Division, was the guest of honor and the speaker of the afternoon. With her sure touch and intimate knowledge of both State and general work, she heightened our interest in all phases of the work and made us proud indeed of our latest State President.

Lexington, Salisbury and China Grove were well represented. High Point sent regrets and a wonderfully fine report of a great year's work. Hers was unquestionably the banner report. Thomasville, to our regret, was not represented. All reports showed that U. D. C. Chapters and C. of C. Chapters were responding well to calls made upon them.

Concord is to revise her Children's Chapter this year.

It was decided last year that the District Scholarship be financed by assessing each Chapter 25 cents per capita. So far, only Thomasville, High Point and Salisbury have paid their quota.

Pledges were made to the following causes: Portrait of Mrs. Parsley; Stars and Bars Memorial, Cunningham Memorial. These pledges have been paid by each Chapter to the State Treasurer.

We adopted with pleasure Mrs. Wilson's suggestion that each district make and design a District flag to carry to Convention. Miss Mary Henderson was asked by the meeting to design a flag for the Fifth District.

Mrs. P. S. Carlton moved that the District go on record as desiring the self-entertaining plan for the annual State Conventions. This motion was unanimously carried. Mrs. W. J. Swink, at the suggestion of Mrs. Wilson, moved that we sponsor the plan of having all District meetings in either April or May, thus allowing the State President to plan her visits to these meetings more readily. This motion was also carried.

Mrs. W. H. Mendenhall of Lexington was elected District Director. District accepted an invitation from Lexington for the meeting of 1923.

I am not making a detailed statement of Chapter work, as the Chapter reports cover this.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY HENDERSON.

Director.

DISTRICT No. 6

The annual meeting of District No. 6 was held with the Randolph Chapter in Asheboro, June 21, it having been postponed from April 19 on account of bad weather and impassable roads.

Three Chapters had delegates present with fine reports. The other three Chapters were not able to make the trip, dué to the heavy rains on the 20th, causing washouts on the roads.

The Asheboro Chapter had made every preparation to entertain a large delegation. The delegates and visitors were asked to assemble at the Central Hotel, and from there they were carried in automobiles to the Methodist Church.

The church was beautifully decorated with Queen Anne's lace and Confederate flags.

A delicious luncheon was served in the ladies' parlor of the church—a salad, followed by cream and cake. Each course carried out the Confederate colors, red and white.

The business meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock by Mrs. E. L. Moffitt, First Vice-President, in the absence of the President, Mrs. J. V. Hunter, who had so recently lost her mother. Mrs. J. D. Kernodle, Leader of the Sixth District, presided. Mrs. W. H. Underwood acted as Secretary. Mrs. E. L. Moffitt made the address of welcome. She was charming and gracious, and made everyone feel at home and welcome. Mrs. Kernodle made the response, assuring Mrs. Moffitt and the Asheboro Chapter that it was a great privilege and pleasure to meet with them; that Randolph had reason to be proud of her record in the war, and the Daughters and Granddaughters were proving their loyalty to those who wore the Gray, by calling their Chapter by the name of Randolph.

The roll was called; three Chapers had representatives present with fine reports, showing work well done and responses to all calls. Then came the round-table talks and other business.

Mrs. J. P. Montgomery, Leader of the Stonewall Jackson Children's Chapter of Burlington, read a fine report of work done, showing the interest manifested in the work by her Chapter.

Miss Elise Thompson of the Jacob A. Long Chapter of Children of the Confederacy, of Graham, read a report from that Chapter. They have 27 members and had sent $31.50 to the Old Woman's Home at Fayetteville; put buttonhole bouquets on Veterans, and carried flowers to graves on Memorial Day; also helped the Mother Chapter to serve dinner to 86 Veterans that day.

It was the pleasure of the meeting to elect Miss Emma McKinney of Reidsville as District Leader, to take up her work at the October meeting in Wilmington.

It was decided to fix time for the District meeting; to consult with the State President in regard to other District meetings, and arrange time so as not to conflict; to ask Chapters when sending in contributions to the Hero Fund that all surplus be applied to the Educational Fund by Treasurer.

The meeting was closed with prayer by the Chaplain of Randolph Chapter.

After Miss McKinney, who was not present at the election, had been notified of her nomination, she declined to accept the office, stating that her time was too fully occupied with other duties.

The election was taken up with Chapters by the Leader of the District and the nomination and vote of each Chapter taken. Mrs. Daniel S. Hall of Burlington was unanimously elected as Leader of District No. 6.

It is a pleasure to me to turn this work over to Mrs. Hall, who, I am sure, will carry on the District work with energy and enthusiasm. Each Chapter has grown in membership and interest during the past years:

N	umber
$M\epsilon$	embers
Charles Fisher Chapter, Burlington	64
C. of C. Stonewall Jackson, Burlington
Graham Chapter, Graham
C. of C. Jacob A. Long, Graham	27
Rockingham Chapter, Reidsville	50
C. of C. Annie Dillard	60
Randolph Chapter, Asheboro
Guilford Chapter, Greensboro	148
Chalmers Glenn Chapter, Leaksville-Spray	48
C. of C. Chapter, Leaksville-Spray	18

This gives a membership of 400 for the Mother Chapters in the District and 140 C. of C. Chapters.

It is with real regret that I have to send my report instead of being present myself; but, due to many causes, it is impossible for me to be with the Convention this year.

Last, but not least, Chalmers Glenn Chapter, Leaksville-Spray, has invited the District to meet with them in 1923.

Mrs. J. D. Kernodle, Leader for District No. 6.

DISTRICT No. 7

The Chapters composing the Seventh District, namely, Albemarle, Monroe, Wadesboro, Laurinburg, Rockingham, and the Children's Chapters of Wadesboro and Rockingham, have been active in U. D. C. work the past year. They have looked after the Veterans, aided and entertained them, and responded to practically all the calls made upon them in behalf of the various U. D. C. activities.

We are glad indeed to be able to report the organization of a new Chapter at Rockingham, which promises to become one of the largest and most active Chapters in the State. Starting with a membership of 43, which has since materially increased, Mrs. Entwhistle, President. The ladies composing the Pee Dee Guards, Rockingham, went immediately to work; a delegation of them visited the Old Ladies' Home at Fayetteville, carrying with them 50 cans of preserves, fruit, etc., and one of the members, Mrs. W. T. Covington, was so impressed with the spirit of the Home that she adopted on the spot one of the dear old ladies and will see that all her needs and wants are supplied. They have also organized a flourishing Children's Chapter with 50 charter members. We are proud to have these wide-awake new Chapters added to the original five faithful, steady, dependable Chapters of the Seventh District, and we give them a hearty welcome into the Confederacy.

Our District meeting was held at Monroe, June 9, and was a most enjoyable occasion. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. R. B. Redwine, President Monroe Chapter, and after prayer by the Chaplain, Mrs. W. A. Lane, a most interesting program, consisting of readings, speeches, and most delightful music, was given by the hostess Chapter, closing with a beautiful address by Gen. William A. Smith of Ansonviile, whom we all were delighted to have as an honor guest on this occasion. At 1 o'clock a most elegant luncheon was served by the Monroe Daughters, after which the meeting again convened, Mrs. J. M. Brown, the District Director, presiding. The feature of the afternoon session was the address by our loved and honored State President, Mrs. T. W. Wilson, who, as she always does, inspired us with fresh zeal and enthusiasm in this worthy cause. We were fortunate in having with us, besides our State President, a number of other women notable in U. D. C. work. Mrs. I. W. Faison, Mrs. Eugene Little, Mrs. L. B. Newell and Mrs. Cabel Smith, Ex-President, Virginia Division, were in turn introduced by the Director and each made a most interesting and delightful talk. After hearing Chapter reports and other routine business, the meeting elected new officers, Mrs. R. B. Redwine being chosen as District Leader and Mrs. W. C. Crowell as Secre-It was decided to hold the next meeting at Racky River Springs, picnic fashion. Mrs. Eugene Little, in her own inimitable way, expressed to the Monroe Chapter the great pleasure and happiness which had been ours as their guests, and the meeting was adjourned by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

DISTRICT No. 10

Johnston Pettigrew Chapter was hostess to the Tenth District this year. The meeting was held in Christ Church parish house, April 22. Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Bridgers and Gen. William A. Smith were our honor guests. General Smith made an appeal for assistance in reviving U. C. V. camps. He reported that under Mrs. Wilson's regime one-half of the lapsed camps had been revived, largely through her co-operation. Mrs. Wilson made a splendid address on the work of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Bridgers urged the District to do a larger historical work.

Excellent reports were given from the Chapters and the Children of the Confederacy Chapters, these being the Henry A. London Chapter at Pittsboro and the Manly's Battery Chapter at Raleigh. Mrs. Bickett's report on the Stars and Bars Memorial was read.

Mrs. Alfred Williams of Raleigh was elected District Director for next year.

The delegates adjourned to the Peacock Alley Tea Room, where they were entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon. After lunch they visited the Hall of History. Automobiles then carried them to the Soldiers' Home, where they were graciously received by Superintendent and Mrs. Wiggs and shown through the diningroom, pantries, kitchens, dormitories and hospital, visiting with the Veterans on the way. They then were driven to the home of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, where a beautiful reception was held.

Mrs. H. M. London,

District Director.

DISTRICT No. 11

The annual session of the Eleventh District of the United Daughters of Confederacy met in Dunn, Thursday, May 4, 1922. Seven Chapters were represented, with a total attendance of about 100. Mrs. McD. Holliday, President of Chicora Chapter, presided.

The guests were welcomed by Mr. J. C. Clifford, representing the Mayor, and greetings brought from the Chamber of Commerce, the Woman's Club and the Cornelius Harnett Chapter of D. A. R. Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, our State President, was presented, and she, in her usual charming manner, outlined the work of the U. D. C., emphasizing the important phases. This was the outstanding feature of the day's program. Several musical numbers were given by members of the local Chapter, and after a delicious luncheon, which was served at noon, Mrs. Holliday presented Miss MacMillan, District Director, who gave a most pleasing little talk on the work and future plans of the District. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and the usual roll call disposed of. The Chapter reports were unusually good, showing much work and interest during the year.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. N. A. Townsend, District Director; Miss Annie MacEachern, Secretary.

Mrs. Hunter Smith, representing the Woman's Confederate Home, reported the recent improvements and present needs. She also stated there were numerous applications.

Mrs. J. H. Anderson spoke about the Lee Memorial and said it was decided at the State Convention that this was the great work of the year. Miss Catharine Robinson of Fayetteville, in her pleasant way, urged each Chapter to see that the Veterans went to the Reunion at Richmond.

Upon motion of Miss Brown, a rising vote of thanks was given to Miss MacMillan for her splendid services.

Upon invitation of Miss MacMillan, it was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Red Springs, date to be decided later.

(MISS) CORNELIA S. MACMILLAN, Director,

DISTRICT No. 12

Madam President and United Daughters of the Confederacy:

We beg to submit the following report:

The meeting of the Twelfth District was delightfully entertained by the Rose Hill Chapter, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Boney, June 10, 1922. This meeting was one of rare pleasure and profit. Our chief regret was that our charming State President could not be present.

A detailed account of this meeting was given publicity at the time.

The meeting in session, eight Chapters responded to the roll call and gave reports. All reports were in a very optimistic vein. Miss Winifred Faison presented in her own original, interesting manner, "Some of the Obstacles that Hinder Chapter Work."

Mrs. Marshall Williams thundered of Gettysburg. Such a realistic picture she painted for the Daughters that we hung our heads in humiliation as we realized how remiss we had been in discharge of our duty to our fallen heroes. Our old soldiers present wept audibly.

Mrs. B. B. Witherington, in her sweetly serious manner, conducted a memorial for the Daughters who have left us this year.

Mrs. Thomas McGee of Goldsboro was unanimously elected as your Director. You are indeed to be congratulated on this selection. Under Mrs. McGee's leadership we feel sure the work will go forward in a marvelous degree.

All literature sent in for distribution was remailed to Chapters. two hundred letters were written, and one copy of our book, "Southern Women in War Times," was presented.

Our District was greatly honored at the last General Convention, Miss Carrie Mae Saunders, of Burgaw and our own District, having won in the "Peace Essay" Contest.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. S. A. WOOTEN.

DISTRICT No. 13

The Thirteenth District met in the Sunday School rooms of the Methodist Church in Nashville, April 19, 1922, with representatives present from the Chapters of Greenville, Tarboro, Wilson, Spring Hope, Nashville, and Rocky Mount. Middlesex 'phoned they were ready to start, but on account of the downpour were afraid to attempt the trip, but sent their report.

The Chapter reports showed work and interest.

The Powell Banner, given each year to the Chapter enrolling the largest number of new members, was won by the John W. Dunham Chapter of Wilson.

At 12 o'clock we held a short memorial hour, after which we were invited to the basement, where the Robert H. Ricks Chapter were hostesses to the District at a delightful luncheon.

After lunch, each object for which the U. D. C. is working was brought to us by some member of the District who had posted herself on that particular work.

We want to go on record as endorsing Mrs. B. A. Blenner of Richmond for Recording Secretary General.

We have eight Chapters, with a membership of 631, in our Dis-

Last year we won the prize of $5 for sending in the most new subscriptions to The Confederate Veteran, which we gave toward the Jefferson Davis Monument, and it was sent direct to the Treasurer-General so it would count at St. Louis.

Members of our District won two of the State historical prizes last year, and one of the C. of C. prizes.

One of our members won the Hyde Medal at the General Convention, and also the prize offered to the State Director who placed the greatest number of copies of our book.

This year our District is giving two prizes of $10 each. The Sallie Bunn Thorpe Prize goes to the Chapter sending in the largest number of World War records correctly filled out. This prize is given by the Bethel Heroes Chapter, in honor of their first President.

The Martha O. Winstead Prize is given by the District in honor of our first Director, to be awarded to the District sending in the best historical report by September 15.

Two prizes were offered to schools, one for the best paper on "Jefferson Davis," the other for the best paper on "Bryan Grimes."

We have sent flowers, fruit and nourishment to sick Veterans and Daughters, and when they have answered the last roll-call we have sent to the Veterans an ivy wreath with Confederate Flag, and to Daughters, wreaths of red and white.

A pension for a Veteran has been secured through the efforts of one of our Chapters.

Two Chapters have secured passes for our Veterans to their county fairs, and one Chapter served free dinner to the Veterans of two counties on the fair grounds.

We secured free transportation for our Veterans to the Reunion at Richmond, and enough money to pay all expenses. Several of our members went along to help give the Veterans a good time.

Two Chapters have started Confederate Sections in their city libraries.

One Chapter has nearly ready to unveil a monument to our own William Dorsey Pender.

We feel very proud of our historical report, which is as follows: Typewritten pages, 215; printed pages, 124; written pages, 238; illustrations, 4; pictures in schools, 3; flags in schools, 3; books in libraries, 464; markers at Veterans' graves, 22; reminiscences, 3; essays, 31.

We paid the way of a Veteran from our District, who now lives at the Soldiers' Home, to the Reunion at Asheville.

One of our members spoke, both in Raleigh and in Burlington, on "Sidney Lanier."

We have four active C. of C. Chapters, with a total member ship of 283. We are sorry to report the Chapter at Nashville inactive, but hope before another year to have it back at work.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT, Leader, MARY BRYAN GORHAM, Secretary.

DISTRICT No. 14

It gives me pleasure to report, for the District, 12 Chapters of U. D. C., with an active membership of 692. During the year one new Chapter has been organized, the "Albritton Sugg" at Hookerton, with eight members. One hundred and eight new members were received in the District. Thirty-two members have died. been demitted, or dropped.

There are in the District nine Chapters of C. of C., with a total membership of 317. One new Chapter, "Capt. Swift Galloway" at Snow Hill, has been organized, with seven members. One hundred and fifteen new members were received during the year. Six members of C. of C. have been transferred, having reached the age of eighteen. I am happy to report at this writing that every Chapter in the District, both U. D. C. and C. of C., not only are properly registered with the State and General Division but each has a complete Chapter file.

I have had communication, both by letter and by 'phone, with interested parties at Belhaven, looking to the organization of a Chapter of U. D. C., for which application blanks have already been forwarded.

I have not found it necessary to visit in person the Chapters of the District as much as I did last year, but by correspondence and 'phone I have kept in close touch with the work. The Calendar prepared by our worthy President, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, outlining the work for the year, and her monthly letters calling special attention to the different phases of the work, have been very helpful in stimulating activity, and all the Chapters at this time are in fine condition.

The financial report will show marked interest in education and an increase in all the contributions. Four prizes of $5 each for essays were offered. One scholarship has been awarded at the State College, Raleigh, to the grandson of a Confederate Veteran. By request of Mrs. Wilson, our President, flags have been placed in all the city schools of the District, and arrangements have been made to place them in the county schools next year. By request of the Daughters, the birthday of Matthew Fontaine Maury, January 14, was observed in all the city schools with special program.

Favorite hymns of Generals Lee and Jackson, also of President Davis, were used in all the churches on the Sunday preceding their respective birthday.

The Chapters have manifested special interest in arranging historical programs for their meetings. A number of scrapbooks are being prepared. There have been 28 copies of The Confederate Veteran subscribed for; 16 copies of "Women of the South in War Times"; five copies of "Truths of History," and one copy of "Boys of the Confederacy." Eighty-three War Records have been prepared, two Crosses of Honor bestowed, and several applications are in hand. Ninety-seven dollars have been spent for Markers, one picture has been presented to a school, and one Chapter purchased six uniforms for their Veterans, amounting to $125. Request was made, by the Chapters, of the County Commissioners throughout the District, to furnish free transportation to all the Veterans to attend the Reunion in Richmond in June; many attended, and all report having had a very enjoyable time.

The annual meeting of the District was held Saturday, April 22, with the Pamlico Chapter in the Auditorium of the Washington Collegiate Institute, Washington Park, Washington. Reports of the various Chapters were read and these revealed very satisfactory results. The George Stanley Dewey Loving Cup awarded to the Chapter making the best educational report for the year, was won by the A. M. Waddell Chapter of Kinston. The prize of $10 in gold awarded for the greatest increase in membership during the year, was won by the Joseph Kinsey Chapter of C. of C. of LaGrange. Mrs. C. F. Harvey of the A. M. Waddell Chapter, Kinston, was elected District Director for the coming year.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. D. L. M. Fields, President of the Col. C. F. Whitfield Chapter, LaGrange, to the District to be their guest at the next meeting, in the Spring of 1923, which invitation was unanimously accepted. The weather was very unfavorable; but even with this, we had a splendid gathering, and upon adjournment all expressed themselves as being amply repaid for having made the effort to be present.

On May 10, Memorial exercises were observed by the District. The Veterans, their wives and widows, were all cared for in a splendid way. During the entire year special attention was given these, and they have been ministered unto in a very generous manner. Both of the Confederate Homes have been remembered with valuable contributions of various kinds.

Acting upon the suggestion of Mrs. Wilson, our President, I have had made a U. D. C. flag, indicating thereon by gold stars the number of Chapters of U. D. C. and members thereof in the District, also by silver stars the number of Chapters of C. of C. and members. The flag is now in possession of this Convention, to be used as it may direct.

All communications of importance concering the work coming into my hands during the year, have been referred to the several Chapters for their consideration.

The financial report, showing disbursements for the year, is as follows: Total .amount $4,426.16, composed of the items enumerated below:

ceases. > Respectfully submitted. MRS. CHARLES S. WALLACE. Director Fourteenth District.

DISTRICT No. 16

The annual meeting of the Sixteenth District, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held in the Ahoskie High School Auditorium, May 17, 1922.

Despite most unfavorable weather, the majority of the 10 Chapters comprising this District were represented, and with the added forces of a representative number of the townspeople we were a goodly congregation to join in the opening prayer by Mr. Barker, a Methodist minister. "The Star Spangled Banner" was then heartily sung by all present.

Mrs. Joe Vann, President of the local Chapter, very graciously welcomed us in the name of her organization, embodying a pleasing recognition of the old Veterans present, about six in number. Mr. Williams, an attorney, followed Mrs. Vann in an address of welcome in behalf of the town. He made most flattering remarks to us women regarding our efforts in keeping alive the history of the Confederacy, made by these brave old soldiers, referring to the women as a vital part of the Confederacy. Mrs. F. M. Dunstan of the Frank Byrd Chapter, U. D. C., of Windsor, responded to these addresses in a very appropriate and pleasing manner.

Mrs. Gatling, our District Leader, added a few remarks, complimenting Ahoskie's hospitality and apparent interest in our meeting. She urged each Chapter to complete its own history, to be turned over to the State Historian, Mrs. John L. Bridgers of Tarboro, who requested that this be done.

Minutes and roll-call followed, to which Ahoskie, Aulander, Elizabeth City, Merry Hill, Winton and Windsor responded with a creditable delegation.

Mrs. Stanley Leary, of the Ahoskie Chapter, sang very sweetly for us at this interval. Mrs. Wilson, our State President, was to have talked to us at this time, but unavoidable circumstances had prevented her coming. She sent us an inspiring message, however, which Mrs. Gatling read. She urged us to attend the State Convention to be held in Wilmington in October. This particular meeting, she explained, would be of unusual interest, it being the Silver Anniversary at the home of the Mother of the State organization, Mrs. Parsley.

Mrs. Bridger of Winton then introduced our State Historian, Mrs. J. L. Bridgers of Tarboro, who won our hearts by her gentle, retiring manner and her enthusiasm and interest in her work. She told of North Carolina's honor in winning the most prizes offered for the various objects, and of her visit to the Text-Books Committee, and to Dr. Brooks, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, begging their coöperation in excluding Muzzy's History from the State schools, this particular publication being so false and so unjust to the South.

This was followed by several vocal selections by Miss Wynne, a guest of Mrs. Dunstan, accompanied by Mr. Kenneth Raynor of Ahoskie.

Committees on nomination of officers, place and time of next meeting and resolutions were then approinted.

After singing "Dixie," adjournment for luncheon was taken. This proved a most delightful affair. Aside from the many good things prepared for us, it was a real feast of love and goodfellowship in which all mingled and were happy.

The afternoon session opened at 2:30. "America" was sung and the usual routine business was begun. Several interesting addresses followed, Miss Early of Aulander making such an interesting talk that it was moved and carried to have it sent to the News and Observer for publication.

Mrs. R. P. Holt, State Director of War Records, then spoke to us with her usual simple earnestness. In presenting the causes so dear to her she mentioned many object worthy of notice, asking for donations to monuments, etc. Her tribute to Major Cunningham for his services and untiring love for the old soldiers and Daughters was one of real personal love and knowledge. She alluded to him as the father of The Confederate Veteran, which paper she wanted to see in every Southern home, U. D. C. Library, and public school in the State.

Mrs. Holt urged us on to victory with our Lee Memorial Fund, Educational work, and organization of Children's Chapters. Here again North Carolina leads, having more than any other State. Her most earnest appeal was for the registration of our World War soldiers. This can never be done unless each Chapter will get a record of the number of soldiers from its county. Elizabeth City leads in this work in this District, some of the Chapters not having responded to the call at all. She begged our interest in the circulation of "Women in War Times" and in pictures of Lee, Jackson, Davis and others of like fame, these to be hung in our schools. She deplored the fact that so few such pictures were seen, and stated that the Atlanta Division was having one made of Jefferson Davis to be sent to the Convention city from year to year and placed directly behind the President-General's chair.

The speaker pointed to the necessity of filling in the report blanks sent us, as that was the only means of determining our voting strength and getting the desired information. Mrs. Holt closed her remarks by asking us to support Mrs. B. A. Blenner of Richmond for our next National Corresponding Secretary. This we did, knowing Mrs. Holt was in a position to give us reliable judgment on the subject.

Mrs. Dunstan was then asked to report to us concerning the Junior Work, which she did with enthusiasm. Having been the Leader of the Thomas Garrett Chapter of Bertie County she is naturally especially interested in this work.

Election of officers followed. Mrs. R. C. Bridger of Winton was made Leader. This office was very graciously accepted by her; and in a few well-chosen remarks she pledged herself ready and willing to serve the Sixteenth Division most faithfully. Mrs. Joe Vann of Ahoskie was elected Secretary.

Mrs. C. J. Rher of Windsor then read fitting resolutions on entertainment, expressing our appreciation for the many courtesies extended to us.

Creditable reports from all the Chapters in this District were read, showing good, live interest in the work at hand.

Aulander invited the next District meeting. The invitation was held open, however, for further discussion.

Mrs. Vann then invited the entire delegation, in the name of her Chapter, to Ahoskie's little up-to-date theatre, where a special picture was being run for us. After appropriate music, the meeting adjourned.

Miss Barker of Ahoskie served us faithfully as our pianist, for which she was voted thanks.

Mrs. E. L. Gatling, Leader, Mrs. H. M. Bell, Secretary.

WADESBORO-ANSON CHAPTER, No. 357

On Christmas, Anson Chapter will be 23 years old and it makes us happy to know that in all these years we have never missed celebrating our sacred days, when we honor our greatest leaders and through them the men they led and loved. We are very proud of our Frank Bennett, Jr., Chapter, especially in that they have just organized out of their ranks the Laura Little Chapter of young ladies from eighteen to twenty-five years of age. This Chapter is named for one whose gentle soul burned with love for our Veterans, and whose frail fingers never ceased to work for them. I can not refrain from again calling to your attention the fact that many Veterans of another war, some of them our own sons, are sick and far from their own people, in the hospitals in Western North Carolina, and I hope that each of our Chapters will not fail in love and interest for these men whose bodies are broken for us.

MARY BENNETT LITTLE,

President.

WASHINGTON-PAMLICO CHAPTER, No. 43

We have in this Chapter 75 members and the promise of nine new members this month. We have received one demit from New Bern Chapter and issued a demit to an old member to join the Robert E. Lee Chapter, Denver, Colo. This Chapter entertained the District meeting, with large attendance. We have given two local school prizes for papers written about the Confederacy.

Mrs. John C. Rodman,

President.

WAYNESVILLE-HAYWOOD CHAPTER, No. 940

The Haywood Chapter wishes to report a most prosperous year, one of increased interest and activity. Have paid annual tax and sinking fund, contributed $5 to tubercular bed at Sanatorium; $5 to Confederate Woman's Relief; $25 to Hero Fund, and $5 to a needy Veteran.

The Chapter had a beautiful float, representing the period of 1861, in the Parade on Armistice Day. Just before Christmas we sent a lovely box of presents to the Confederate Woman's Home at Fayetteville. This box was valued at $15. The names of the old ladies were secured and cards were placed on each article, making it more personal.

At Christmas, cards were sent to all Veterans and widows of Veterans.

On January 19 we observed Maury's Birthday by a contribution of $5 to the Maury Monument Fund. This was given by the school children and the Chapter.

We observed Lee and Jackson Day with a very interesting program at the High School, and on May 10, Southern Memorial Day. We had an appropriate program at the High School Auditorium. On this occasion the prize essay on "Robert E. Lee," written by a 14-year old school girl, was read and the $5 in gold was awarded. The Daughters decorated all the graves of Confederate Veterans in the cemetery. The Chapter assisted the Local Post of the American Legion in entertaining their District meeting. A laurel wreath was placed on the graves of all World War Veterans that were returned here for burial, who were sons of Confederate Veterans.

On June 3, we celebrated with our annual picnic dinner on the Courthouse Green. Invitations were sent to all Confederate Veterans and their wives, and the widows of Confederate Veterans. A splendid program was given, consisting of old war songs, addresses and recitations. The Children's Chapter took part in the program. A bountiful dinner was served. There were four Crosses of Honor presented.

We have filled 25 war records. Several of our members subscribe to The Confederate Veteran.

The Chapter gave $10 to the Gettysburg fund and $1 to Lee Memorial.

Our District Leader was with us at our July meeting and gave a splendid talk.

Our Chapter Historian has 82 historical articles. A benefit ball was given through the efforts of our Historian, for the purpose of raising funds to put markers at the graves of our unmarked Confederate Veterans, $70 being realized from this.

We are meeting through the summer, giving us twelve regular meetings. We adopted the State Historical program, and after business have one historical paper and old songs, which we find very interesting. Five new members have been added this year.

WHITEVILLE-JEFFERSON DAVIS CHAPTER, No. 657

We consider the most worthy things we have done were to give comfort and cheer to a poor, grieved old Veteran at last Christmastime. He had lost his wife. We visited him, cheered him, and gave him things he needed.

We secured, through our County Commissioner, free transportation for eight Veterans to the Reunion in Richmond. The annual dinner to our Veterans is the biggest event in our Chapter during the year. We crowd as much pleasure into the day as we can afford. It is a wonderful treat to them.

As soon as our new school building is completed we expect to present two new pictures and a flag to the school. During the year we have contributed to the following: Free T. B. Bed Fund, Hero Fund, Soldiers' Home and Confederate Woman's Home. Our local expense includes floral designs for graves of Daughters who pass away, as well as for Veterans also.

In Memoriam

At the hour of noon, Thursday, October 12, the business of the Convention was suspended for the Memorial exercises, with Mrs. E. F. Reid, Chaplain, presiding. Mrs. Reid presented the members of the Memorial Committee: Mrs. I. W. Faison, Charlotte; Mrs. L. T. Townsend, Lumberton, and Mrs. R. W. Hicks, Wilmington. Dr. A. D. P. Gilmore, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, conducted the devotional part of the service, and in a few well chosen words paid a beautiful tribute to the Daughters. Mrs. E. K. Bryant gave a beautiful vocal selection—a song of triumphant faith and victory over death. Mrs. Reid then gave a short Memorial address, which follows:

"We do not wish to make of this a sad occasion, but rather one of rejoicing—for, do we not rejoice in the memory of the lives and character of these who have only gone on before us? We wish that we had time to repeat the words of loving praise which came with the lists of names. Do we fully appreciate the heritage of a life well spent and the wonderful heritage we have in the lives of so many of the men and women of our beloved Confederacy? Dr. Vardell, President of Flora McDonald College, recently paid a tribute to these noble women in whose heritage we rejoice, which inspired some feeling comment by 'A Daughter' in the public press, which was so appropriate that I will repeat it in part:

"'We might search the annals of history for ages past, but we would find no heroines more worthy the name than those dear women of the Confederacy.

"'There was no premium placed on patriotism in those days, and all the money in the world could not have purchased the principles for which they fought and died.

"'Lots of them were left bewildered, with nothing but the cold earth on which they were standing and no knowledge as to how to till it, but with clean hands and a conscience void of offense, they worked; they prayed and they sang, thank God, they sang, and the echo of those songs, and the spirit that prompted them are ringing yet in the hearts of all true-hearted Southerners.'

"And so we sorrow with those who have been bereft of their loved ones, but we rejoice with them in their many consolations."

The roll was then called of departed Daughters of the North Carolina Division who were called home during the past year, 42 in number.

The following Memorials were read:

Memorial to Mrs. William Dorsey Pender by Mrs. J. L. Bridgers. Memorial to Mrs. Charlotte Bennett Dunlop by Mrs. R. E. Little. Mrs. Culthbert Martin paid a beautiful tribute to her life-long friend and "chum," Gen. James I. Metts.

Mrs. Reid then read a beautiful and worthy eulogy of our beloved honorary member, Mrs. H. L. Riggins, written and sent by the Secretary of the James R. Gordon Chapter, Winston-Salem.

At this point in the service a dozen or more beautiful little girls dressed in white, marched in, bearing exquisite floral designs and wreaths of evergreen and grouped themselves in front of the rostrum.

It was explained that these beautiful designs with many others like them, had been sent by Chapters all over the State, to be placed on the graves of Miss Hettie James, Hon. George Davis, Gen. James I. Metts, Mrs. W. M. Parsley and Mr. Cyril Long, only son of our beloved Treasurer, Mrs. L. F. Long of Newton.

Mrs. A. M. Waddell was then presented and in her own charming way paid loving tribute to her friend and our "mother," Mrs. Wm. Parsley, with the audience standing as mute testimony of their love and reverence for this saintly woman.

MEMORIAL TO GEN. JAMES I. METTS

The death of Maj. Gen. James I. Metts, Commander-in-Chief of the North Carolina Veterans, has given grief to us, the Daughters of the Confederacy, and brought mourning to the State.

From boyhood until death he devoted himself to the service of the Confederate Veterans. In perfect health, with a physique that betokened many more years of usefulness, this hero of the Civil War met with an accident at Wilmington, and expired October 18, 1921.

He had hardly reached his nineteenth birthday when, in response to the call of North Carolina, he enlisted as a private in the Rifle Guards, a company formed by his associates at his home in Wilmington, and with it on April 15th, 1861, he went to occupy Fort Caswell.

At one time this Wilmington company had on its rolls more than 100 men, ranging from 16 to 22 years of age, with only one married man among them. This devoted band is known as Co. I, 18th Regiment, North Carolina Troops.

The fine carriage of Private Metts led to his being given charge of the Regimental Colors, which he carried until, on the reorganizticular distinction in the Seven Days Battle before Richmond. ation a year later, he enlisted in the Third Regiment, under Col. Gaston Meares. His bravery and fine capacity won for him par-

In every battle it was the same. In the assault at Culp's Hill, on the evening of the second day at Gettysburg, he led his men close up to the Federal breastworks, and there received a wound in his left lung. His sufferings were intense and his condition was so hopeless that his recovery was perhaps a miraculous intervention of Providence, preserving his life for future usefulness.

After a year of cruel suffering at Johnson's Island, he was selected as one of the most enfeebled of the prisoners for exchange; and on rejoining his command, served in Cox's Brigade, Grimes Division, and on the staff of General Grimes, always gaining honors, until at length he bowed his head in sorrow at Appomattox.

Returning home, he was an examplar in peace as he had been in war. The hero on the battlefield now became the patriot in civil life. Throughout the years he set an example of patient industry, of cheerful performance of the duties of citizenship, and of benevolence, that was not without its effect in his community. In a spirit of fine manhood, he met and overcame adversity and won success in life, enjoying the esteem, admiration and affection of all his associates.

While we embalm his memory as a hero and patriot, ever devoted to his Confederate associates and worthy of the high honors accorded him, we shall long remember his uniform courtesy and cheerfulness, his bright eyes, his attractive manner, and his engaging pensonality. In his demise the State has lost one of the brightest ornaments of her citizenship.

The grey line is almost extinguished. The few survivors are as sentinels standing out on the skyline of a glorious past, and of these few no one bearing the name of a Confederate Veteran more fully exemplified the character and more perfectly expressed the chivalry of our beloved cause than Gen. James Isaac Metts. It seems that the protecting hand of Providence spared him to a ripe old age in order that the present generation might profit by the example of one who so fully represented the best traditions of a struggle whose heroic efforts and deathless valor challenged the wonder and admiration of the world. Thus, he has been a link between the past and the present, diffusing a spirit of love for the old regime, in nowise incompatible with loyalty to the present and hope for the future. His life was grounded on the rock of principle. To expediency he was a stranger, to deceit a foe, to candor a champion, to truth a defender, to friendship the essence of fidelity. He has held his last reunion on earth, and has now joined his old comrades in a spiritual reunion where there will be no more parting.

MEMORIAL TO HENRY LOGAN RIGGINS

Into eternal rest has passed one of the most loyal friends of the North Carolina Division of the U. D. C.—Mr. Henry Logan Riggins, husband of the beloved President of the James B. Gordon Chapter of Winston-Salem. Eleven years ago, when the State Convention met in the Twin City. Mr. Riggins was elected an honorary member of the State organization, and no Daughter ever loved the cause more truly.

In historic old Henrico County, Virginia, not far from the capital of the Confederacy, Mr. Riggins was born in 1861, and there seems to have been breathed into his very soul a devotion to the "Lost Cause." Among his earliest recollections was the sound of cannon as the armies fought over the bloody battle-ground of his native State.

Mr. Riggins came to Winston-Salem as a young man, and was actively identified with the city in every phase of its growth. In business, in civic improvement, in its church life and in its charities, he was always a leading spirit.

He married into one of the oldest and most prominent families when he chose for his life's companion Mary Gorrell. For thirty-two years they lived in this blessed union, making a home that it was a privilege to enter. Even the casual caller was impressed with the love, cheer, and friendliness that pervaded its sacred atmosphere.

Mr. Riggins was always an inspiration to the local Chapter. The Children of the Confederacy adored him, the Daughters turned to him for help and advice, while the Veterans recognized him as their friend and benefactor.

When Winston-Salem was hostess to the N. C. Division t second time, Mr. Riggins was in failing health, but the occasion seemed to renew his strength and he was present at some session nearly every day. When it was announced that a scholarship a the State Normal had been given in his name, "The Henry L Riggins Scholarship," the prolonged applause made one realize it was "honor to whom honor was due."

For several years before the end came, Mr. Riggins was almost an invalid; but he bore his affliction with the same noble spirit that characterized his whole life—never a word of complaint—always a thought for others—he seemed to grow just a little nearer Heaven each day.

So much could be said of the life of this man, but the words of Edgar A. Guest's poem "Looking Back"—one which he loved—

- seem so fittingly to portray his life's aims that they shall speak for him.
- "I might have been rich if I'd wanted the gold instead of the friendships I've made;
- I might have had fame if I'd sought for renown in the hours when I purposely played;
- Now I'm standing today on the far edge of life, and I'm just looking backward to see
- What I've done with the years and the days that were mine, and all that has happened to me.
- "I haven't built much of a fortune to leave to those who shall carry my name,
- And nothing I've done shall entitle me now to a place on the tablets of fame.
- But I've loved the great sky and its spaces of blue; I've lived with the birds and the trees;
- I've turned from the splendor of silver and gold to share in such pleasures as these.
- "I've given my time to the children who came, together we've romped and we've played;
- And I wouldn't exchange the glad hours spent with them for the money that I might have made.
- I chose to be known and be loved by the few, and was deaf to the plaudits of men;
- And I'd make the same choice should the chance come to me to live my life over again.
- "I've lived with my friends and I've shared in their joys, known sorrows with all of its tears;
- I have harvested much from my acres of life, though some say I've squandered my years.
- For much that is fine has been mine to enjoy, and I think I have lived to my best,
- And I have no regret, as I'm nearing the end, for the gold that I might have possessed."

MEMORIAL TO MRS. WILLIAM DORSEY PENDER

On Monday, July 3, 1922, at the home of her son, Stephen Lee Pender, in historic old Frederickburg, Mrs. Frances Sheppard Pender, widow of Gen. William Dorsey Pender, passed peacefully away, in the eighty-third year of her age—59 years after Gen. Pender was killed at Gettysburg.

She came to Tarboro in the early 60's, a fair young bride, and there are many who can recall her bright, sparkling manner and charming courtesy, which endeared her to all who came under the spell of her presence. They remember her joy and happiness as a wife and mother until the war came and snatched from her side the beloved husband and father.

Left desolate and alone, with three splendid sons to rear, two of whom preceded her to the grave, she became one of the State's foremost educators. A scholar, a linguist, a talented musician, her training and influence and wonderful personality have added charm and culture to many homes, and her memory has lingered like the fragrance of roses.

In Calvary churchyard, by the side of her illustrious husband, she sleeps "waiting for the General Resurrection at the last day."

MRS. J. L. BRIDGERS.

MEMORIAL TO MRS. JOSEPH I. DUNLAP

In Wadesboro, N. C., August 20, 1922, there passed into the next life Mrs. Joseph I. Dunlap, (Charlotte Bennett), one of whom it may truly be said that all who knew her "rise up and called her blessed." Sister of Capt. Frank Bennett, a Confederate soldier of the finest type, she went through Sherman's raid, her father's splendid plantation being directly in the Federal march across Anson County. Mrs. Dunlap has left an account of those three unspeakable days, during which the vandals burned, and stole everything movable, and killed every animal on the plantation. Going to the next plantation, they shot on his own doorstep, the owner James C. Bennett, an original Union man. God forgive them, we say, after nearly sixty years.

But may these fearful wrongs continue to inspire us as they did the friend we lovingly honor today—to courage, unshaken in every relation of life and to absolute devotion and fidelity to those eternal principles on which the Confederacy was founded and for which so many precious souls gave their all.

A MEMORIAL TO MRS. JANE DE ROSSIT

Just as the earth was bringing forth its increase and the bell of the church she loved so well was calling her children to come for instructions and benedictions, our friend and associate passed from this mortal life to life eternal.

What a fitting time for one who, when the last summons came, to answer, "Here, Lord, now let thy servant depart in peace."

O Death! sharp be thy wounds, but sweet the medicines be That long-captive souls from weary thralldom flee.

Rest in peace, our faithful friend and companion in the Daughters of the Confederacy!

4th. To assist descendants of worthy Confederates in securing proper education by securing scholarships for them.

5th. To bring into the organization all women eligible to membership, and to cherish the ties of friendship that bind us in one great organization.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED

Chapter Presidents are requested to note especially:

Chapter Presidents will remember that all taxes, both State and General, must be paid to the State Treasurer before votes can be counted in Convention. These taxes must be paid before September 1, or votes are lost. State taxes are now 30 cents and General taxes 20 cents, making 50 cents to be sent for each member to the State Treasury. At the same time, send $1.00 for each Chapter to Sinking Fund.

Money must be sent by Postoffice Money Order only.

All members must be registered to vote.

All Chapter Registrars must, by September 15th of each year, send a correct list of members to the State Registrar.

All money for any and all causes, must be sent to Mrs. C. S. Wallace, State Treasurer, Morehead City, not to Chairmen of Committees or to private individuals. State for what causes.

U. D. C. Membership Certificates cost 25 cents. This amount must accompany application.

All Chapter elections must be held at regular or called meetings in October. This is very important, to get correct list in Minutes, both General and State.

Do not fail to notify the President of your hostess Chapter by September 15 how many delegates will attend the Convention.

When desiring information regarding the Soldier's Home, write to Miss Martha Haywood, Raleigh, N. C. When desiring information regarding the Confederate Women's Home, write to Mrs. Hunter G. Smith, Fayetteville.

District meetings will be held in the spring. All leaders are urged to hold these meetings, and reports should be sent at once to the State President.

Please publish lists of scholarships in local papers.

Send in applications for scholarships to Mrs. L. B. Newell, Charlotte, Chairman of Education, before May 1, and reports of scholarship and medals given before June 15. North Carolina adopted the official U. D. C. medal, and blanks may be obtained from Miss Lizzie Lindsay, First Vice-President, Greensboro. Confine Chapter reports to the space given on one side of the blank, and do not exceed 150 words.

At the request of the President, the following were introduced to the Convention: Third Vice-President General, Mrs. Massey, of Arkansas; Commander of Confederate Veterans, General Smith, and other honored guests.

The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Goode, read telegrams of greeting and regrets from some of those unable to be present.

The report of Committee on Credentials was read by Mrs. E. R. Michaux. Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that this report be accepted as a partial report. This motion was carried.

The First Vice-President, Mrs. T. E. Sprunt, was called to the chair while Mrs. R. P. Holt read the President's report.

To the North Carolina Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, in Convention Assembled:

A year ago, when we met in Wilmington, the home of our beloved Mrs. Parsley, the Mother of our Division, you conferred upon me the highest honor that was yours to give, a sacred trust, which I accepted with gratitude and humility, promising but one thing—that I would give you my best.

Today, we gather together to review the work of the year and to plan for still greater things yet to be accomplished. Honors carry with them obligations. Unless we discharge the obligations, the honors become a reproach. Daughters, I have ever had that thought before me and have tried in every way to do what would be best for our Division, even though, in some instances, it was hard.

With these thoughts, your President submits to you her part in the work we are doing together, for without you my work would have been worthless. It is to each Daughter who has given of her time and her means that praise is due for the work accomplished this year.

In declaring this Convention formally opened, I want every Daughter to feel that this is "her Convention." Please be in your places during all the business sessions, for when you least expect, some vital question may come up for discussion. The program has been changed some from what we usually have, so that we may give the whole of Historical Evening to our beloved President-General and Major Charles M. Stedman, the grand old man of the Confederacy. The prizes will be awarded right after the report of the office under which the prize is offered.

Last November, when, as a private, I attended the General Convention, I felt so proud of our Division and the wonderful work done by our President, Mrs. Thos. W. Wilson, I there made myself a promise that I would endeavor to maintain the high standard of my predecessors. You will have to be the judge of how that promise has been kept.

Mrs. Wilson, your representative and my friend, showed me every courtesy possible. On Monday evening I was her guest at the President's banquet and I cannot express my appreciation, for that evening has meant so much to me in my work this year. She had the honor of casting 200 votes in the election, which was the greatest number cast. I know that makes you feel thankful that you had registered your Chapter, paid your per capita taxes and sent your credentials in on time.

On Historical Evening, you would have felt great pride in your Division, for you won the Raines Banner for the best Historical Report; Youree Prize for the greatest number of World War Records; Roberts and Arkansas Medals for best papers; Mrs. John C. Brown Peace Prize for best paper on Peace by a pupil in the High School; Alexander Allen Faris Loving Cup for the greatest number of new members between the ages of 18 to 25, Second Hunt Prize for the second greatest number of new members. Our Children of the Confederacy also won honors, for our Director won the Bettie Marriott Whitehead Prize for registering the greatest number of new members and the Julia Jackson Chapter of Charlotte won the Ricks Banner for the best report.

We now have registered 9,775 U. D. C. members with their papers all filed with State and General Registrars. I have this year signed 510 Certificates, but, of course, many of these were for old members.

We have 2,978 children registered in our State, and, Daughters, these children will be the ones who will soon be called to fill our places and carry on our work. Are you doing your part to help prepare them for that work?

We lead in the C. of C. work, but we still have many chapters that have not organized a C. of C. chapter. Daughters, you do not realize the importance of this, I feel sure. Stop and consider the little you would know about the truths of the days of the Sixties if you had not heard them from the lips of the dear old women and grand old men who lived during those trying days. The children of the next generation will not have that privilege, they will not know of the high ideals and standards, the hardships and sacrifices, unless we teach them, and where else, except in the C. of C. chapters, can we reach them.

One of our greatest needs is an enlarged membership. Of course, we want those of mature years, but as I joined really before I could lawfully, I realize, that the young women feel that they have little part in the chapters made up of women so much older, and feel embarrassed by their presence. The young women realize that the older women are so much more experienced and, therefore, they either don't join at all, or join and don't attend the meetings. If it is possible, take the advice of our President-General and our former President-General, Miss Poppenheim, and organize a chapter of young women in your town; where that is not possible, then try to interest them in forming a circle in your chapter and work to themselves, meeting with your chapter once or twice a year, but if they do that, be sure that they are always represented on your Executive Board and have their share of delegates when they are elected for both State and General Conventions. We need the young people and they will enjoy the work if we can only get them interested.

Remember, you and I have pledged to carry on the good name and fame of the Confederacy wherever and whenever the subject is mentioned. We need the aid of all women in our State who are eligible and to this end I ask that we put on a membership drive all over our Division the first week in November. Think what it would mean to double our membership during this next year. We stand right at the top in the General Organization, but with a doubled membership we could go over the top and could do so much more for the different causes.

REGISTRATION

We have gone almost to the top in registration and I wish every member of our Division could visit the home of our State Registrar and see our steel files and go over the work with her. She has worked by day and by night, and if those few chapters that have not filed the records of their chapters with both the State and General Registrars, will only do so, we will soon have a perfect Division as far as registration is concerned, and I cannot see how we can ever have any more trouble over it. Mrs. Long has brought one of the sections of her file with her and will tell you more about it later. Daughters, she has had all of the records made and filed, of those chapters that are dead, so now I know you will not want to be the one that is keeping our Division from being able to report a perfect registration; so when you go home, go right to work and send the three copies of every member's record that has belonged to your chapter since its organization.

CONFEDERATE WOMEN AND VETERANS

This is to me our most sacred work and our first duty. I do not need to tell you the necessity for your help in this. You all know your duty and responsibility to those old heroes and heroines who are still among us and who need aid and comfort in their sunset days. I know this work will be well done if you will just stop and think. I have been so delighted recently, for I know of one chapter that has taken the list of Veterans in their county and divided it among the circles in the chapter and they are caring for and helping these dear old men to pass their last days more pleasantly. Now this has not taken the place of their charges at the Home in Raleigh and they have gone yet further, they have adopted them a Daughter from the members of our family in Fayetteville.

The children too are thinking of the old heroes, for I have heard that the Julia Jackson Chapter C. of C., have spent this entire year working for the veterans and suffering humanity, having sent around eight hundred dollars ($800.00).

I can never express my appreciation to you for the way you have responded to my appeal to adopt our Veterans in the Home. All I want to add is—remember them at all times, in season and out of season—they are our special charge.

I cannot leave the subject of our Veterans without referring to those who are always on their job. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggs, our own Mrs. H. M. London, and Miss Martha Haywood. To these, we owe a debt of gratitude, for I have this year been permitted to visit the Home fourteen times, at all hours of the day, and once at night, and I have always found things running along smoothly, the men as happy as could be under the circumstances, and when talking to them, have had them to mention each of these friends and say what they mean to the Home and to them.

I have not had the pleasure of visiting our dear old ladies as often as I would wish, but when with them in April, I was delighted to find how happy they were, and in most cases, how they appreciate the Home and what the Daughters are doing for them. It was right pathetic the way they would follow Mrs. Smith around, calling her "Mother." Don't think you must wait to do something big for these old people, for since they are separated from home and loved ones any little attention means much to them. Just think how long the days must be to those who have to sit and think only of the days that have gone. Go to see them, write them and remember them in many little ways, for the time is short in which we have to serve them.

I am so glad our Division has caught a wider vision than some and are willing, not only to think of those who are with us, but of those men and women of the Sixties who in earlier life went to the North and West to make their homes and now in the evening tide of life are all alone and need aid. This year we have given to the Janet Randolph Relief Fund $175.00. If your Chapter did not contribute to that fund this year remember next year to do so, for these old people have a right to look to the Daughters to care for them the few years they have with us.

EDUCATION

Education is the outstanding point in our star of service. This part of our work represents the future of our organization, as well as the future of the South, in history and civilization, for it is only through our educational foundations that the truth and grandeur behind our patriotism can become a part of the nation's history.

I know the work for education is the most constructive in any organization. We intend to build so that the U.D.C. may live as long as our great country exists. We are a patriotic society. We are a part of America's history, and we must ever be devoted to our record and ready to defend it whenever it is assailed. In no other way can this be done, but by educating the children of America under the guidance of the hands of men and women who are loyal to our Southland.

It is conceded that no greater honor can be paid the heroes of the Sixties than to provide education for their children and their children's children, for education is the only foundation that cannot be taken from them.

Daughters of North Carolina, that has been our weakest spot, but I am so glad that we are waking up to our duty. Last year, we made a forward step, when we accepted the recommendation of our retiring second Vice-President and voted for every chapter to pay towards education 25c per member.

The past year we had seven girls at N. C. C. W., a boy at Trinity, a boy at the University and a girl at Flora MacDonald, besides, those several chapters have reported scholarships. I do trust that many more scholarships may be added during this next year. I have been made so happy by our second Vice-President, who has worked so hard for her department and has been able to make some girls happy this year, whom it would have been impossible for us to have helped but for her untiring labors.

We have this year several boys who are being helped by the General Organization, but our Chairman of Education will tell you all about our work. I wish each of you would order yourself a copy of the General Minutes and study the report of the educational committee and then you would realize what a wonderful work is being done by our Organization.

MEMORIALS

I know every Daughter in our Division is happy over the completion of the Stars and Bars Memorial. This work can now be stricken from our calendar. I am proud to tell you that it is all paid for and now stands on the Court House Square in Louisburg to tell the coming generation that our Division appreciates the fact that it was a North Carolinian who designed the First Flag of the Confederacy. I will leave it for the Committee to tell you of the unveiling, costs, etc., but I must thank the Daughters who attended the unveiling and the ladies of Louisburg, who so beautifully arranged for the exercises and served such a splendid dinner to all visitors.

In the afternoon, with a party of about twenty daughters from my Chapter and Mr. J. J. Allen, the brother of Orren Randolph Smith, I left Louisburg and went by the grave of Anne Carter Lee. Daughters of North Carolina, that spot is a disgrace to our Division, to our State. The road for over three miles is dreadful and then the last quarter of a mile you have to walk, and when you get to the grave-yard you have to push through weeds and brush to get into the enclosure; then across to one corner, to get to her grave. Twice in the past year it has been my pleasure to go to this sacred spot and place on this forsaken little grave a laurel wreath with our colors and the flag that her father followed. On my first visit, Mr. Holt and I spent much time in pulling up the weeds and trying to get the grave clear so that the flowers carried could be placed thereon. Daughters, this is a question we must not put aside, something must be done. Only two things can be done, either we must get the written promise of those who are near enough, to visit that sacred spot and see that it is attended to, or we must see to it that her ashes are returned to Lexington, where sleep all the rest of her family and where a niche has been left for her in the mausoleum. I know that when General Lee visited this spot, which was nearly sixty years ago, he said he wanted her to remain in that lovely spot under the pines, but things have changed since then. At that time that was the center of the social life in this Statenow it is a wilderness; then the graveyard was kept up, as the places of our dead should be; now that the family have all moved away it is sadly neglected. (Daughters, I hate to say these things, for that family and mine are closely connected and the ones left I know well, but these things are so with all old family graveyards, where the land has passed into other hands). In the last few years the father of General Lee has been moved and placed with the rest of the family, as well as several of the members of the family who were buried at their old home "Ravensworth." Now, Daughters, I want you to think about this and decide what is best to do, for we cannot afford to allow our Division and our State to remain in a position to be severely criticized, which is the position we have been in for many years.

We, of this State, were beginning to feel discouraged about getting the Jefferson Davis Highway routed through our State, but I am glad this time that it was darkest just before day, for our Committee has been notified by the Highway Commission the route, and now we must get our markers and mark it before some one else can claim it and give it another name. This route connects with the Virginia and South Carolina links of the Jefferson Davis Highway. The Committee will go more into details and tell you what they want us to do.

Our next greatest achievement along this line is our contribution to the Jefferson Davis Monument. When in Birmingham, the Divisions were asked to make pledges to help complete this monument to our only President. Your President, Mrs. Wilson, and your incoming President decided that our Division would want to do its very best for this work, which should be completed before our Veterans, who were the ones to start it, should all be gone, or too feeble to attend the unveiling, so she pledged for us $1,000. Some felt that we would never raise that amount, but with a prayer and faith in you I made a promise that if the Division did not raise it I would see that it was paid and our Division not disgraced by an unpaid pledge. You have proven your devotion and loyalty, for today I am so happy to be able to report to you that we have not only paid our pledge, but this year have paid over $1,850 toward this monument, and I cannot thank you enough for your loyalty.

Now I will leave it to your Director to tell you more definitely what you, as Chapters, have done, and then I want our Director-General to tell us of the work of the other Divisions and how we compare with them. We pledged $25 to help complete the Cunningham Memorial Scholarship and have sent $50. Daughters, I am so glad, for we can never do too much for education, or in memory of Col. Cunningham, who did so much for OUR CAUSE.

One of the greatest causes we are asked to work for is our "Lee Memorial Chapel." I am sorry that as a Division we have fallen short in our contributions, but now that we have been able to finish up some of the objects for which we have been working for so long I trust that next year we can do big things for this Memorial.

WORLD WAR RECORDS

How sad my heart is when I have to tell you that only seventeen chapters have sent me any records of our boys who are lineal descendants of Confederate Veterans. North Carolina stands ahead of any State, so far, in filing these records. I beg of each of you to go home and don't leave a single boy who is eligible alone until you have his record.

SCRAPBOOK

Mrs. Bunn, our Custodian, has been at work and I trust will be here to tell you what she has accomplished. Her desire is to place in one book pictures of every Confederate Monument in our State and I hope, along with them, a short history of the unveiling.

PRIZES

In the history of our Division, we have this year the greatest list of prizes we have ever had and I trust they have been an inspiration to many of you and that the study of the lives of our own heroes will make us love our cause and our State more.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

My great desire was to visit every District in our Division this year, but that was not to be, as my health was such that my physicians would not allow it.

On April 4th I attended the meeting of the 13th District, which was held in Tarboro. It was a day to make one feel proud that she was a member of an organization that remembers its Heroes, although their Cause was not victorious. In the afternoon the monument to that great general, William Dorsey Pender, which had been erected at his grave by the Chapter bearing his name, was unveiled with appropriate exercises. Col. Fred Olds, who is always the friend of the Daughters, was there and brought with him the five flags carried by the Regiments under General Pender. These flags carried by Tarboro girls, led the procession from the Church, where the meeting was held, to the Episcopal Church yard, where sleep so many of our Heroes of the Sixties. It was at this time that as your representative, I placed a laurel wreath upon General Pender's grave in your name.

It was my privilege to attend the meeting of the 10th District in Cary. At this meeting the importance of our Division taking over the care of the grounds around the Monument on the battlefield of Bentonville, was brought to our attention by Mrs. Sanders of Smithfield.

On my way to Red Springs I had the pleasure of spending the day with our loyal Daughters at Fayetteville and visiting OUR HOME, leaving in the afternoon for the meeting of the 11th District in Red Springs. The principal point stressed was the continuance of the Scholarship at Flora MacDonald College.

The same week I attended the meetings of the 14th and 15th Districts; the 15th in Halifax, where so much history has been written, and there the Director was wise in giving the Children of the Confederacy a part in the exercises, as did the Director of the 14th District in La Grange on Saturday of the same week. Despite the heavy downpour, the attendance at La Grange was large and it was truly an inspiration to hear the wonderful reports from the Chapters. Mrs. Felix Harvey, the Director, gave us wise counsel, Mrs. Wallace, our Director of C. of C., made a talk on her work and Mrs. Bickett made a strong plea for the completion of our Stars and Bars Memorial.

On May 8th, I spent the day with the 12th District in Burgaw, and as the Director was detained at home on account of illness, we held an informal meeting, at which time all lines of our work were discussed, and I feel that it was a day well spent, for it has brought forth much good. It was a disappointment that Mrs. Marshall Williams was not with us that day, but through the kindness of friends from Goldsboro I was given the privilege of returning in their car and stopping at the home of Mrs. Williams and having a few minutes in which to ask about her committee and what they were doing.

In a few days, my greatest disappointment of the year was to come, for I had everything planned to visit Districts 3, 5, 6 and 8 during the next week, but God ruled otherwise, for on the afternoon of May 12th I was taken suddenly ill and had to forego that pleasure.

Again, in July my plans were to be with District 7 and again the hand of God kept me away, for He, at that time, called to Him my Aunt and your Sister Daughter.

I want to express to each of you the pleasure it gave me to be with the different Districts and Chapters in their meetings, and in the homes of so many of the Daughters of our Division. I can never express in words my appreciation of the many courtesies shown me, but as I said last fall, I am not a speaker, but in my devotion to our work I hope to prove my appreciation.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERAN

Daughters, that is our only communication with our General Officers and I do wish I could report that every Chapter in our Division subscribed to it, for the use of its President and Historian. To me, in all of my U. D. C. work, it has been my right hand, for through its pages I keep up with the work of our own organization and all other Confederate organizations—besides from its pages I have collected many historical facts I could never have found elsewhere. The Veterans all enjoy reading and being read to from its pages and I want to pass on to you what one Chapter did last Christmas. They placed a year's subscription to the name of every veteran in their county, twenty-nine in all. Think how many hours these men have been able to pass reading of the days of their young lives. In all this year only 65 subscriptions have passed through my office, I do hope others have subscribed.

OUR BOOK

Have you honored your Mother and Grandmother by placing copies of OUR BOOK in your homes, where the children of your family can, in the coming years, read from the pens of the "Women of the Sixties" what they did and suffered for our Southland. I am afraid you are far behind this year in this work. Your Director has done her part, but can you say that you have done yours? Your Director will soon tell you which chapters have responded to her calls.

OFFICE WORK

In the early part of the year I prepared a calendar, hoping it would be of help to you until your Minutes were received. One of these was mailed to every President, C. of C. Leader, Historian, all members of the Executive Board, Chairmen of Committees.

I have sent 39 telegrams, 27 phone calls, written 1,802 letters, 15 cards and mailed out over 1,000 circular letters to the Chapters.

Many invitations have come to me as your President and I feel that you should know of them, for they were given me, not personally, but to honor you.

In April General A. H. Boyden, Commander of the Second Brigade of North Carolina Division, U. C. V. honored our Division by extending to your President an invitation to be Matron for his Brigade at the Reunion in New Orleans. I cannot tell you the keen disappointment it was to me not to be able to accept that invitation, but other engagements had been made that made it impossible.

In August, General William A. Smith, Commander in Chief of the N. C. Division, U. C. V., invited me to bring greetings from our Organization to the Veterans at their Reunion in Winston-Salem the first of September. I looked forward to being with them with so much pleasure and had written several that I would meet them there, but again, sickness prevented, and on Saturday before, I wrote General Smith expressing my regrets and sending greetings, then I wired him during the re-union, our Greetings and an invitation to the Veterans to be with us on the day of the unveiling of our Stars and Bars Memorial.

From the Woman's Organizations of Charlotte an invitation was extended to me as your President to represent you at a luncheon on September 28th, during the "Made-in-Carolina-Exposition."

My first official appearance was as your representative on Armistice Day in Nashville, when a tablet was unveiled to the boys of Nash County, who gave their lives for humanity's sake during the World War.

IN MEMORIAM

This year many of our loyal Daughters have been transplanted from our midst and while we will miss them we must ever be ready to carry on their work, as well as our own. To every home and Chapter where sorrow has come, I wish to express my sympathy.

I feel, in the passing of Col. Grimes, our Division and OUR CAUSE has lost a friend whom we will always miss. When God called him from us I sent a floral design in your name and again when death entered the home of our Registrar, Mrs. Long, and called her father, who was a loyal veteran and a physician who had ministered to many during his long life of service, it was in your name that a wreath was sent.

As soon as I saw the announcement of the death of General Booth, I wired his daughter the sympathy of the North Carolina Division and again, when our Nation lost its Chief Executive, I sent a message of sympathy from our Division to Mrs. Harding.

CONCLUSION

In the reports of your officers and Chairmen of the Committees, you will learn of the details of our work. To them must all the praise be given.

For all that you have done to advance our work this year, your President thanks you. For the many errors and things she has left undone, she asks your generous consideration.

With a love for the work that fills my heart, this report is, Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT, (Mrs. R. Philip Holt)

President.

Mrs. Henry A. London expressed strong appreciation of Mrs. Holt's report and her official services. The Convention rose to give Mrs. Holt a vote of thanks.

Reports were heard from the First Vice-President, Mrs. Sprunt, the Second Vice-President, Mrs. Newell, and the Third Vice-President, Mrs. Rodman; all were accepted.

REPORT OF FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT

It is a pleasure to report 192 Application Blanks sent by request; 165 letters answered. This shows a marked increase in the ownership of our Badges and may we not hope that in 1924 every Daughter of the Confederacy will own and wear her Badge.

You will remember that a prize was offered by the Cape Fear Chapter to the Chapter ordering the greatest number of badges during the year and it gives me pleasure to present this prize to the King's Mountain Chapter, they having ordered 17 badges. Total number of badges ordered, 72.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. E. SPRUNT,
First Vice-President

REPORT OF SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT

Madam President and Daughters:

It gives me pleasure to bring the following report of a strenuous year spent in loving service. These activities began immediately after my election as Chairman of Education, and were greatly facilitated by the clear, concise, systematic records of Mrs. Gorrell. It has been my constant endeavor to follow her splendid example and, in some degree measure up to the high standard set by her.

The correspondence connected with the office has been interesting, but very voluminous. A careful canvass of all Chapters has elicited this information, 63 Chapters reporting: $1,140.25 to the State Educational Fund, $135.75 to the General Educational Fund; books valued at $1,210.25 have been presented to schools and libraries, also pictures amounting to $326.10, and prizes amounting to $263; 11 medals costing $98 have been given; flags placed in schools amounting to $64.05. Besides this the Chapter at Morehead City has placed a State flag in every school, white and colored, in the county, and the Chapter at Fayetteville has given 15 flags to county schools. A single Chapter (Brevard) gave Confederate books amounting to $447 to the Library of that place.

Thirteen Chapter scholarships costing $831.00 were reported by these Chapters and two District scholarships, one valued at $60, the other value not stated.

From the 63 Chapter reports submitted I have selected the two which are most comprehensive and which might well serve as models for all ambitious Chapters:

ASHEVILLE

State Education	$ 87.25
Chapter has given six scholarships, valued at	550.00
Chanter has given twelve prizes, valued at	30.00

ROCKY MOUNT-Bethel Heroes

Educational	42.50
General Education Fund	3.00
Prizes, seven, valued at	70.00
Medals, two, valued at	20.00
Books to schools, twelve	16.50
Books to libraries, 169	362.00
Pictures in schools, one	3.00

Did any of you ever try to decide between two or three, or a dozen deserving girls or boys begging for assistance in securing an education? If you want a man size job, just attempt it.

Well, with the able assistance of the other members of the committee the following scholarships have been awarded. Sue Irvin began her education with a U. D. C. Scholarship, was interrupted by manifold duties from which she is now released, and is completing her studies this year by the gift of the William Parsley scholarship.

Herman Jones is at the University of Virginia on a general scholarship. He was placed there by your committee this year. W. W. Zachary, Brevard, N. C., and W. C. Beck, High Point, N. C., have received help from the Hero Fund this year. W. H. Beck holds a scholarship at Trinity College valued at $60.

Ruth Henley, of Durham, was awarded the Jefferson Davis essay scholarship, her paper being judged the best of the 28 papers submitted.

When I took charge of the work there was only one scholarship vacant. Applications came pouring in from all parts of the State. Distressed beyond measure at the urgency of some of these appeals I went to Greensboro to discuss the situation with the Acting President. We decided that there was only one way out of the difficulty, and that was to secure more scholarships. I came home and went to work. When the urgency of the case was made known, the following friends came to the rescue:

Fifty dollars of this money was secured for me by the courtesy of Clarence Kuester, of Charlotte Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Little, your State Treasurer, has this amount in hand, and three girls, Nannie Earl, of Wilson, Kate Hall, of Asheville, and Elizabeth Whitesides, Rutherfordton, are at the North Carolina College for Women.

Ladies, my earnest request is, take up this work and complete the education of these girls, as well as the others we have there, making the total number of girls at N. C. C. W., ten instead of seven. Is not this a goal worth working for?

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. B. NEWELL, Chairman, MRS. Ed. Woodard, MRS. R. P. HOLT.

REPORT OF THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

My news items to the Veteran for the year have been very limited, as I was requested not to send social news, but only items that would be a help and inspiration to work for the other Chapters. All the State Chapters have been very kind in reporting their entertainments, meetings, etc., which I have forwarded to the following papers, The Winston Sentinel, Asheville Citizen, Greensboro Daily News, News and Observer and The Charlotte Observer. The News and Observer has been especially courteous in replying to all communications. The other papers have not replied to my communications, and as I do not subscribe to these papers do not know if they were published.

I regret very much that I have such an uninteresting report. Respectfully,

MRS. WILEY C. RODMAN, Third Vice-President.

Mrs. Holt proposed a rising vote of thanks for the splendid work done by Second Vice-President, Mrs. Newell.

There was no report from the Recording Secretary, this officer being absent.

Mrs. J. B. Goode gave report of Corresponding Secretary which was accepted.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

While holding the office of Corresponding Secretary, I have performed all duties as promptly and accurately as possible.

On Armistice Day I was a member of the committee welcoming the Confederate Veterans at the unveiling of the Memorial to the boys of Nash county who gave their lives during the World War. I had the pleasure of attending the April meeting of District 13, held in Tarboro. Was present at the unveiling of the Stars and Bars Memorial in Louisburg, N. C., after which I made a pilgrimage to the grave of Anne Carter Lee, in Warren county.

I have written two hundred and sixty letters, sent two telegrams and made three long distance calls.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. J. B.) Elaine Goode, Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Bland, Chairman of the Auditing Committee, stated that as the books were not in possession of the Committee, previous to the Convention on account of illness of the Treasurer, she had no report. The books, however, will be audited as soon as possible.

The Historian, Mrs. P. S. Rothrock, read her report, which was accepted.

REPORT OF HISTORIAN

Dear Madam President and Daughters:

A year ago when you, much to my surprise, made me your State Historian, I felt that I knew very little about the duties of this office, but I went to work, and at my solicitation most of the Historical prizes which were offered last year were continued for this, and, in addition, I received fifteen new prizes for the Historical work this year.

Early in January I mailed out to every chapter in the State our U. D. C. Calendar containing the prize list. I did not have the names of the new officers, so I sent them to the President, Historian, or anyone I knew in the chapter. I hope they were all received.

We have had twelve contests for the Historical prizes and I have received a large collection of fine essays, historical papers, and clippings, which will be a valuable addition to the Historical collection of our Division. I have forwarded to our General Historian nine essays, competing for general prizes, two others received but not eligible. Chief Justice Walter Clark sent me three of his attractive little books "North Carolina at Gettysburg." I also received a copy of Miss Mildred Rutherford's last book "The South Must Have Her Rightful Place in History."

Early in January a request came to me from a member of the General Joseph Wheeler Chapter of Wagoner, Oklahoma, to send her an unusual and interesting program on North Carolina, for her February meeting. She requested State flags, songs, toasts and information about the Mecklenburg Treaty. I sent her all the material I could gather, and later she wrote me that she had a fine North Carolina meeting, and sent me a beautiful program with the Confederate and North Carolina flags in colors on the back.

In March Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams sent twenty essays on General Robert E. Lee, written by the High School pupils of Newton, and asked me to judge them, this I did with the help of two members of our Chapter.

The Historical report blanks were sent out from the President's office the last of August but have not all been returned, therefore, I can not give a full report of the work from all the chapters, but I wish to mention some which have made fine progress:

Cape Fear, Wilmington; Bethel Heroes, Rocky Mount; Winnie Davis, Pittsboro; J. E. B. Stuart, Fayetteville; Haywood Chapter, Waynesville, and the Tarboro Chapter erected a monument to William Dorsey Pender.

Mrs. Eloise Burkheimer, of Wilmington, reports that she has completed her pageant titled "The Rise and Fall of the Confederacy" in two books covering fifteen years of historical life in the South.

- Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Fayetteville, has sent in more essays written by herself, competing for the different prizes of the State and general organization than any other woman in the State.
- Mrs. J. W. Ferguson, Historian for Haywood Chapter, sent in a large scrap book filled with reminiscences, historical data, clippings and illustrations. She also sent a large box 22 inches square and four inches deep, filled with historical clippings and illustrations and enough to make several scrap-books. In addition to this she sent other valuable papers and information.
- Mrs. A. J. Ellis, of Raleigh, sent me a very interesting little book, "The Last Flag of Truce," written by Dallas T. Ward, of Franklinton, North Carolina, also some reminiscences and other historical papers.
- Mrs. L. E. Fisher, President Asheville Chapter, sent twenty-five essays on Confederate subjects written by the high school pupils of her county.

I have had splendid coöperation and response, from some, if not all, of the chapters throughout the State, and our historical prospect for the coming year is fine. I have been notified that several of the prizes will be continued and some new ones added. Since the Wilmington Convention, I have written over six hundred letters and answered all communications and requests.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. P. S. Rothrock, State Historian.

Mrs. Reid, of Lenoir, moved that the essay written by Mrs. Anderson on the "North Carolina Women of the '60's" be published in the daily papers. This motion was carried.

Mrs. Marshall Williams requested that essay written by Mrs. Burkheimer on North Carolina's Part at Gettysburg also be published. The Historian stated that historical reports were not received from all Chapters. Neither were essays written competing for all prizes.

The President, Mrs. Holt, suggested that letters be written to Honorary Presidents and the Honorary Historian. Mrs. Faison made this as a motion which was passed.

Mrs. Cabell Smith, ex-president of the Virginia Division and her mother, Mrs. O. C. Smith, Hon. President, of Virginia, were extended the courtesies of the floor.

Mrs. Henry A. London moved that a night letter be sent to General Carr, expressing the thanks of the Division for his splendid service rendered the Soldiers' Home and urging that he not resign his office. This motion was carried.

Mrs. Lowe, of Lexington, moved that message of love be sent to Veteran Frank C. Robbins, of Lexington. This motion was also carried.

Mrs. Wallace, Director of Children's Chapters, made her report, which was accepted with a rising vote of thanks.

REPORT OF THE WORK OF CHILDREN'S CHAPTER

Madam President and Daughters:

'Tis hard to realize that another year has passed away, and we are again assembled in annual convention. It gives me much pleasure to greet you in behalf of nearly three thousand children of the Confederacy of North Carolina, and to bring to you their love and good wishes.

We come now to review the work that has been done during the year, to make plans for the future and to rejuvenate our spirits through social intercourse one with another. I am happy for this another opportunity to look into the faces of my friends, and to tell them that the year has been a very pleasant one to me; the work has been rather exacting at times and has required a large portion of my time, but with it all, I am fully repaid for every effort made.

Life is so intense these latter days, one barely has time to do well all that has to be done, therefore, in scrutinizing the years work, I find some things that are rather disappointing; many things however, are encouraging, and with it all I am glad to say the work is in fine condition.

The office of State Director for the past two years has given me opportunity to know many of the leaders, and their acquaintance and fellowship has been exceedingly pleasant. Many of them have been very responsive, and their coöperation has added greatly to whatever success that has been attained.

We set two years ago, for our GOAL in membership at this time 3,000, but we are very sorry to report we have not quite reached the mark. When I was inducted into the office of State Director of the Children's Work, the number on the roll at that time was 1,662. We have had an increase this year of 620 members, which with the increase reported last year, makes the total enrollment to date 2,994.

The work of the Division during the two years of my administration, has gone forward, as naturally it should along with all the other developments of our great State. We have had an increase in membership of 1,332; an increase of contributions in actual cash as well as benevolences, and I believe an increase desire in the heart of the workers, to see the cause go forward generally. I want however, to express personally, my sincere regret, that much more was not accomplished and my earnest hope for greater developments and accomplishments during the years which are immediately ahead of us.

Special credit for new members this year is due the Belle Wilfong Chapter, Newton, Mrs. Glenn Long, leader; the Annie K. Kyle Chapter, Fayetteville, Mrs. E. R. MacKethan, leader; the Robert E. Lee Chapter, Asheville, Miss Thelma Smathers, leader. Quite a number of the other chapters have had some increase, but more than 50 per cent of the chapters of the Division, have not reported a single new member this year; this is perhaps, the most discouraging part of the work; lack of effort at this point accounts for our membership being so small. I firmly believe if all the leaders would make the proper effort, and could have the coöperation of the mothers of the children eligible for membership, the roll of the Division would double the present number in a very short time.

There were seven subjects presented to the various chapters this year, upon which essays were requested to be written; thirty-seven papers have been submitted on these subjects, which to me, indicates a marked interest in the historical work, and I think should be encouraged by continuing the prizes each year. I hope this will be done.

Three new chapters have been organized this year:

Isabel Morrison HillBelmont,	N.	C.
Matt W. RansomLittleton,	N.	C.
Transulvania Valuntaara Provend	TAT.	C

Many of the older chapters have not reported, notwithstanding my urgent and repeated requests to do so. There has been issued three duplicate certificates. In my report last year, I mentioned a number of chapters that had been organized, but not registered; on account of not being able to secure leaders, these same chapters have not yet been registered. This a lamentable fact, that there is plenty of material all around us, but it seems almost impossible to secure leaders who are interested sufficiently in the cause to carry on the work.

The Children of the Confederacy have raised during the year in cash $2,601.38. The various chapters have contributed liberally to Monument Funds, Historical Work and to Schools, with books, pictures and flags. They have provided badges for the Veterans attending both the State and General Reunions, and have contributed clothing, confectioneries, fruits, etc., to the Veterans, their wives and widows, also to the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Raleigh, and the Confederate Womans' Home at Fayetteville and have ministered to the sick in a large way, by taking them trays of appetizing food, flowers and magazines. Two hundred pairs of socks and several boxes of clothing were sent to the New Bern Fire-Sufferers last winter.

I wish to avail myself of this opportunity to express to all my associates and co-workers, my sincere and abiding appreciations for their uniform kindness and courtesy to me personally and as State Director, during the two years of my office; this has helped to make the work very pleasant. It has been a work of love and pleasure all the way, and I shall look back upon these two years closing with this convention, as one of the brightest spots in my life's work.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Chas. S. Wallace, State Director.

Mrs. J. Dolph Long, Registrar, made her report which was accepted by a rising vote of thanks.

REGISTRAR'S REPORT

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The Wilmington Convention authorized the Division to purchase steel filing cases for the permanent care of Registered Membership Applications. This was done as soon as possible, and in order to appreciate the magnitude of your Registrar's work for the past year you must have a mental picture of four sections of steel filing cases; every registered Chapter alphabetically arranged in binders, with members filed numerically. It has been my task to file in this modern system, 111 Chapters, with a total membership of 9,775.

My ambition has been to complete this old registration, and I regret exceedingly to report that we are still a little way from the goal. Substantial progress, however, has been made and I have to report the complete registration this year of the following Chapters:

Smithfield Burgaw Chapel Hill Warrenton Charlotte Warsaw Dunn Wavnesville Winston-Salem Elizabeth City Gatesville Pittsboro Mt. Airy Laurinburg Leaksville-Spray Mt. Olive Reidsville Lillington Scotland Neck Newton Total20

By authority vested in me at the 1922 Convention, I have had typed and have registered the following dead Chapters:

Clayton Murfreesboro
Ellerbe Middleton
Wm. A. Closs, Henderson Merry Hill
Holly Springs Norwood
Jackson Raleigh—D. H. Hill

Kenansville Red Springs—Flora MacDonald

Kittrell Rose Hill Linden Williamston

Making a total of 2,327 registrations of old members this year. Total active and dead Chapters, registered and filed, being 111 Chapters with the following 13 still incomplete:

Dillsboro Marion
Edenton Oxford
Enfield Salisbury
Faison Wadesboro
Henderson Windsor
Hendersonville Winton

Hertford

The completion of the registration of Chapters is, of all our undertakings, nearest to my heart, and I earnestly appeal to the officers of the Thirteen who have yet to complete this task, to do it at once that all records may be preserved for future generations.

Now as to the activities of the Chapter for the past year, along new registration lines, I have to make the following report based on meagre and for the most part incomplete reports from the Chapters.

There are a total of 51 Demits, 46 being transfers from one Chapter to another, and 5 from other states. One new Chapter, Finch-Bissette, of Middlesex, has been organized.

A very pleasant part of your Registrar's work is the presentation of prizes to those who have by earnest effort deserved them. The J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, of Fayetteville, wins the prize for the greatest number of new members registered, having gained 81. Albritton-Sugg Chapter, of Hookerton, wins the prize for the greatest percentage of increase in membership, showing an increase of 161.7 per cent. The prize offered to the District showing the greatest percentage of increase in membership during the year has been won by District No. 11, comprising the following Chapters: Fayetteville, Red Springs, Lumberton, Raeford, Lillington, Dunn, St. Pauls, Whiteville and Fairmont, Mrs. Nat Townsend, leader, showing an increase of 23.7 per cent. To Asheville Chapter, Asheville, goes the prize for registering the most members between the ages of 18 and 25, having eleven, total number registered in the State of that age being 84.

In concluding my report I wish to thank the registrars for their co-operation and to urge upon you all to study this work earnestly, endeavoring to do it accurately, bearing in mind, "anything worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. DOLPH LONG, Registrar.

Report from Committee on Gettysburg Monument was read by Chairman, Mrs. Marshall Williams:

REPORT GETTYSBURG MONUMENT COMMITTEE

As authorized by the Wilmington Convention, your chairman selected designs for the Gettysburg markers. Both Charlotte and Wilmington submitted attractive designs price ranging around $3,000.

Your chairman presented these to the Greensboro convention.

The convention decided so insignificant amount of money for so great heroism on the part of North Carolina soldiers, must be supplemented and the convention unanimously voted $2,500 or more to be raised this year and for appeals to be made over the State to increase the amount until a worthy monument could be erected.

Your chairman felt greatly cheered over the enthusiasm manifested. Respectfully,

Mrs. Marshall Williams,
Chairman

Mrs. Williams put the question as to whether we should erect a $3,000 monument or raise funds for a more imposing monument. Mrs. Henry A. London and Mrs. Faison spoke heartily in favor of the latter and the motion was made and carried. Mrs. Fisher, of Asheville, proposed that the matter of the Gettysburg monument be made a special order of business at 11 o'clock on Friday morning when pledges should be taken from the floor.

The report of the Recorder of Crosses, also report of Purchasing Committee for Soldiers Home, were read by Mrs. H. M. London. Both reports were accepted.

Adjournment for delightful luncheon at N. C. College for Women.

FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

The Afternoon Session was called to order by the President.

The report of Committee on Rules of Order was read by Mrs. Marshall Williams. This report was adopted.

The report of the Executive Board was read by Mrs. Goode and approved.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board of the North Carolina Division United Daughters of the Confederacy met in the Assembly room of the O. Henry Hotel Wednesday morning, October 3.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Holt.

The resignation of the Recording Secretary, Miss Mary Henderson, was read and accepted and Miss Hadley Woodard appointed to fill the vacancy.

The bill for the minutes for 1922 was submitted and ordered paid.

Mrs. Wallace moved that a telegram be sent Mrs. F. E. Ross, Riverside, Cal., asking her which Chapter in North Carolina had ordered the greatest number of badges, motion carried.

Communications were read from one Chapter, which was competing for a prize but had failed to comply with rules, asking that this matter be brought before the Executive Board. The Board decided to adhere strictly to conditions which governed the awarding of this prize.

A suggestion came from the Credentials Committee to allow the Auditor to have the Chapter reports to take home and check books by same. Mrs. Long, of Graham, moved to allow the Chairman of Auditing Committee this privilege.

The following recommendation was presented:

The Exectuive Board of the North Carolina Division United number of scholarships at the N. C. C. W. from six to nine."

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. J. B. Goode, Corresponding Secretary.

46

The recommendation that the scholarships at N. C. C. W. be increased from 6 to 9 was carried.

In the absence of Mrs. Frank Wilson the report of Committee on Textbooks was given by Mrs. Goode and accepted.

REPORT OF TEXT BOOK COMMITTEE

My Dear Madam President and Daughters:

For the past year I have done no real work as Chairman of your Text-book Committee other than try to keep my eyes open to any criticisms in regard to text-books used in our schools, where fairness and justice are concerned.

Am happy to say I have heard no word of disparagement on any of the books. I have used Hill's North Carolina History, and Thompson's United States Histories in the class room and find only true-hearted, whole-souled sympathy for our men who wore the grey.

The pupils in our public schools love and honor all our Southern heroes, especially those of the sixties, and much of this is due to the just manner in which our authors are treating the subjects.

Again let me entreat you, Daughters, keep your eyes upon the books used in your classrooms and the manner in which they are presented to pupils.

Yours most cordially,

MRS. FRANK L. WILSON, Chairman.

Mrs. Hunter Smith read the report from the Confederate Woman's Home. This report was accepted, and Mrs. Marshall Williams moved that a Committee be appointed to go before the next Legislature to ask for an appropriation for an annex to this Home. This motion was carried.

REPORT OF THE CONFEDERATE WOMAN'S HOME

Madam President and Daughters:

I bring you greetings from the ladies of the Home, and they wish me to say that it is impossible for a home of old ladies to be happier, and receive better attention than they do, for they have a joy in their Superintendent, Mrs. Bailey Beaman, a woman of culture and refinement, and I feel a God-given gift to the Home.

The ladies of the Home and the management are very grateful to the Chapters of the State for their thoughtfulness and consideration at all times.

They are especially grateful to the Children's Chapter, of Fayetteville, for the great interest and sunshine that they have brought into their lives this year. They have furnished a large cooler and kept it supplied with ice water during the summer, and have given them a number of treats and entertainments.

The Home is filled and we haven't a vacant room. The household consists of thirty-five, with nineteen applications on the waiting list. We are greatly in need of more rooms to supply the requests for admission, some of them being most pathetic.

We had a well filled pantry in the fall, to the credit of the Chapters of the State, and we do hope they will be as generous to us in the coming months, for our pantry is depleted at this time.

Our family is much happier when occupied, so let me ask you to send scraps of silk, wool, crochet-cotton, etc., that you may have, which could be used in fancy work which many of them delight in.

Religious services are held at the Home every Sunday afternoon by leaders from the respective churches of the City, with sweet music which they enjoy very much.

After supper they all assemble in the living-room for evening prayer.

The visits of the Chapters from the nearby towns have been much appreciated, and the fruits, etc., they bring is much enjoyed.

A very pleasant surprise was given your Chairman and Mr. George Rose, Chairman of the Board of Directors, last Christmas when we were presented with beautiful knit slumber robes, by the ladies of the Home, as they expressed it "stitches of love in appreciation of service."

I would ask that the Chapters and individuals who furnished rooms in the Home replenish them with scrim curtains, two yards long finished, one pair of curtains to the room, with the exception of corner rooms which have two windows.

I wish to thank my two Assistant Chairmen, Mrs. Battle and Mrs. Fisher, for their faithful work in their respective districts.

The ladies of the Home felt much honored in having our State President visit them in the Spring. She has always been a most loyal supporter of the Home.

There have been during the year three deaths and six admissions. With unbounding gratitude to the ever faithful Chapters of the State for their generosity,

Respectfully submitted.

MRS. HUNTER G. SMITH, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE STATIONERY COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters in Convention Assembled:

I bring you greetings from the Stationery Committee and beg to submit the following report:

Officers and Chairmen were furnished stationery needed for their work, all orders being given prompt attention.

The Committee after getting prices from a number of firms found the Ideal Print Shop, Rocky Mount, the most reasonable in charges.

In some instances there has been a delay but I hope such will not happen again.

Wishing you every success during this week and regretting my inability to attend.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. T. A.) Belle Davis Cooper,

Chairman.

Mrs. Mendenhall, of High Point, read report of Committee on Jefferson Davis Highway.

REPORT JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters:

After many letters, telegrams and personal interviews, it gives me much pleasure to announce that the State Highway Commission have designated the Jefferson Davis Highway through North Carolina, and have given their permission for us to place markers along this highway. The highway designated comes into North Carolina from Virginia near Oxford and passes through Oxford, Durham, Chapel Hill, Pittsboro, Sanford, Southern Pines, Rockingham, and into South Carolina near Cheraw.

I wrote to the chapters in the towns through which the highway passes asking if it would be possible for them to put up markers before Convention, but have only heard from Pittsboro and Rockingham.

In Birmingham our Mrs. Wilson pledged the small amount of fifty dollars for North Carolina to the general fund. I have written to every chapter in the State asking for a small donation. I do not know whether this amount has been raised or not, but if it has not I am sure that it can be easily raised on the Convention floor. We surely will not let North Carolina fall down on so small an amount.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. O. E.) LIGETTE BROWN MENDENHALL.

Chairman.

Mrs. Edgar Morrison, of Tarboro, spoke in behalf of this Highway, stating that the Highway must be marked now if the Daughters of the Confederacy would have the honor of marking it. Mrs. Henry A. London moved that we accept report of Committee and mark the Highway immediately. It was moved and seconded that the temporary markers bear the name of Jefferson Davis instead of the initials "J. D." This was carried.

Mrs. T. J. Gold read report from Committee on Stars and Bars Memorial. This report was accepted.

REPORT OF CHAIRMAN OF STARS AND BARS MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

Madam President and Daughters of the N. C. Division of the U. D. C.:

I bring my report today with great pride and a deep sense of gratitude to all of you who helped in the wonderful work of erecting and unveiling our memorial to Orren Randolph Smith. Since having been appointed chairman of the Stars and Bars Memorial Committee, I have endeavored to place before every chapter in the State the importance of the work.

Letters have been sent by me to all chapters asking for donations and most of you responded liberally.

On the 19th of September Louisburg had a great celebration at which time our Memorial was unveiled with appropriate exercises and now stands on the court house square, a drinking fountain of granite with the Stars and Bars in bas-relief in appreciation of the fact that the designer of the first Confederate Flag was a North Carolinian, Major Orren Randolph Smith.

Mrs. Lowe moved that we investigate and ascertain if One Hundred Dollars could be secured from the Historical Commission for improving the grounds around Anne Carter Lee's grave. Mrs. Holt stated that she would look into the matter.

In the absence of Mrs. Peter Gorrell, Mrs. Edgar Morrison read the report from the Free Bed Fund Committee. This report was accepted.

REPORT OF FREE BED AT SANATORIUM

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The door of opportunity for service has been opened to us through our Free Bed for Tubercular Patients at Sanatorium, and we have this year benefited the following ones:

Little Pauline McCullum, Kannapolis.

Mrs. W. H. Dodd, Proctorville.

Mr. W. O. Hart, Southport.

Miss Victoria Coley, Morven (discharged as not tuberculous).

Miss Carrie Morris, Clarks.

Dr. L. B. McBrayer writes: "This bed has been of inestimable value to people who would otherwise have had to leave, so far as we were able to see."

Cost of bed, $1.50 a day.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. PETER A. GORRELL.

Mrs. Morrison moved and it was carried that the Convention send a telegram to Mrs. Gorrell, Chairman of this Committee, who is ill in a hospital. This motion was carried.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that we name this bed for Mrs. E. F. Reid, who originated the work. This motion was carried.

Mrs. J. M. Gudger, Jr., Chairman of Dixie Highway Committee, gave an oral report from that Committee.

Mrs. F. M. Williams read the report on the Lee Memorial and urged that this work be given prominent place next year.

REPORT OF THE LEE MEMORIAL COMMITTEE

We are sorry to report that this year the contributions to this great fund falls far short of our hopes, but we realize that the completion of work, earlier begun, has called for the more concentrated efforts of our Division. Early in the year letters were sent to every member of the Committee asking her earnest coöperation in the work, and the State divided among them. Circular letters were later sent to each chapter president, asking the matter be laid before you. Last year it was your Chairman's pleasure to report the largest amount raised by any Division, $620. This year our contributions fall to $200.

Every chapter has lately received from the Washington and Lee University its Bulletin, carrying pictures of the old Lee Chapel, and the beautiful new one the Daughters of the Confederacy have pledged themselves to build, and towards which work in Birmingham they voted to bend their entire efforts, assuming no new work until the Lee Chapel was completed. Now that the architects have combined the old and new Chapels placing that hallowed mausoleum in the center, no human being can fail to wish to see the tomb of Lee, the most sacred shrine in the South, completed as soon as possible.

Daughters of the North Carolina Division, your committee makes another strenuous appeal to you to bend all your efforts to this great work. Our old veterans and women must be looked after, our educational fund and free bed at Sanatorium kept up, but let Lee Chapel be our great work after these. Let every delegate here present go home determined the Old North State shall carry off the banner as standing at the top in contributions. Let the month of January principally be dedicated to Lee. Let every school in this great State be appealed to for aid. Children love the name of Lee. Let each be asked for a contribution, no matter how small. Let us roll up our contributions and work as never before to honor our world renowned hero.

The contributions for this year will be found in the Treasurer's report, and will not be printed in this report.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. F. M.) Francis R. Williams.

Chairman and State Director.

The President appointed the following as a Courtesy Committee: Mrs. Henry A. London, Mrs. Alfred Williams, Mrs. Ed. Woodard, Mrs. L. E. Fisher, Mrs. Thos. L. Craig, Mrs. H. M. London, Mrs. Don Coffey, Jr., Mrs. M. H. Jones, Mrs. N. L. Stedman, Mrs. Thos. L. Speiden.

The Corresponding Secretary read telegrams of greeting and Mrs. Fisher moved that we send telegram of greeting to the Virginia Convention now assembled.

Adjournment.

SECOND DAY-MORNING SESSION

The Friday morning session of the Convention was opened at 9:30 o'clock with an invocation by the Rev. I. Harding Hughes.

Mrs. Holt introduced the President General, Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, who delightfully expressed her pleasure at being present. Mrs. Henry A. London warmly welcomed Mrs. Schuyler.

Mrs. Jess Alderman rendered a beautiful violin solo, following which the Business Session was opened with the reading of the minutes of Thursday's sessions. The minutes of the morning session were approved as read. The minutes of the afternoon session were accepted with slight corrections.

The completed report of the Credentials Committee was read by Mrs. E. R. Michaux and accepted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NORTH CAROLINA ROOM IN CONFEDERATE MUSEUM AT RICHMOND. VA.

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

It is a great pleasure to bring to the North Carolina Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy greetings from the Confederate Memorial Literary Society, and to give a brief report of the North Carolina Room in the Confederate Museum to the support of which you have so generously contributed. months ago I visited Richmond and had the pleasure of again seeing our most interesting Room. While there our Vice-Regent, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, who is always so alert to everything pertaining to the good of the Room, had a number of ladies, all North Carolinians, to meet in her home to discuss ways and means for raising the remaining $1,000 to complete our Endowment fund of $5,000. We found after receiving the appropriation of $516.67 from the Legislature that we were still owing $600.00. The ladies present promised to take care of $200.00 if I could raise the other by appealing once again to our loyal U. D. C. I immediately sent out circular letters with very little response. One of my committee suggested my writing to each district leader which I did and found that to be the key to the situation. A number of chapters contributed. Mrs. Hodges now reports $4,591.63 received from chapters.

Mrs. T. W. Wilson has continued the custom established by Mrs. Jacksie Thrash Morrison of presenting the minutes of the N. C. Division bound in Confederate grey of her term of office, 1921-1922, to the N. C. Room.

It has been impossible to write all the letters by hand so I had a great many of them typed.

Received from Miss Lena Smith, of Scotland Neck, a most interesting article written by herself of the Building of the Confederate Ram, Albemarle; also a paper from Miss Smith written by her kinsman, Capt. Whit H. Anthony, giving an account of the Cavalry Fight at Rucklands, Virginia. A booklet "Lee at Lexington" written by Mr. E. R. Preston, of Charlotte. It has been my pleasure to contribute stenographer's fee and postage to the work of the North Carolina Room.

Thanking you for your untiring loyalty and support in this sacred cause.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Latta C. Johnston.

Regent.

REPORT OF N. C. ROOM IN CONFEDERATE MUSEUM

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

Last October I attended your Convention in Wilmington, and I can assure you it was a great pleasure to be in my native State again and meet so many old friends, and this charming city by the sea fully sustained her reputation for hospitality and right royally were we entertained during our three days' visit.

The reports I heard of the work being done by the North Carolina Division were most interesting and inspiring, and it was with great pride that I reported some of your accomplishments upon my return to Richmond.

Mrs. Latta Johnston, our efficient regent for the North Carolina room in the Museum, has given you a report of the work, so I will only mention two interesting gifts that we have recently received, and append the financial statement.

Your ex-president, Mrs. Fanny Ransom Williams, gave me the Commission of her father, General Robert Ransom, to be placed in the Museum. We consider this one of our most valuable possessions, and greatly appreciate her being willing to place it in our room.

Recently, Mr. Thomas Sydnor, of Richmond, while locating some artesian wells on the grounds of the Williamson Cotton Mills at Graham, N. C., found a cast iron plate in the shape of a shield bearing the raised inscription, "Confederate States Navy Yard, 1861-1865." This is supposed to have come from battery of boilers placed in the mill shortly after the war, having been brought from Charlotte where the Navy Yard was, after being moved from Norfolk. This is a most interesting relic and we appreciate Mr. Sydnor's giving it to the North Carolina room.

Last winter I had letters inquiring about the Museum from Elizabeth City, Mt. Olive, and several other N. C. Chapters, and I would suggest that each chapter have every season a day called "Museum Day," on which they would explain the work, object, etc., of the Museum. It could be made most interesting by telling of some of the priceless relics stored there and the great work that is being done in preserving the true history of the war.

Each year, like the old Confederate Veterans, our ranks grow thinner, and I record with sorrow the recent death of Rev. James Powers Smith, our beloved chaplain for many years. He had a brilliant military record serving under Stonewall Jackson and an equally notable career as a soldier of the Cross, serving in the Southern Presbyterian Church. He was known and loved as much in North Carolina as Virginia, and we will miss his wise counsel and benign presence.

As I have had numerous inquiries, I wish to explain the difference between the Battle Abbey and the Confederate Memorial Literary Society, or Museum as there seems to be some confusion in the public mind. The Battle Abbey is an entirely different organization and building. Some years ago $100,000 was given by Broadway Rouss and an equal sum was raised by the veterans and others, with which a handsome memorial building was erected. It has beautiful mural paintings of General Lee and his officers, battle scenes, etc., but it is simply a handsome monument to the Confederacy, while the Museum was the official home of Jefferson Davis during the brief and turbulent years of his Presidency.

For the benefit of the younger daughters who are not familiar with the Museum I would like to say a few words about the work. You all know that the Museum was the building in which President Davis lived and was the "White House of the Confederacy." In it each Southern State has a room in which are placed records, manuscripts, and relics of the accomplishments of the soldiers from that particular State. Each State has a regent who lives in the State which she represents, and tries to awaken interest and keep the Daughters in touch with the Museum, and a vice-regent who lives in Richmond and must attend the Board meetings, have care of the room, and is responsible for its maintenance. This I have done to the best of my ability.

The Museum contains a most wonderful collection of relics and many original manuscripts which are in constant demand by historians to verify the facts of the war between the States. The Museum, or the Confederate Memorial Literary Society as the name indicates was primarily organized to preserve all historical papers, of which we have about 40,000 in our files. There are annually over 10,000 visitors; we charge a small admission fee of 25 cents, and we have the privilege of inviting as our guests to visit the Museum members of educational, historical, and Confederate organizations. When the Museum is fully endowed we expect to open it free of charge to the public, as our work is of an educational character, and we desire the true facts of the war to be made known to the younger generation.

I urge you faithful Daughters to take as your especial work this year the Rolls of Honor. There are 241 bound books of Rolls of Honor and I regret that North Carolina has not a single volume containing the records of her brave sons though she furnished about one-fifth of all the soldiers in the war, and we must bestir ourselves in this matter.

REPORT OF SOLDIERS HOME COMMITTEE

Again I come to you, proud to report both progress and widening scope in all lines of your endeavors for the benefit of the Veterans of the Confederacy at the Soldiers Home, and the loyal support of the Chapter Presidents of your organizations who make up the Committee for this work. Throughout the year, sympathetic understanding and intelligent coöperation has pushed to successful culmination our every new undertaking.

With the indomitable spirit that was hers in battle and that bitter aftermath of battle that was reconstruction, North Carolina now goes forward in her program of progress and to her eternal glory be it said that in the days of her prosperity, she is not forgetful of those upon whose courage and endurance the foundations of her prosperity were built.

In the last four years the General Assembly of the State has given us the increased maintenance fund for the Home, thirty thousand dollars for its repairs, and the splendid increase in the pension fund. Last year through the splendid work of our friends of the Appropriation Committee of the House and of the Senate, we were able to add to this record five thousand dollars for the enlargement and improvement of the Hospital. Mr. Walter Murphy, of Salisbury, Representative from Rowan County and Mr. D. F. Giles, of Marion, Senator from McDowell County, were Chairmen of the Committees on Appropriation of the House and Senate respectively. To them and the gentlemen who made up their committees we owe great thanks for their patriotic interest and efficient work in behalf of this most essential need of the Home. Shortly after Christmas, an epidemic of influenza brought home to us how great and urgent this need had grown to be. Mr. Murphy was chairman of the Joint Committee on Appropriations of House and Senate. Hobbled at home as we were by a broken ankle, the most necessary personal work that we had planned to do in behalf of this cause must have been left undone had it not been for his tireless interest and unceasing personal efforts, that in spite of the most rigorous exactions on his time-left nothing undone that might assure success for the appropriation we asked. This appropriation was passed unanimously by the gentlemen of the Joint Committee on Appropriations. It will confer inestimable good, and many Veterans will now be able to pass in comfort and ease those last ailing days that perhaps otherwise would have been at best lonely and not so intelligently provided for. For with the years the call on the hospital at the Home has grown greater and greater. When the Home was first founded, the men who lived there were the men who had been wounded or disabled on the battle fields, men still young and vigorous in temperament. With the passing of the years men disabled by time and disease have come to make it their home; they are more dependent on the care of the Hospital and they seek the cheerful atmosphere of home and personal care that is its dominant characteristic today. We have a most excellent head nurse, universally beloved by the Veterans. Her two assistant nurses are capable and kind, the orderlies efficient and considerate. Our physician is most able and of the temperament that brings that most blessed of all cures, cheerfulness, into the lives of his patients.

Through the benefit of this $5,000 appropriation for the Hospital, we, on the suggestions of the doctor and head nurse, intend to provide three new rooms, these to provide much needed space for the feeble and ailing so that in case of an epidemic disease, they may be completely segregated from the men who are ill and at the same time not forego the immediate care of the nurses and physician. Gen. Carr, Chairman of the Board of Directors, has made us Chairman of the Building Committee of this fund, the plans are drawn and the work under way on three new rooms, modern plumbing and an extra bathroom for the nurses. The sun parlor of the Hospital is the social gathering place for all the men of the Home. There the graphophone is played and the ice cream, lemonade, and watermelon parties held. The Home is at present in better condition materially and financially than it has been for years. We live within our appropriation. The food is good, the rooms are clean the grounds better kept than they have been for years. It is our hope and intention that another year shall see it in every way in better condition than it is at present. Many of the Veterans are interested in practical endeavors to bring this ambition to pass. Mr. Beavers attends to the yard and makes a garden, Mr. Boyles to the Chapel, the birds and the flag. Mr. Rogers paints, and plants a garden. Except for the epidemic of influenza, the health record has been excellent.

Adding beyond measure to the happiness of the Home is the splendid and generous gift of the Eli S. Blackwood Fund of $5,000 made on May 11th by Miss Katherine B. Blackwood, of New York, formerly of Charlotte, N. C., through her attorney, Alfred W. Haywood, to the Veterans of the North Carolina Soldiers Home through the Board of Directors of the Soldiers Home Association. Miss Blackwood made this gift in honor of her beloved brother, Eli S. Blackwood, who died on August 7, 1921. Mr. Blackwood was a Soldier of the Confederacy, member of Company "C" Eighth Battalion, North Carolina Troops. He enlisted as a mere youth and exemplified in his life his devotion to the interest of his fellow soldiers. who had survived the long and arduous struggle for Southern independence and the constitutional rights of the Southern States. This fund is to be used solely for comforts, extra comforts, for the Veterans and for their entertainment and diversion. The principal as well as the interest by direction and request of the donor is to be spent all for pleasures, none for necessities. Acting in cooperation with General Carr, Chairman of this Fund, as your committeeman, and member of the Board of Directors of the Home, it has been our pleasure to aid in the carrying out of the generous plans of Miss Blackwood. Throughout the summer, we have through the fund supplied lemonade and cake every Wednesday evening, ice cream and cake and cigars every Sunday evening, with several watermelon parties contributing more than words can estimate to a realization that is satisfactory to our desire to make life happier and brighter for the men who live at the Home. furtherance of this aim, Gen. Carr-whose devotion to the interests of his fellow soldiers grows greater with the years-has given much time and thought. His desire is, that as the days pass, pleasure and comfort shall be the dominant note of the Home.

This year has been distinguished by the concrete manner in which through your efforts that desire has found satisfactory realization. We started off the year with a beautiful and complete All Hallowe'en Party provided by the Julia Jackson Childrens' Chapter of Charlotte and throughout the year we have kept with proper observances all memorial, feast days and holidays. Washington's Birthday, four birthday cakes with a total of nearly 350 candles, presented to four beribboned, beflowered Confederate Veterans in the sun parlor of the Hospital, presented an entertainment unique in interest and distinction. Comrades Williams, Collins, Reeves, and Pool contributed the years marked by the gleaming candles; and Mrs. H. A. London, President of the Pittsboro Chapter, Mrs. James Cordon, Miss Katherine Stronach, of Raleigh, and Manly's Battery Children of the Confederacy, the cakes; Miss Britt, the head nurse of the Home, the red and white boutonnieres, that were the pride of the four birthday celebrators, who although they were all in rolling chairs, were school boys in the spirit with which they shared their good fortune with their comrades. Mrs. J. S. Rowland, head of the Hospital Committee of the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter, Raleigh, was in charge of this party, which will forever remain a red letter day in the annals of the Home. To her thoughtfulness and efficiency, the Hospital has been greatly indebted throughout the year for pleasure and entertainment every Wednesday afternoon of each week.

Early in the fall supplies of good things began to arrive from the various Chapters from all parts of the State. Christmas we had as usual two trees. The Girls Friendly Society of the Church of the Good Shepherd superintended and contributed liberally to the tree in the Chapel for the men of cottages and dormitories laden with an individual gift for each man from the Stonewall Jackson Chapter of Charlotte. Manly's Battery, Raleigh, and the nurses superintended the tree in the sun parlor for the men in the Hospital. fruits, raisins, cakes, ice cream were provided for the tree in the Hospital by our loyal old Santa Claus, the Bell Battery Chapter Junius Daniel, The John W. Dunham, Frank Parker, Charles Fisher, George Singletary Chapters. Delicious apples came from Tarboro, Haywood Chapter, Sylva, Wilkes Valley Guards, Lumberton, Fannie Patton, Hendersonville, John W. Dunham Chapters. Oranges and apples from the George Singletary Chapter. Potatoes, Mecklenburg Chapter. Candy, cake, canned goods, dainties, preserves, jellies from Charles Fisher, Ft. Macon, Halifax Light Infantry, Confederate Heroes Children Chapter, Red Springs, Green County, Winnie Davis, Snow Hill, Robert E. Lee Chapters. Socks, handkerchiefs and smoking tobacco from Zeb. Vance Boys' Chapter, Neuse, Kings Mountain, Aulander, Lumberton, Robert E. Lee, and Martha Kepler Chapters. For these supplies and the generous interest that prompted them we cannot adequately express our thanks and appreciation. They spoke of a love and community of interest that is paramount in the happiness of the Veterans. The Chalmers Glenn, the A. W. Waddell, Charles Fisher, Frank M. Parker, High Point, John W. Dunham, Graham, Annie K. Kyle and Fannie Patton Chapters have looked most faithfully after their rooms and the men they have adopted. The hospital has been made more comfortable with four screens badly needed from A. M. Waddell Chapter, and chairs from Gastonia, Graham and the Confederate Heroes, Children's Chapter, and beautiful quilt from the Wilkes Valley Guards. The Zeb Vance Boys' Chapter has kept our flag staff supplied with beautiful flags. The Stonewall Jackson is supplying the dining-room with linen.

Three veterans went from the Home to the Reunion in New Orleans, Comrades Beaver, Graves, and Griffith. Mr. Beaver was given the trip by his friend, Hon. Baldy Boyden, Mr. Griffin by the County Commissioners of Nash County and Mr. Graves by the R. E. Lee Chapter of Lexington, and the County Commissioners of Davidson County. Sixteen Veterans attended the Reunion in Winston-Salem, and returned declaring it the finest time of their lives.

The year has taken from us the inspiration of the presence of Capt. Cathey. Memorial Day, the day of all days for the Veterans, with its beautiful and inspiring pageant of courage and remembrance, found his grave marked with a stone of beauty and loving care by the Chalmers-Glenn Chapter, whose particular ward he had been, and heaped with beautiful flowers from the hands of the many who loved him.

Throughout the year we have endeavored to see that the funeral of each and every Veteran was attended by some representative of this organization, that flowers were supplied and that each man went to his last sleep under that starry cross which was the inspiration of his youth and the symbol in his last days of integrity, honor, loyalty and undying courage.

MARTHA H. HAYWOOD, Chairman.

Mrs. E. F. Reid, of Lenoir, expressed her appreciation for the honor of having the Free Bed at Sanatorium named for her and asked that this bed be known as the Bessie Beall Reid Bed.

The subject of Gettysburg Monument was made the special order of business at 11 o'clock.

Miss Mary Oliver of the New Bern Chapter returned to the Convention the $91.10 sent to the New Bern Fire Sufferers, stating the money was not needed.

At this point Mrs. Schuyler spoke in behalf of the Japanese sufferers, and it was moved and carried that $50.00 of this money returned by New Bern be given for this most worthy cause, the remainder of the money to be placed to the Gettysburg Monument Fund.

Mrs. T. W. Wilson read report on sale of "Women of the South in War Times." This report was accepted.

REPORT ON WOMEN OF THE SOUTH IN WAR TIMES

Madam President, Madam President-General and Daughters:

As Division Director of our book, "Women of the South in War Times," I come to you with a report far below the standard of excellence desired, having sold only one hundred and sixty-two copies this year and collected only eight dollars for the Publicity Fund.

For three consecutive years the merit and importance of the book have been presented both by the Division President and Director but I believe that in some way we have failed to make you realize that this is a part of our work to which we are obligated just as much as to other causes.

I believe this because I have found that when North Carolina Daughters of the Confederacy realize the importance of any phase of our work and know that an obligation rests upon them that they rally to that cause.

It was so with the Hero fund, it was true with registration, the Jefferson Davis Monument and other objects for which such splendid work has been accomplished.

I believe it will be true with our book for certainly it is important in that wherever the book is placed, true Southern history is placed and thus is fulfilled the object for which the book has been compiled and printed.

And certainly we are obligated to contribute to the publicity fund with which to carry on this work and to sell a generous share of the ten thousand copies pledged by the General Organization for the payment of the original publication indebtedness.

You will remember that in lots of less than ten copies the books are delivered, postage prepaid at $2.00 per copy.

In lots of ten copies or more they are delivered at $1.75 per copy, express collect.

My plea today is that every Chapter not having already measured up will, before the first of November, send in $1.00 for the Publicity Fund and an order for ten or more copies of our book.

This would place North Carolina over the top with "Women of the South in War Times."

Up to the present date I have received for the Publicity Fund, $5.00 from Mrs. C. K. Burney, of Asheville, and $1.00 each from the Chapters at Warsaw, Scotland Neck and Mount Olive.

Nineteen Chapters have purchased from one to six copies of our book. The Chapters from Charlotte, Monroe, Mt. Airy, Rockingham, Sanford, Wadesboro and Warsaw have purchased ten copies per Chapter.

The Chapters purchasing more than ten copies are Wilson fifteen, Rocky Mount fifteen and New Bern twenty-three.

The prize offered to the Daughter purchasing the greatest number of books goes to Mrs. Uzzell, of New Bern.

Respectfully submitted,

BESSIE DUFF WILSON.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved that the Convention endorse the action of the Julian S. Carr Chapter in regard to the matter of the Bennett Memorial. After some discussion, the motion was carried by a rising vote.

Mrs. I. W. Faison, of Charlotte, read the report of the Jefferson Davis Monument and asked for contributions for this Monument.

REPORT OF JEFFERSON DAVIS MONUMENT

Madam President:

When I was appointed Director of the Jefferson Davis Monument Committee, I was surprised, but it thrilled my soul for I think this work is above all other U. D. C. work, and why? Because Jefferson Davis was the only President of the Confederacy and was our martyred President; because he stood for the whole South and suffered for us. Justice has never been dealt him as it should have been. He was a good man, above reproach, and did his duty as he felt and saw it. You hear speeches made on many occasions all over the South where the names of Generals Lee and Jackson are glorified, and rightly so, but the name of our martyred President is nearly always left out.

Now in all organizations, even armies, little petty jealousies arise and enmity embitters the life and work of a good man. So it was with President Davis, but he arose above it all and today we must love and revere his name and memory as our only President of the Confederacy and never forget to mention him when we speak of our great heroes.

We have been very successful in raising this money and every person I approached seemed glad to contribute to this cause. The Chapters all did the best they could at the time we began raising this money and I know they will help me again to raise the amount we desire. North Carolina, so far, stands first in the general U. D. C. in the amount raised. We must raise ours to $2,000.00 before we go to Washington. They must have $20,000.00 before December 1 and $2,000.00 more to complete the monument by June, 1924.

Now, Daughters, will you rally to this work and do the very best you can? Mrs. Jacksie Thrash Morrison, our General Chairman, has worked hard on this monument committee and feels proud of North Carolina.

I raised over $500.00 for our Stonewall Jackson Chapter. I received a check from Mrs. Bettie Kelly Gaither in Florida for $25.00. Mr. C. E. Hutchinson, of Mount Holly, gave me $25.00. Mr. Hugh McCrae, of Wilmington, gave me $10.00 and Mr. A. D. Watts gave me $5.00. On the floor this afternoon I raised over $60.00 and with what Chapters and individuals have given I now have over $2.000.

The monument at Fairview, Ky., birth place of President Davis, was begun by the Confederate Veterans and turned over to the U. D. C. to complete. At Lincoln's birth place in Kentucky, the United States Government has spent thousands of dollars beautifying it and erecting a grand monument.

Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. I. W.) SALLIE GATES FAISON,

N. C. Director.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION

The closing session of the Convention was opened Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock with an invocation by Rev. L. B. Hayes.

Miss Kennon of N. C. C. W. rendered a beautiful solo which was much appreciated by the audience.

The minutes of the Friday sessions were read and approved.

Mrs. L. B. Newell moved and it was carried that the District Reports should not be read, but printed in the minutes. However, the banners of the Districts were displayed. Mrs. T. W. Wilson moved, and it was carried that at future Conventions, these banners be presented at the opening morning session of the Convention.

By special ruling, the President asked that Mrs. Howell, of Waynesville, read the report of the First District because of its historical value.

It was moved and carried that Mrs. R. E. Little and Mrs. Crowell, together with the Chairman of the Committee on Text books, appear before the North Carolina Teachers Assembly, to urge the use of impartial text books in the schools.

After a talk from the President General, Mrs. L. R. Schuyler, concerning the correct use of the American Flag, Mrs. F. M. Williams made the motion that the President of the Division be empowered to draw from the General Fund a sufficient amount to purchase a creditable United States Flag to be displayed at the Conventions.

The President presented to the Convention, Mrs. Yates, of Asheville, Organizer of the Confederate Memorial Association in North Carolina. Mrs. Yates extended greetings.

It was moved, seconded and carried that a telegram of sympathy be sent Miss Mary Henderson, ex-Recording Secretary, who is ill at her home. The following amendments to the Constitution were read and adopted:

AMENDMENTS

Amend Article 6, Section 1, by striking out the words in the second paragraph, "Begin at the close of the Convention at which they are elected" and insert "Begin on December 1st of each year, and all books and records be transferred by that date."

(Remarks: This will greatly facilitate the work of the Division as taxes can be paid and other assessments forwarded to Treasurergeneral a month later.)

Omit Section 2 of same Article, as the above amendment will cover the clause.

Article 6, Section 3. The manuscript for the Minutes must be handed to the printers on or before December 1 of each year and the contract with them require that the said Minutes be ready for distribution by February 1.

Mrs. F. M. Williams moved and it was carried that following the receipt of the model constitution drawn by the Committee from the General Convention, a Committee be appointed to revise the North Carolina Constitution.

Mrs. F. M. Williams made a motion that our President General, Mrs. Schuyler and our Third Vice-President-General, Mrs. W. E. Massey, be made honorary members of the Division. This motion was unanimously carried.

Mrs. F. M. Williams made the further motion that Mrs. Schuyler be elected as the Honorary President of the Division to fill the place of Mrs. William Dorsey Pender, of Tarboro. This motion was carried with applause. Mrs. Schuyler and Mrs. Massey expressed deep appreciation of the honor conferred upon them.

Committee reports on Church Bells and Pensions were read by Mrs. Henry A. London, and approved.

CHURCH BELLS COMMITTEE

Madam President and Ladies of the Convention:

I have not been able since last convention to learn of any other churches that gave their bells to the Confederate Government for cannon, and none of my committee have written me of any. I feel convinced that there were more in North Carolina and I asked all of these women to try to learn if there were any more churches that patriotically gave their bells to the Government to be moulded into cannon.

Respectfully,

MRS HENRY A. LONDON.

REPORT OF PENSION COMMITTEE

Madam President:

My report on pensions is short for the reason that the pension has not been enlarged since last Convention. The Legislature of 1921 gave $1,000,000 to Confederate soldiers and widows. This seems a large sum, but when divided between veterans and widows it is not much, the average pensioner getting $8.75 a month. As I told one Senator it was not enough to buy him a nice pair of shoes. Of course, the bed-ridden and maimed ones get more. I give you the average in Chatham county: 89 veterans and 75 widows drawing pensions. There are in North Carolina 5,200 veteran pensioners and 5,000 widows. The committee was urged to ask for increased pension of the 1922 and 1923 Assembly.

I closed my home and went to Raleigh and did not leave till the last night of the session was over. You see we were advised by the leaders not to try to get more, as long as the State's finances were in such a doubtful condition. So we anxiously watched and waited for fear in the excitement and doubt about the State's finances, some one would wildly try to cut down the present pension. We can get a raise at next session we hope.

Faithfully,

MRS HENRY A. LONDON.

The Second Vice-President, Mrs. L. B. Newell, was called to the Chair while Mrs. Holt read the report of the Committee on World War Records, of which she is Director. This report was accepted with thanks.

REPORT OF WORLD WAR RECORDS

Madam President and Daughters:

For the fifth time I bring you your report on the collection of the records of our State boys who were lineal descendants of Confederate Veterans that served our re-united country 1917-18.

I am afraid that many of you never realized the importance of this work as you should, but if you haven't before, please find out why these records are being collected and then go right to work and don't stop until every boy you can find that is eligible has filled out his record for you.

I am going to give you the numbers filed by years and if the boys of your county are not filed get their records and add to these. All received before October 26, can be sent with those to be reported at Washington.

In 1919 we filed 962; 1920, 1,113; 1921, 402; 1922, 458, and this year so far have only 281 to report to you and about twenty of those were sent to Birmingham last year so cannot be counted for Washington.

This year only seventeen chapters have sent in any records, they are as follows: Winton, Rocky Mount, Durham, Washington, Waynesville, Snow Hill, Kings Mountain, Gatesville, Asheboro, Mt. Airy, Oriental, Aulander have each sent just a few. Now to these I wish to express the thanks of the Division for they have made an effort to help our Division make a creditable showing and at the same time file the records of our boys. Greensboro 15, New Bern 44, Hookerton 45, Wilson 48, Wilmington 80.

Therefore Mrs. Speiden, of Wilmington wins the prize for the greatest number sent in by a Daughter, Cape Fear Chapter for the greatest number sent in by a Chapter and Mrs. G. Henry Jackson of New Bern, for the greatest number sent in by a member of the Auxiliary to the American Legion.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT.

Mrs. Holt also read the report of the Subscriptions to The Confederate Veteran which was accepted.

REPORT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE CONFEDERATE VETERAN

Daughters, I know a great many of you have subscribed to The Confederate Veteran that did not send your orders through my office, but only those going through the regular channel are entitled to contest for the prizes offered.

The following chapters have sent in orders:

Snow Hill, Nashville, Fairmont, Charlotte, Dillsboro, Yanceyville, and Tarboro have each given one subscription order; Warsaw, Morehead City and Oriental two subscriptions; Mooresville, 3;

Rocky Mount, 4; Graham, 10, and New Bern, 35. This makes a total of 65 subscriptions that have passed through my office and gives the $10.00 offered by the Thirteenth District to Mrs. T. A. Uzzell, of New Bern, for through her efforts the Veteran was sent by her chapter to every Veteran in their county for a year, twentynine in all and to that order she has added six other subscriptions. Now there is another chapter which has brought me the receipts for 34 subscriptions sent in but we feel that as they did not pass through my office as the rules say we cannot count them in this contest, however, if they were counted they are one short of New Bern.

Daughters, as I said in my report we need this magazine in our work for it will keep us in touch with the work of our General Organization, I wish it could be in the home of every member of our Division.

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPE WHITEHEAD HOLT.

Mrs. Schuyler gave a description of the cross to be presented to World War Veterans of Confederate descent and urged that the North Carolina Division secure all possible records.

Mrs. Holt called for invitations for the Convention next year. Mrs. J. L. Bridgers made the motion that in future invitations be extended from the District rather than individual Chapters; the District inviting the Convention to choose the city in which the Convention should be held. This motion was carried.

Mrs. Holt stated that she would hold open the matter of meeting place until the Districts had opportunity to extend invitations.

It was moved and carried that a message of love be sent to Mrs. H. L. Riggins, of Winston-Salem, who is ill in Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. John Anderson made the report on the Memorial Amphitheatre at Arlington, which was accepted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIAL AMPHITHEATRE AT ARLINGTON

Madam President and Daughters:

I have written to Senators and Representatives in Congress in regard to placing names of our Confederate heroes in the memorial amphitheatre at Arlington.

Our beloved Major (Congressman) Stedman went into this at length and found that nothing can be done except by special act of Congress.

I have letters from the Secretary of War and the Chairman of the "Commission on the erection of memorials at Arlington" and all say the same thing. So let us pray fervently that we may have a Democratic Congress which will authorize this act, to thus honor our beloved Southern heroes.

I beg that every daughter in North Carolina will write and urge her Congressman to use his influence in Washington to this end.

(Mrs. J. H.) LUCY LONDON ANDERSON.

Mrs. R. E. Little introduced the subject concerning the upkeep of the Confederate cemeteries by the Government. After some discussion, it was moved, seconded and carried that this matter be referred to the General Convention.

Mrs. Edgar Morrison and Mrs. O. E. Mendenhall announced that temporary markers bearing the inscription "Jefferson Davis Highway" would be placed every five miles along the Highway from Virginia to South Carolina within 60 days.

Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Mendenhall were given a rising vote of thanks for their splendid work.

At the request of Mrs. T. W. Wilson, Mrs. Schuyler spoke of our book "The Women of the South in War Times," complimenting Mrs. Holt for her work along this line.

Mrs. Bridgers read the report of the Librarian, which was accepted.

Madam President:

I have received four books for the United Daughters of Confederacy Shelf in the Paris Library. Since the opening of this convention our President has presented a very valuable volume to Mrs. Schuyler, our President-General, for the same object, which we are very proud to record.

Respectfully submitted,

A cordial letter from Col. G. B. Alford was read inviting the Daughters to attend the unveiling of the Confederate Monument at Holly Springs, October 25, 1923.

Mrs. Holt stated that the report of the Committee on the Parsley Portrait was omitted from the Minutes of last year, but would be included in the Minutes of this year.

REPORT OF PARSLEY PORTRAIT COMMITTEE

Madam President:

Eliza Hall Nutt was born in Wilmington, N. C., August 13, 1842. Her early school days were spent at home and later she was a student of St. Mary's School at Raleigh, N. C. On September 2, 1862, she was married to Captain William Murdock Parsley. Later he was Colonel Parsley of the Third Regiment, North Carolina Division, and was killed on April 6, 1865. In December, 1894, Mrs. Parsley organized the Cape Fear Chapter No. 3 U. D. C., being its first President and continuing its head for twelve years. On account of failing health she resigned. In April, 1895, she organized the N. C. Division of the U. D. C. and was unanimously elected its first President. It was thus that she became our mother as well as Organizer. Now as a tribute of love from the N. C. Division U. D. C. we wish to present the Cape Fear Chapter U. D. C., Wilmington, N. C., a portrait of our first President, Mrs. William Parsley, a native of your city.

We hope this portrait will serve the purpose of reminding rising generations of what this woman did for our U. D. C. work, with love and duty combined. Long after all of us shall have gone to our reward, this silent testimonial will stand as an inspiration from the woman who could answer the call of duty, and who never learned the meaning of the word fail. She was the old type of a true Southern woman whose personality endeared her to all with whom she came in contact.

Mrs. Marshall Williams, of Faison, N. C., was the talented painter of this portrait. We wish to place this portrait in the care of Mrs. Ned Sprunt, daughter of Mrs. Parsley, and make her Custodian for life. At her death it is to be placed in the Hall of History, in Raleigh, N. C., or Battle Abbey, by the Cape Fear Chapter. We as Daughters of the U. D. C. have a heritage and a lineage to sustain unchallenged in the eyes of the world, the faith of our fathers and our mothers, and we must not let it wane or die. Daughters, let us not be recreant to our trust.

Respectfully submitted,

SALLIE YATES FAISON, Chairman.

Mrs. Holt thanked the members of the Executive Board for their splendid coöperation, following which she introduced members of the new Board.

Report of the Courtesy Committee was read by Mrs. Henry A. London. This report was accepted by the Convention.

COURTESY COMMITTEE REPORT

The North Carolina Division of Daughters of the Confederacy has been anticipating with the keenest pleasure, this Convention in Greensboro. Many of us having attended the Convention held here in 1907, remember the lovely hospitality shown us then.

We have first to thank Miss Lizzie Lindsay, President of the Guilford Chapter, and Mrs. R. L. Justice, its Vice-President, for the beautiful luncheon given to the Executive Board, the first day. We also thank the Chairman of the Pages with her coterie of lovely girls, and Mrs. E. R. Michaux for her fine work as head of the Credential Committee. To the management of the O. Henry Hotel, we extend our sincere thanks for the many courtesies shown us while there. We do most heartily appreciate the royal welcome given us by the President of the Guilford Chapter of U. D. C., Mayor of Greensboro, Chamber of Commerce, Woman's Club, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Civitan Club, Lions Club, American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Guilford Battle Chapter of D. A. R.; also the greetings from General William A. Smith for the Confederate Veterans, greetings from the Colonial Dames, the D. A. R., the Virginia Division of U. D. C.

And we do appreciate the anxiety of Mr. A. M. Scales (after all was said), for us to feel perfectly welcome in Greensboro.

The responses to addresses of welcome, by Mrs. Z. B. Vance, Jr., of Asheville, and her introduction of Mrs. R. P. Holt, our State President, was very appropriate.

We wish here to express our thanks to our State President for her splendid report showing wonderful work during the year.

To the Guilford Chapter we express our thanks for the very much enjoyed reception Wednesday evening. The ride to the North Carolina College, and the luncheon given by the Civitan and Lions Clubs were much enjoyed on Thursday—as was the reception that evening given by the Guilford Battle Chapter D. A. R. For both, we extend thanks. Also to the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for the elegant luncheon given us at the Country Club on Friday.

We are deeply indebted to the Chamber of Commerce for the trip to the Guilford Battle Ground on Friday afternoon. This was most instructive. Thanks to the Woman's Club and other welcoming clubs.

The reception given by Mrs. R. F. Dalton Friday afternoon to the Colonial Dames, was most delightful. We wish to express our thanks to the ministers who led our devotions and to the press for their interest in our U. D. C. work. It is to the press that we look to keep our work before the world. We wish to thank Mrs. W. E. Massey, Third Vice-President-General, for her wonderful address, and the leader of the children for the entertaining evenings. To those who furnished the beautiful musical selections we extend our thanks.

The stenographer and Miss Hadley Woodard, the secretary, have been most patient, and we especially feel that thanks are due Miss Woodard for so willingly helping, in place of Miss Henderson, the Recording Secretary, who was too ill in Salisbury to be present at Convention.

This has been a most successful Convention, presided over so serenely by our able President, Mrs. R. P. Holt, and distinguished by the presence of our beloved President-General, Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler. Her address was patriotic and full of inspiration. Her very presence was an inspiration, and we thank her for coming.

We thank Major Charles M. Stedman, Gen. Wm. A. Smith, Col. W. H. Chaplin and the other Confederate Veterans for attending our Convention.

Maj. Stedman's address Friday evening was "North Carolina's Part in the War Between the States." We can never thank him enough for giving us that thrillingly instructive speech—and may he live many years to give us such another treat.

Our thanks are freely given to the Greensboro Chapter, who one and all, helped to make this Convention such a success.

In Memoriam

At the hour of noon, Friday, October 5th, the business of the Convention was suspended for the Memorial exercises, with Mrs. E. F. Reid, Chaplain, presiding.

The Devotional Service was conducted by Dr. W. C. Smith, Dean of the North Carolina College for Women. Doctor Smith read Scripture passages and made a highly spiritual talk on "Faith."

Mr. J. Foster Barnes sang Kipling's "Lest We Forget."

Mrs. Reid then read a beautiful memorial address, which follows:

We are met together at this hour to do honor to the memory of those who have passed over the river during the past year. To me, this Memorial Service is one of the sweetest and most impressive Sessions of our Convention. The custom of presenting a Cross of Honor to our Veterans is indeed a beautiful idea—the women who endured the trials and hardships during the War Between the States, have received no Crosses of Honor, but do you not believe that these women have worn an invisible Cross of Honor given to them by the Master Himself? And surely they are wearing Crowns of Victory now.

A few months ago we had a most delightful guest in our home, Rev. Yoseph Ben Yamen of Persia. He told us of the terrible hardships endured by himself and family during the World War. He described in graphic words that horrible march from Armenia and Persia into Russia, fleeing from the unspeakable Turk. He and his family reached Russia in safety, but were there during the revolution and Bolshevist terror. When asked how he escaped to America he said simply "God sent a ship for us. The Captain was a good man and when I told him of our plight and desire to escape to America he said I will take you with me." Mr. Ben Yamen had taken training in a Theological Seminary in Columbia, S. C. Friends in Columbia helped them to get a start and Mr. Ben Yamen said "My wife says she would rather spend one day in Christian America than a whole year in the land we used to live in." Yes, friends these Daughters and brave Veterans who have gone before us endured hardships, sorrow and care during their pilgrimage here on earth but can you not hear those who followed their Savior here on earth saying, "Oh, I'd rather spend one glad day here in this beautiful heavenly home, than a whole life time on earth."

The roll was then called of departed Daughters of the North Carolina Division who were called home during the past year.

The following Memorials were read:

Memorial to Hon. J. Bryan Grimes by Mrs. Henry M. London. Memorial to Dr. James Power Smith by Mrs. J. Sterling Jones. Memorial to Mrs. S. D. Twitty by Mrs. V. L. Pendleton.

Memorial to Mrs. Mary Applewhite Killian and Mrs. K. W. Long by Mrs. F. W. Williams.

Prayer, Mrs. Henry A. London.

COL. J. BRYAN GRIMES

Inheriting a name illustrious in the Confederate history of the South and of the Old North State, and having made for himself a record that reflected credit upon the name, the life of John Bryan Grimes, of North Carolina, stands as an example of rare accomplishment. He who never knew old age served for more than twenty-two years as Secretary of State for North Carolina and helped to develop her resources along all lines through one of the most difficult, though successful periods of her statehood. When death closed his career on January 11, 1923, after a brief illness, his State paid him tribute as an exalted official. His body lay in state in the rotunda of the Capitol, with the flag at half mast, and every state office was closed in his honor. Over his casket was draped the flag of North Carolina and the banner of the Confederacy.

The War Between the States had been over for more than three years when John Bryan Grimes was born on June 3, 1868, at Raleigh. His father was Maj. Gen. Bryan Grimes, one of those gallant officers of the Army of Northern Virginia during the War Between the States; his mother, Charlotte Emily Bryan, was daughter of John Heritage Bryan of New Bern, N. C., a prominent lawyer and representative in the State Legislature and National Congress. Colonel Grimes spent his early manhood at Grimesland, the ancestral home in Pitt County, N. C., where he was taught by private tutors, afterwards attending the Raleigh Male Academy and other noted schools of the State, graduating from the University of North Carolina in the class of 1886.

From his earliest years he was interested in historical matters, and in an address he delivered at the unveiling of a Confederate monument at Bethel, Va., he told how he learned to revere the sacred cause of the Confederacy at his mother's knee and from his honored soldier father who loved the South with religious devotion. As the years passed and his influence increased, he ever sought to exalt the fame of the Confederate soldier, to honor his heroic service, and to aid him in his declining years. Fitting indeed that he should be Commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans of North Carolina and a beloved counsellor of the Daughters. His military title came from the position he held on the staff of Governor Elias Carr.

Among the many tributes called forth by his untimely death, one writer lists him with "the five most useful and patriotic men of North Carolina," another was deeply impressed that in a long and successful political career, his only "machine" was a record of efficient public service; while another says of him:

"Colonel Grimes was of delightful personality. Into whatever company he was cast, he was of charming companionship, in politics he was a statesman, in society he was a brilliant element. He was a man of polished education, and properly served as chairman of the State Historical Commission from 1907 to the past year. He was actively associated with the State Literary and Historical Society, was President of the North Carolina Sons of the American Revolution, and was also prominently identified with the interests of the University of North Carolina.

"It was as a State executive that Colonel Grimes excelled. In official circles he was accorded the distinction of having the reputation as the most efficient Secretary of State of his time. His management of the office was so far faultless that whatever of contemplated candidacy in the direction of his succession developed was but tentative. No one offered for Grimes' office with any real hope of securing it so long as he was a candidate for reëlection. The people had come to regard him as their Secretary of State for life. He was an elegant man, an official without blame, a citizen of loyal impulses, a character so intimately entwined around the heart of the State that it mourns because of his passing."

More especially does this loss touch the hearts of the members of the Johnston Pettigrew Chapter for it was to his loving counsel and to the sincerity of his judgment that the heart and mind of our chapter turned on all matters of historical and patriotic interest concerning the perpetuation of our heroic past.

The State has lost an honored official and useful public servant. We have lost our personal friend, who by his splendid life added fresh laurels to the unchallenged record of the Grimes family in North Carolina history.

The pure spirit of our beloved sister, Mrs. S. D. Twitty, passed beyond the boundary of life into the realm of eternal glory July 26, 1923. She was born July 28, 1835, so in two more days she would have lived eighty-eight years—a long but a very beautiful life.

MRS. S. D. TWITTY

She early dedicated her life to God, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

When I first knew her in 1855, she was a happy young girl; when I met her again in 1867 she wore widow's weeds for her husband killed while fighting for our rights during the War Between the North and South, and in all these years she never lightened her mourning for the husband of her youth.

John Eldridge Twitty, and my friend, Sallie Drake, were married December 31, 1863, during a furlough, after the expiration of which he returned to his post of duty.

He was mortally wounded at the battle of Spotsylvania Courthouse on May 12, 1864. The battlefield fell into the hands of the Federals, and the wounded were taken to Washington where he died May 21, and was buried at Arlington Heights.

In November, 1865, Mrs. Twitty and her brother went to Washington to bring his body back to his old home, and it was identified by her picture lying on his breast.

In 1867, we taught school together at the Warrenton Female College where she had graduated while Hon. Daniel Turner was President. Afterwards we taught a private school at my home here in Warrenton, and never a word of misunderstanding to mar our friendship. Afterward she taught in Judge Carr's family and in Wilson, and for twenty-five years was lady principal at President Hobgood's school at Oxford. For more than sixty years she was a teacher and leader of the young and was peculiarly adapted to give the highest ideals. She was very gentle yet very firm, deeply devoted without display, intensely religious, but broad in her views, and detested hypocrisy.

So efficient as a teacher, so self-sacrificing always, so sympathetic—indeed, so in love with her profession that her school-room was a sanctuary.

Feeling the infirmities of old age, eight years ago, she gave up her work, and made her home with her great niece, Mrs. Geo. Scoggin.

She was interested in every good work, and was such a good worker in the U. D. C. that we made her our president, which office she held until her failing eye-sight forced her to give it up.

The Chapter unanimously made her honorary president for life as an appreciation of the good work she had accomplished.

She has left us but why should we mourn-

for

There is no death! What seems so is transition. This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life Elysian
Whose portal we call death.

MRS. J. Y. KILLIAN AND MRS. T. W. LONG

The past year has been one of great sadness among the members of the Ransom-Sherrill Chapter of Newton. For seven years its membership has been unbroken by the Dark Angel, but the first six months of the year saw the mothers of three, the grandmother of one, the husband of another, and two of our leading Daughters fall at his dire summons. Two women who took an active part in the work of the chapter, and who held the responsible offices of registrar and treasurer. It was on a bleak afternoon in January that the sad news came to her friends, that after a brief illness, Mrs. J. Y. Killian (Mary Applewhite) had passed from us to a blissful immortality. Coming to Newton as a bride, it was not long before Mrs. Killian transferred her membership from the Scotland Neck Chapter to that of the Ransom-Sherrill in her adopted home, and to that chapter she was ever a loyal, devoted member, serving it as its registrar for a number of years.

The early days of genial spring were just bursting the bonds of chilly winter, when sweetly and peacefully the gentle spirit of Mrs. T. W. Long (Daisy Long) took her flight to join loved ones above. Born and reared near the home, where she passed away she now sleeps with her dear family nearby, where her kindly spirit first saw the light. There never lived a lovelier character than Mrs. Long. If she had an enemy no one ever knew it. She lived and died beloved by every one. True to herself, her friends and her chapter. She was our loyal faithful treasurer till death took her from us, and during her long months of illness never faltered in her allegiance to the Daughters.

To both of the noble Daughters words fail us to pay fitting tribute, their deeds spoke for them. Born of Confederate parents, with the blood of Confederate soldiers in their veins, they were ever true to the traditions of their beloved Southland. Their faces we will see no more, and their voices will no longer be heard in our midst, but their memories will ever live with their Chapter, and with feelings of sorrow, their Chapter offers to those mourners this faint tribute of affection.

DR. JAMES POWER SMITH

James Power Smith was a gift of God to the Nation. He was born on July 4, 1837, in New Athens, Ohio, whither his parents had moved from Winchester, Va. Most of his life was spent in Virginia. For the past few years Greensboro had claimed him as a resident, and from here last August at the age of 86, his spirit was transferred to its heavenly home and his body to its resting place in historic Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond.

Full and interesting sketches could be given of him as Editor, Author, Historian, Clerk of the Synod of Virginia for over 50 years, a successful Minister of the Gospel and a high-toned Christian gentleman with all the ideas and ideals of the "Old South." But at this hour we will lay our wreaths to the memory of the brave Confederate Soldier—the comrade of and the last survivor of the Staff of the immortal "Stonewall Jackson."

It was the great privilege of the Guilford Chapter to hear the story of those days with Jackson from the lips of Dr. Smith. How our hearts were thrilled by the recital! (Reading from Literary Digest, September 15, 1923). Dr. Smith was a singularly fortunate man. He had stood in battle for his country, he had served honorably under a famous leader, he had been a part of events whose renown has filled the world, he had discovered a faith that was a lamp unto his feet and a light unto his path when earthly lights were failing and he ended his days surrounded by the loving care of those who were dearest to him upon earth. It was a beautiful life—beautifully ended, and of such it may be said

"Men from tears refrain! Honor and praise, but mourn them not."

DISTRICT No. 1

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

As District Director, I take pleasure in submitting the following report:

The McDowell Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was hostess to the Annual District Meeting of the First District, North Carolina Division, on Saturday, April 28, 1923.

A short informal reception was held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Cross, after which the business session was opened in the High School Auditorium. A most unusual and unique address of welcome was given by Miss Margaret Winslow of the hostess Chapter, and Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, responded in a most pleasing manner. Interesting reports from all of the Chapters of the District, community singing, and an appropriate reading by Miss Mary Hudgins were features of the day. During the business session a beautiful silver loving cup, valued at $70.00, was exhibited and offered by the Asheville Chapter to that Daughter in North Carolina, who would compile the best collection of old Southern songs of the period of the Contederacy, giving the circumstances of the writing and the story of the writers. The cup is the gift of Mrs. H. W. Chapin, of Syracuse, New York, in honor of her father, Mr. Herman F. Arnold, who transcribed the music of Dixie, played by his band at the inauguration of Jefferson Davis, February 18, 1861. Mrs. Chapin also gave a four years' scholarship at the Farm School in honor of her mother, to be known as the "Victoria Arnold Scholarship."

The business session closed with the election of officers, Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey being reëlected director, and Mrs. D. F. Giles, secretary.

A luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock, after which the ladies enjoyed a motor ride to beautiful Lake James, ten miles away, where an hour was enjoyed in the Club House and on the water front.

The District has:

Old membe	rs 704
New Memb	ers 84
Collections	$2,621.54
Disburseme	nts 2,236,81

The District has responded generously to all appeals, including contributions of can fruits, apples, towels and cash, to the Soldiers Home and the Confederate Women's Home.

The District erected a memorial marker, at Waynesville, where the last shot of the War Between the States, was fired. The marking of this historic spot, originated with the Haywood Chapter and was promoted by the chapters of the district, with the presidents forming the committee. The cost of the marker was two hundred and twenty-five dollars, contributed by the chapters in the district.

The unveiling of this marker will take place October 9.

The C. of C. in this District have been very active, although only four chapters sent reports. There are 196 members.

Respectfully submitted,

SARAH McDonald GILKEY.

Director.

DISTRICT No. 2

This District is composed of Lenoir, Hickory, Newton, Statesville and Mooresville. Am sorry to report Morganton inactive.

We have 370 active members. Fifteen new members were added this year. All members have registered and old and new members in chapters have paid State and general taxes. All have paid their quota of educational fund except one which reported "about half paid." Receipts for the district totalled $950.00. Net amount paid to all funds as stated in report, $812.27.

The chapters have most generously remembered our Veterans at Raleigh and aided our old ladies in Fayetteville in many ways.

At home they have given substantial aid to all needy Veterans and have also remembered their wives with kindnesses. Hot dinners and luncheons have been served at different times during the year and social entertainments provided for those who are still hale and hearty. The widows of veterans were entertained by one chapter and they appreciated the thoughtfulness very much.

Wreaths and flags have been provided for those who have passed away. Sick members of the chapters have been sent cards and flowers. The soldiers at Oteen remembered.

Seven Crosses of Honor have been given; 4 subscriptions to The Veteran secured; 2 medals awarded; 1 Reminiscence purchased; 1 book, Women of the South, given to the library; several prizes offered on various subjects; 75 iron crosses were placed on graves of Confederate soldiers.

We have observed all memorial days as recommended by the Division with appropriate ceremonies.

In April the District meeting was entertained at Mooresville, "The Battle of Bentonville" Chapter being hostess. A large number attended and were most warmly welcomed. The day was very helpful and most interesting.

In this District we have seven C. of C. Chapters. Members, 415. New members, 205. One Chapter secured 200 new members this year which is equivalent to eight new chapters.

The children in these chapters are faithful workers and render invaluable aid in many ways to the mother chapters.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. A. MOTT,

Director.

DISTRICT No. 3

Madam President and Daughters:

The constant desire of your Chairman since the meeting at Cleveland Springs one year ago has been to keep in close and intimate touch with the women of her District. In doing this, she is delighted to report that without exception they are actively engaged in splendid work.

There are 757 members in this District, to which 43 new members have been added this year. They have raised $3,380.44, most of which they have spent for the regular business of the organization. All have paid their taxes, contributed to education to the sinking fund, and responded generally to State and general calls. They all remember the Veteraus, sending them fruit and flowers when ill, and entertaining them in various ways.

The most encouraging work of the year is the organization of two Children's Chapters—the one at Belmont, which is prospering mightily under joint leadership of Miss Lineberger and Miss Cranford, the other at Lincolnton, where the District meeting was held this year. This meeting was called to order on May 16, at 11 A. M. in the Historical Memorial Hall, where a large audience had gathered in spite of the unfavorable weather. Mrs. Milton Tiddy led in prayer and Mrs. Rees welcomed the Daughters to Lincolnton in a most gracious manner.

Mrs. Wilson, of Gastonia, responded in her usual charming manner. Splendid reports were read from all of the Chapters in the District.

A most interesting paper on the Soldiers Home in Raleigh by Miss Martha Haywood was read—some important motions were carried, one of these being made by Mrs. Thomas Craig, of Gastonia, that every Chapter as soon as possible contribute to the Stars and Bars Memorial—all important U. D. C. questions were discussed.

Mrs. Cabell Smith, former President of the Virginia Division, was honor guest and made a talk on the most important things being done by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She enthusiastically referred to the historic interest and beauty of the hall in which the Lincolnton Chapter was entertaining its guests.

Mrs. Frank Dowd, of Charlotte led in the concert of old-fashioned songs, and a delicious luncheon was served. The District accepted a cordial invitation to go to Gastonia next year and be the guests of the Chapter in that hospitable City.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. L. B. Newell, Director.

DISTRICT No 4

Although composed of only three chapters and therefore the smallest District in the State, it is with pleasure that we submit the following report:

Our District meeting was held in the Robert E. Lee Hotel, of Winston-Salem, on May 25, with representatives from each Chapter present. At twelve-thirty the members of the James B. Gordon Chapter were hostesses to the officers of their chapter and all visitors, at a most delightful luncheon.

After lunch the business session was held in the Orangerie of the hotel. What we consider the most important objects for which the U. D. C. is working were discussed by members of the District who had made a special study of these subjects. We were honored by having with us our State Historian, who is a member of our District, and who, in a very entertaining way, increased our knowledge about the historical work. The address of the day was given by our beloved ex-president, Mrs. Thomas W. Wilson, and, as always, her message was a wonderful help and inspiration.

Reports from the chapters showed that good work was being done by each one. An interesting and helpful open session was held.

After adjournment the visitors were given a lovely reception by the hostess chapter.

On May 10 memorial exercises were observed by the District, the living Veterans were given bountiful dinners and well entertained, while the graves of the dead were beautifully decorated.

We have sent quantities of canned fruit, apples, jellies, and preserves besides forty dollars cash and two beautiful warm comforts to the Soldiers Home and Confederate Woman's Home. Substantial aid has also been given Veterans outside of Home.

We send flowers whenever there is a death of a Veteran or Daughter.

We have sent in three subscriptions to The Confederate Veteran and bought ten copies of Our Book.

Last year one of our chapters won the prize of five dollars for sending in the best expressed report of not more than one hundred and fifty words.

Our historical report is as follows: typewritten pages, 65; printed pages, 250; written pages, 115; pictures in schools, 2; flags in schools, 6; and a new flag given Veterans; Reminiscences, 1; two of the Chapters had historical programs at each meeting. Two prizes were offered to schools. A member of our District gives the U. D. C. scholarship prize, then we have two State prizes, one given by a member and the other by a Chapter making five prizes from our District.

Our three Chapters have a membership of 286. We have added thirteen of these during the past year.

We have given the following amounts: Educational fund, $69.50, which means the twenty-five cents per member of each chapter; North Carolina Room at Richmond, $10.00; Jefferson Davis Monument, $40.00; Stars and Bars Memorial, $30.00; Gettysburg Monument, $2.00; Free Bed, $35.00; Confederate Women's Relief Fund, $7.00, and Orrin Randolf Smith Scholarship, $10.00. These amounts, with the others given, make a total of eight hundred and eighty-two dollars and ten cents given in cash from our District, not counting the many other valuable things given whose monetary value we do not record.

We are one hundred per cent registered with both State and general registrars and have paid all taxes and sinking funds.

Although our new Chapter is not registered we cannot help reporting that we have one organized at Sparta, with thirty enthusiastic women to sign the charter application and ready to begin work with the new year. Besides this, we have a Chapter almost ready to organize in Elkin and which we hope to soon add to the active chapter list of our Division.

Respectfully submitted,

LURA FINLEY COFFEY,

Director.

DISTRICT No 5

Madam President and United Daughters of the Confederacy:

We beg to submit the following report:

The annual meeting of the Fifth District was held at Lexington, N. C., May 17, 1923; the Robert E. Lee Chapter as hostess. Just ten years ago Lexington was hostess to the First District.

A beautiful luncheon was served by the members of the Robert E. Lee Chapter at the March Hotel, after which the business meeting was held in the First Presbyterian Church.

The meeting was opened by singing America.

We were then led in prayer by Rev. Sidney Holmes, pastor of the church. Mrs. H. L. Propst welcomed us most beautifully in behalf of the Robert E. Lee Chapter, to which Mrs. J. E. Lambeth, of Thomasville, gave the response. Three most delightful musical numbers gave variety to the program.

China Grove, High Point, Lexington, Thomasville and Tar Heel Chapter Children of Confederacy, responded to roll call, Salisbury sent regrets and a very fine report, but nothing was heard from Concord.

It was a great disappointment to us that our State President, Mrs. R. P. Holt, was detained on account of illness. A telegram was sent her conveying our love and good wishes for a speedy recovery.

The Educational Fund of twenty-five cents per capita was stressed and each Chapter of the District urged to send this to the State Treasurer.

The State Chairman of the Stars and Bars Memorial Committees made a plea for this memorial and asked each Chapter to give as liberally as possible to this fund so that the fountain could be unveiled before Convention this fall.

The amount needed for the business scholarship to be given at N. C. C. W. by this District has never been completed. A new committee was appointed, and urged to raise the necessary amount so that some girl could have the use of the money by fall.

The Chapter reports were most interesting and showed that good work is being done by the Fifth District.

The District feels most grateful to Mrs. Henderson for the flag presented by her to the District.

Mrs. J. F. Hayden, of High Point, was elected District Director. District accepted an invitation from High Point for the meeting of 1924. This District has six Chapters; 338 members; 17 new members.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. F. HAYDEN,

Director.

DISTRICT No. 6

The annual meeting of the Sixth District, of the United Daughters of Confederacy, was held with the Chalmers Glenn chapter, Leakesville-Spray, May 16, 1923. The meeting was held in the Methodist Church. Mrs. Ben Reid welcomed the guests and Mrs. J. D. Kernodle responded to the address of welcome. We had expected to have our State President, Mrs. Holt, with us, but in her absence, Mrs. J. Dolph Long, State Registrar, made a splendid talk on registration. She explained how important and necessary the new registration was. Mrs. Long told how the Chapter registrars should file the Chapter blanks.

All six Chapters in the District were represented; also the four Children's Chapters. Each Chapter had splendid reports and showed work and interest. Altogether, it was one of the best and most interesting meetings of the District.

Rockingham Chapter invited the District to meet in Reidsville next year.

At 12 o'clock we were invited into the Sunday School Room where the Local Chapter were hostesses to the District at a delightful luncheon.

There are in the District, six Chapters of U. D. C., with an active membership of 451. Fifty-seven new members were received in the District. We have four C. of C. Chapters in the District with a total membership of 102. I am glad to report that every Chapter in the District is properly registered with State and General Division, and each Chapter has a complete Chapter file. We have paid all taxes and sinking fund. We have observed all anniversaries and Memorial Day. We have given dinners to our Veterans and their wives.

Rockingham Chapter has paid house rent and partial support for two Veterans. Randolph Chapter took over the care of an invalid Veteran, and his wife, until his death, providing food, coal and a pair of woolen blankets. Each Chapter has contributed to the needy Veterans in some way, by sending Christmas boxes and personal gifts.

Five prizes have been offered in the District, two through general organization and three in State Division. Two State prizes are given by two members of our District, value $20.00. Our historical reports show two flags placed in schools, seven pictures placed in schools, value $61.00. Books given, 52, value $106.50; three Reminiscences, typewritten pages 34, written pages, 6; most every Chapter reported historical meeting every month. Reports showed 13 subscriptions to Veteran. We have given to Confederate Woman's Home and to Soldiers Home at Raleigh.

All communications of importance coming to me during the year have been referred to the Chapters for their consideration. Some of the Chapters failed to give their receipts and disbursements.

The financial report, showing disbursements for the year, is as follows:

On June 9, at Rocky River Springs, District No. 7 held a most pleasant and profitable meeting. At 11:00 o'clock the meeting was called to order by the leader and the session was opened by prayer, followed by our song, "America." Miss Malry, of the Albemarle Chapter in well chosen words, welcomed the delegates and visitors. The absence of our State President, Mrs. Holt, also delegates from two Chapters, was very much regretted. Those present, however, had reports of good work and promises of greater things in the future. Three Chapters, Albemarle, Wadesboro and Rockingham, have live Children's Chapters and are doing a great work. eral W. A. Smith, of Ansonville, whom we all love, was present and delighted us with a beautiful and interesting address. R. E. Lee, Miss Mary Blair, Mrs. Walter Crowell and Miss Malry all gave very instructive and entertaining talks. Mrs. Crowell urged the chapters, adults and children, to take special interest in historical work and "thereby bring up the youth of the South to remember the heroic deeds of their ancestors."

At 1:00 o'clock lunch was served in the dining-room of the hotel.

At the afternoon session the first thing on our program was a memorial service conducted by Mrs. W. C. Heath of the Monroe Chapter in honor of the members who had passed away during the year. All the Chapters of the District have paid State and General taxes, and contributed to the following causes: Old Soldiers Home, Confederate Woman's Home, North Carolina Room in Richmond, Jefferson Davis Monument, Confederate Women's Relief, Stars and Bars Memorial and Educational Fund. Special music for this occasion was arranged and all most thoroughly enjoyed a solo, "The Sword of Robert E. Lee" by Mrs. James Griffith. Mrs. Little led in our patriotic songs which were an inspiration to all.

After singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," we adjourned to meet again next June at either Rockingham or Laurinburg.

MRS. R. B. REDWINE,

Director.

DISTRICT No. 11

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

The following report is submitted from the Eleventh District of the North Carolina Division of the U.D.C.

This District has nine Chapters, with an active membership of 469; also three active Chapters of Children of the Confederacy. During the year 95 new members have been added to the rolls. Of these new members 81 were added to the Chapter at Fayetteville alone.

Our District Meeting for this year was held at Flora McDonald College, at Red Springs, on April 24. Seven Chapters responded to the roll call. Three Chapters of Children of the Confederacy were also represented. All the Chapters had splendid reports. Mrs. R. P. Holt, President of the North Carolina Division, was guest of honor, and gave us a splendid address on the work of the U. D. C. She emphasized the important phases of the work in a talk which was most instructive and helpful, creating in us a greater desire to "carry on" with renewed interest.

The Chapters have all responded splendidly to the calls made upon them in the various U. D. C. activities. They have been especially generous to the Woman's Confederate Home, which is located at Fayetteville in our District. They have also given liberally to the Veterans. The total contributions made by the several Chapters during the year for all purposes amounted to $1,101.33. The contributions of most interest to this Convention were the following:

Educational Fund$	98.25
Free Bed at Sanatorium	48.50
Jefferson Davis Memorial Fund	21.25
Stars and Bars Memorial	14.00
District Scholarship	60.00
Newbern Fire Sufferers	5.00
Cunningham Memorial	11.00
Woman's Relief Fund	4.00

All taxes for the year have been paid. Seven Chapters have contributed to the Publicity Fund for "Our Book." Four copies of the book have been sold in the District.

In the Historical Department, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Historian of the J. E. B. Stewart Chapter at Fayetteville, has done splendid work, details of which are shown in her report to the State Historian. An effort is being made to create more interest in this department in the District, and especial thanks are due Mrs. Anderson for her work in this direction.

Movements are now on foot to organize two new Chapters in the District which we hope to have successfully completed during the coming year.

Our next District meeting will be held at Fairmont, on a date to be determined later.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. N. A. Townsend, Director.

DISTRICT No. 12

The Pender County Chapter was hostess to the Twelfth District May 8, 1924. The meeting was held in the High School Auditorium; in the absence of the director, the President, Mrs. W. I. Taylor, presided with grace and dignity. Mrs. Calla C. Moore responded to the address of welcome given by Mrs. Taylor. All reports were listened to with much attention and interest.

We were highly honored in having with us our beloved State President, Mrs. R. P. Holt, of Rocky Mount, to direct us in all phases of U. D. C. work and greater works of love and comfort for our Confederate Homes for men and women. She urged us to carry on all work along U. D. C. lines.

Mrs. John Carroll, of Warsaw, was unanimously elected to succeed Mrs. McGee who could not serve another year. Mrs. Carroll was instructed to purchase a book for use of Secretary. The Chapters composing the District were requested to contribute $1.00 each for incidental expenses.

All Chapter reports were excellent.

A short impressive memorial session was held, Mrs. James Pierce leading most beautifully.

Mrs. Lucius P. Best then graciously invited the District Convention to meet with the James Kenan Chapter the Spring of 1924.

Business finished, after which a most delicious lunch was served, everybody thanking the hostess Chapter for their gracious hospitality.

Messages of love and sympathy and a beautiful corsage were sent to the absent director who couldn't attend on account of illness in her family. The Asheford-Sillars Chapter Mrs. Ella Hiatt, President, reports 80 markers purchased for veteran's graves at a cost of $120.00, 75 of which have been placed.

Warsaw-James Kenan Chapter. Mrs. Lucius P. Best, President, reports 55 new members all of whom are not quite registered. Contributed $15.00 to Stars and Bars Memorial. Thirty markers placed, 100 books given.

Cape Fear Chapter of Wilmington. Mrs. Wm. Peck, President, reports 180 members, 18 new members; 1 C. of C. Chapter; paid transportation of five veterans to Winston-Salem; erected seven markers; offered a prize to the pupils of the Wilmington Public Schools for best essay on life of General Robert E. Lee; 900 essays were submitted. (900 pupils today know more of Confederate history, than if this prize had never been offered. What an advantage to our children if all U. D. C. Chapters offered medals and prizes.)

Confederate Gray Chapter. Mrs. E. N. Ricks, President. Contributed to Stars and Bars Memorial, re-registered all members, paid deficit on markers, has two active C. of C. Chapters, $30.00 in prizes.

Burgaw Pender County Chapter. Mrs. W. I. Taylor, President. Through sale of poppies sent $7.72 to Oteen. 1 C. of C. Chapter inactive.

Thos. Ruffin Chapter. Miss Mary Emma Giddens, President. Assisted in securing from County Commissioners transportation money to defray veteran's expenses to Winston-Salem. Had splendid addresses Memorial Day by Rev. C. L. Read, of Goldsboro, and Tasker Polk, of Warrenton. Lost five members by death—two by demit. Had a play September 28th produced by the Misses Burkheimer, of Wilmington, "A Little Bit of Broadway," from which they realized about $200; and last, but not least, they presented to the Twelfth District, a beautiful silk flag.

Faison Hicks Chapter. Mrs. Marshall Williams, President, reports a joint meeting of much interest with the Children's Chapter, January 19.

We feel we have cause to be proud of our achievements this year. We have 7 active Chapters—two no report; membership, 438—77 new members; four active children's Chapters—one inactive. Responded practically to all calls; paid all taxes, State and General.

Our special work was providing linen for Confederate Woman's Home, also canned goods. All active Chapters responded. Placed 113 markers—five more purchased ready to be placed. Flags in schools, one. Presented medals and prizes valued $45.00. Pictures, $125.00. State Educational Fund, $96.50. Books, $115.75. Copies of our Book, 15.

I wish to thank the Pender County Chapter for their gracious entertainment of the Twelfth District and James Kenan Chapter for their cordial invitation for next Spring, all Chapter officers and members for their hearty coöperation and their splendid achievements, Thos. Ruffin Chapter for the beautiful silk flag presented to the Twelfth District, and also Miss Mary Emma Giddens for Acting Secretary of Twelfth District.

MRS. THOS. MCGEE,

Director.

DISTRICT No. 13

It is indeed a pleasure to report for the District eight Chapters of U. D. C. with a membership of 648. We have only added 38 new members this year. However we're properly registered and have paid sinking fund. Taxes both State and General have been paid on 632 members. There are five C. of C. Chapters in the District with a membership of 300.

Besides the care of veterans and their wives and widows of veterans by adoption, dinners, etc., flowers and wreaths have been placed on graves of deceased. And through the efforts of one Chapter free transportation for the veterans was secured to the reunion at New Orleans.

Memorial Day and Anniversaries have been observed by Chapters.

The Thirteenth District is offering two prizes this year, $10 to the Daughter sending in the largest number of new or renewal subscriptions to The Confederate Veteran at $1.50 a year and $10.00 to the District sending in best Historical Report to the State Historian by September 15.

The annual District meeting was most beautifully entertained by the Wm. Dorsey Pender Chapter of Tarboro on April 4, 1923, with Wilson, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Nashville, Spring Hope and Middlesex being represented. Splendid reports were given by Chapters. The Powell Banner, for the second time, went to the Jno. W. Dunham Chapter of Wilson for the greatest increase in membership. Many distinguished guests were present, among them our beloved State President, Mrs. R. Philip Holt, who so graciously gave us much needed information. The work in general was presented by different chapter members, after which a delightful luncheon was served. During this time the Kiwanis Orchestra played, which was much enjoyed. Col. Olds delivered an address on General Pender. At this time the convention adjourned to the Calvary Churchyard where the Pender Monument was unveiled. The procession was led by the marshals carrying the old battle flags. Rock of Ages, General Pender's favorite hymn, was sung and Rev. Bestram Brown prayed. As the flags were lifted from the monument by Misses Martha and Elizabeth Pender a volley was fired by veterans of the World War. Col. Olds gave a salute to General Pender in behalf of his old regiment. As each was called the bearer stood at attention. Wreathes were placed on General Pender's grave by the Chapters in the District. Mrs. Pender's old pupils marched by the grave and left flowers for her.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Fifteenth District, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was entertained by Halifax Chapter at Court House April 26, 1923.

The meeting was called to order by District Leader, Mrs. Stedman, opened with prayer by Rev. Mydette, followed by reading of the Ritual.

Miss Nanie Gary very graciously welcomed the District, and Mrs. J. J. Johnston from Weldon, in her charming way responded.

A large delegation from each of the five Chapters responded to roll call.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

It was indeed a pleasure to present our State President, Mrs. Holt, for she needed no introduction to the Daughters, who in her charming manner gave us an interesting and instructive talk on the need of the work. The Halifax Light Infantry C. of C. marched in singing "Old Homespun Dress," and presented Mrs. Holt with flowers.

We also had the pleasure of having Mrs. Mary Battle, from Rocky Mount, who has the Confederate Women near her heart urging us not to forget them.

Each Chapter gave very interesting reports of their year's work.

All Chapters reported taxes and sinking fund paid and celebrated each memorial day in very appropriate manner.

This District is very much interested in helping Scotland Neck Chapter place a marker on the new bridge across Roanoke River where the Albemarle was partly built.

The daughter of the builder of the Albemarle read a very interesting description of the building of the boat.

DISTRICT No. 16

The annual meeting of the Sixteenth District N. C. Division of the U. D. C. met in the High School building in Gatesville, May 23, 1923. Delegates arrived by automobiles from Elizabeth City, Hertford, Winton, Ahoskie and Edenton; Windsor and Aulander by The meeting was opened by singing: "Somewhere a Voice is Calling" by a member of the Gatesville Chapter, followed by Scripture reading and prayer by the Rev. M. Warner, pastor of the Baptist Church. The Mayor then gave us a welcome to this lovely little town that is dear to the heart of every Southern woman because of its being the birthplace of the youngest General of the Confederacy, Wm. P. Roberts, whose widow was with us and whose smile fell as a benediction upon us all. The welcome to the visiting Daughters and friends was written by the President of the Gatesville Chapter, Mrs. W. Y. Cross, and read by Mrs. E. R. Roberts, its Secretary. It was very stirring and beautiful; it begged us to press forward with greater zeal for the up-holding of our work and the upbuilding of ourselves as United Daughters of the Confederacy. We missed Mrs. Cross in our midst and deeply felt for her in her bereavement, for just a few days before all that was mortal of her illustrious husband was laid to rest in the family plot in the cemetery by the side of his loved ones to await the coming of his blessed Lord, for he had long been a follower of his meek and lowly Savior. The response to this welcome was given by Mrs. C. D. Bell, President of the D. H. Chapter of Elizabeth City. Mrs. Bell spoke as one inspired. She told us of our work, our duty, ourselves and begged our loyalty to all phases of the work. Her words were beautiful and appropriate.

Next followed the introduction of the District Director, Mrs. Roswell C. Bridger, of Winton, by Miss Mae Smith, of Gatesville. Mrs. Bridger then called to order the Eleventh Annual Meeting of the Sixteenth District. Ten Chapters comprise the District; eight responded to roll call. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Joe Vann, of Ahoskie, Secretary of the District, was kept home by sickness, so Mrs. B. B. Copeland, President of the Ahoskie Chapter, was asked to serve in her place. Mrs. Bridger then read the report of her activities for the past year. Her report was received by a vote of thanks.

Mrs. Bridger next introduced Mrs. R. P. Holt, of Rocky Mount, N. C., State President of the N. C. Division, U. D. C. Mrs. Holt, in her gracious manner, told of the work both finished and unfinished of the Division. She made an earnest appeal for Davis Monument, Women of the South in War Times, Old Ladies' Home, Educational Work, Women's Relief Fund, Hero Fund, Endowment Fund, Free Bed Fund and last begging the people to send the old ladies in our Confederate Home at Fayetteville some new Victrola records. The theme of Mrs. Holt's address was-our needs, our successes, our failures, and in beautiful and effective words she outlined our duty as true Daughters of the cause we love so well. We then went back to business, committees were appointed, nominations, time and place, etc., also on hospitality. It was now drawing near dinner time, and as the old soldiers had come in it was time to shake their hands and bid them "God Speed"; then our Mrs. Roberts extended an invitation to lunch, which was served below in the large hall of the High School It was a bountiful feast of good things, with cake and cream in Confederate colors as The hall was beautifully decorated and a Victrola gave out its sweetest notes. Just before the lunch hour the entire body went to the Cemetery, where Mrs. Holt in a few well chosen words, placed a wreath on the grave of General W. P. Roberts, as coming from the District.

The afternoon session opened at 2:30 with Mrs. R. C. Bridger in the chair. It opened by singing "America," after which Miss Bessie Taylor, daughter of Capt. Langley T. Tayloe, of Confederate fame, read us a most wonderful and inspiring paper: "U. D. C. Appreciation of the World-Wide-War's Strength." Miss Tayloe handled her subject in a masterly way. It was greatly enjoyed. At this time the words of "Dixie" came floating in and we all arose and with much feeling sang the old song through. Mrs. Bridger then read letters from our District Historian, regretting her inability to attend, and telling us of the sickness of her mother. A telegram of sympathy was sent Mrs. Phelps at her home in Merry Hill, N. C. We next had reports of the different Chapters. Many are in such a flourishing condition that they won the envy of all, especially Elizabeth City and Aulander. Others are alive, but not so flourishing. The District as a whole is in fine shape.

Mrs. C. R. Hinshaw, a niece of General W. P. Roberts, next entertained us delightfully by singing the song, "A Dream;" then came the crowning event of the day, when Miss M. E. Moore, of Edenton, read her own paper, "Our Trust." Friends, I wish you could have heard her. She was a young lady during the war and her paper was filled with the real feeling of the thing itself. She was gracious in words, graceful in manner and she won the hearts of us all. It was now time for a report of the committees. Two invitations were extended to the District—one from Edenton to meet with them next year, the other from Aulander. As Aulander gave way last year for Gatesville, Edenton withdrew in favor of Au-lander. So God willing, we will all be guests of Aulander in May, 1924. The date was left open. All the old officers were elected for another year. Just here was sung the "Old North State."

Mrs. Copeland then came forward and showed those present the beautiful ledger, beautifully inscribed in red and gold for the preservation of the records of the District meetings, as presented to them by their Director, Mrs. R. C. Bridger. It was moved all the old minutes be copied in the new ledger. It was seconded and carried. It was also seconded and carried that we turn over to the Division the care of the Confederate graves in the Appomattox Cemetery. This expense has been carried by us this past year, but we thought it best to give it up. The Chapters in the District have responded to every endorsed call that has been made upon them, and I now thank them all for the patience and aid they have extended me as their leader.

The official stationery used by me for the work of the District has been given and paid for by the Aulander Chapter. Hence it has helped me to carry on the work of the district in such an orderly manner. I appreciate not only this act, but all acts of the Aulander Chapter. They have been many.

May we press forward with a greater determination to carry on the work and uphold the hands of our President.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. ROSWELL C. BRIDGER,

Director.

AHOSKIE-AHOSKIE CHAPTER, NO. 1730

Our Chapter has met each month with interesting program and fairly good attendance. We have observed all Memorial Days and on May 10th we sent flowers to Confederate Soldier's grave. During the past year we sent flowers to the funerals of several Veterans. We have paid our general dues and sinking fund. Presented scholarship medal to Student in Grammar School; during the summer we helped raise funds to place marker to World War Veteran. This was unveiled in May. We remembered our Veterans at Raleigh and our Women at Fayetteville on Thanksgiving with boxes of apples. In addition to contributions listed in questionnaire we have contributed $1.50 to the Appomattox fund. We subscribe to The Veteran and feel that we could not get along without it. Our membership has not increased, but we feel that we are arousing interest as several have asked for application blanks.

The year's work has been most gratifying. Our historical programs have been unusually interesting and instructive. One of the most enjoyable entertainments was a benefit dinner at which time the home Veterans were our guests. The Children of the Confederacy sang beautiful songs and were most attractive in a lovely flag drill. At Christmas we sent each Veteran in our county a year's subscription to the Confederate Veteran and also a card with the season's greeting. Ten markers have been placed at Veterans' graves. On the tenth of May we had Mr. A. W. McLean as our speaker, and in the evening we gave him an informal reception. Recently we put on a moving picture which was widely patronized. We have a saving account of $194.71. The Daughters in the State responded most generously to Mrs. Holt's call for aid for the New Bern fire sufferers.

We place a floral offering on every Daughter who dies and an evergreen wreath with large bow of red ribbon and flag, with his name and command on every Veteran who "passes away." We have just had a measuring party and took in $21.75, and a Spelling Bee. We celebrated Robert E. Lee's birthday January 19, with that of Stonewall Jackson in the High School; the school taking part in it. On May 10 Hon. A. C. Ray of our town gave a most interesting memorial address, Tributes from others also to Our Dead. After which, to the tolling of church bells we covered their graves with wreaths and flowers, those dead Heroes of Ours. On June 3 Hon. W. D. Siler made a wonderful speech on Jefferson Davis. My husband Maj. Henry A. London collected a quantity of Confederate material with references, etc. It is a valuable collection. From these I ask questions at Chapter meetings. I am especially interested right now in the Confederate Navy. We will have our Chapter Birthday party in October. The Winnie Davis Chapter is twenty-five years old and a healthy interested Chapter. Last birthday they presented me, its organizer, with a tall solid silver vase in token of their love for me and I for them.

RALEIGH-JOHNSTON-PETTIGREW CHAPTER, NO. 95

Year by year we grow closer to the Veterans at the Home. The sick have become our special charges. We have a splendid committee which visits them every Wednesday carrying fruit, flowers, magazines and candy, also supplying a birthday cake for each Veteran in the hospital. We helped with the Christmas tree. Inspiring addresses were made on January 19 and June 3. Memorial Day is perhaps the crowning event with us, beginning with memorial services in the morning, followed by a bountiful dinner at noon. Fifty decorated automobiles carried the Veterans and Daughters to the Confederate cemetery where the day was fittingly ended by an eloquent tribute to them and the cause for which they fought. Mr. E. S. Parker, Jr., of Graham, was the speaker. The son of a Veteran, he spoke the language they love. From each of the five hundred graves decorated with flowers shone a Confederate flag.

In our charge is the State appropriation of $250 a year for the maintenance of this cemetery, the care of which has grown greatly with the rapidly increasing number of graves. Second only to the time we give to the living Veterans, is the time we devote to the care of the dead. After contributing to the calls of our organization, we adopted an Armenian, $60. Remarks: Veterans as usual our chief object of our attention throughout the year. Perpetuation of correct historical information and homage to the heroic past, our next interest. Along these lines, we have had a most successful year. The Chapter is in a healthy condition, and making progress intelligently and efficiently, widening its scope and increasing its interest. To show our community of interest with the Veterans and our living pride in their heroic and priceless inheritance, is the ritual of our organization.

During the past year, as usual Manly's Battery has devoted its attention chiefly to the Soldiers Home in Raleigh, the last Monday in every month having been assigned to the Battery as its visiting day. Its members have visited the Home regularly upon this day, carrying to the sick, fruit, flowers, candy, ice cream, and magazines and providing some sort of amusement. We have provided cakes and other refreshments for six birthdays, endeavoring to give to each old man the happiness of a real home birthday party. Have assisted the Mother Chapter (Johnston Pettigrew) in serving dinners on all patriotic memorial and feast days. Thanksgiving and Valentine Day provided feasts at our own expense. Beloved Capt. Cathey was our special charge. We gave his birthday cake, collected his gifts, cooperated in the bestowal of his certificate of honor as a State teacher. Visited his cottage constantly. Appointed delegation of honor to his funeral. Sent two handsome designs, wrote the inscription for his monument and gave our personal supervision to its erection. Provided for its turfing, and placed it in the personal care of Mr. Beavers, his devoted comrade, for whom we have bought flower seeds and bulbs to plant there.

Christmas we attended both the Christmas Tree of the Hospital and Chapel, providing presents for three orphans descendants of Veterans invited by us to be present. Made bags for candy, and provided decoration for three in hospital. Assisted in the trimming in hospital tree and in distributing of presents at both trees. We provided one birthday cake and assisted in serving the big birthday party for four Veterans of hospital on Washington's Birthday. On Memorial Day we assisted in decorating fifty automobiles, helped serve dinner to Veterans and their visitors, provided flowers and decorated and placed 1,500 flags on graves in Cemetery. Made and placed four handsome wreaths on Confederate Monuments in Capitol Square. Attended exercises and cared for Veterans throughout the day, contributing cigars for all.

On President Davis' Birthday we attended exercises at the Home Chapel, in body, received our certificates of honor from Miss Katie McKimmon, provided music, contributed cigars, and helped serve ice cream and cake to all the Veterans.

We made and provided badges for Veterans attending both State and General Reunion, about 45 in all. We have spent $25 in honor of the dead, in typewriting, postage, and distributing patriotic pamphlets, distributed 550 pamphlets of Lincoln as the South Should To every school in Wake County distributed Miss Rutherford's Questionnaire, and a $10 prize offered for best answer to same. Offered a $10 prize to this year High School student of Wake County for the best essay on Jefferson Davis. We placed 10 rare and out of print editions of Confederate History on our shelves at Olivia Raney Library, 25 copies of Chief Justice Clark's North Carolina's Part at Gettysburg, 30 copies of Jefferson Davis by Dr. Albright Long, 25 copies of Miss Rutherford's The South Must Have Her Rightful Place in History, and one article contributed to the Veteran with picture paid for by us.

To collect and preserve the material for a truthful history of the War Between the States, and to see that same is taught in our schools, also to record the part taken by Southern women in patient endurance of hardship and patriotic devotion during the struggle, as in untiring efforts after the war during the reconstruction of the South.

- 4. To assist descendants of worthy Confederates in securing proper education by securing scholarships for them.
- 5. To bring into the organization all women eligible to membership, and to cherish the ties of friendship that bind us in one great organization.

Northern women, having no male relatives who served the Confederate States of America in the War Between the States, 1861-1865, and having themselves performed no special service to same, but having married a Confederate soldier since 1865, and through this means becoming a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, shall have the words "by adoption" placed upon their certificate of membership, and upon the Registrar's books, and in all rosters shall be designated as members "by adoption;" said members being entitled to all honors and privileges of this Association except that of holding office in the General Association, Division of Chapters, except that of transmitting this honor to members of her family, only her children of a Confederate father.
